NOTICE TO FARMERS.

Dear Friends:—I certainly thank you for the business which you have thrown to me this spring so far and as there was a big rush on my make harness this year, I am running a little short on the same. But don't be afraid to come to me. I can still furnish you any kind of harness you want inside of three days, as I have plenty of leather on hand and all kinds of hardware to finish it with. Also have all sizes of horse collars and prices can't be beat. I can also furnish you with Manufactured harness, but I cannot put such a strong guarantee on them as I do on my own make, therefore wait 3 days longer in case I have not got the kind of harness you want, on hand, and I will make it for you. You no doubt will get the benefit.
