St. Paul Man Sold Diseased Meat

Charge Made That Hogs Used For Meat Had Died From Cholera.

As the result of activities by inspectors for the state food commission, Mike Svantner, a meat market proprietor at St. Paul is charged with having sold pork cut from the carcasses of forty or more hogs which had the cholera. Some of the hogs it is charged, were not even butchered, but died before any attempt was made to secure the meat.

A complaint charging ten counts against Svantner was filed in the county court, and information that reached Inspector Mayo was that the defendant stood ready to plead guilty and pay a fine of $100 on each count, or $1000 altogether with costs added. Owing to the failure of the county judge and the county attorney to agree on the amount of the fine, the complaint was subsequently withdrawn, but the prosecution has not been dropped.

On Thursday afternoon the principal witness against Svantner disappeared from St. Paul. He was a man who had been in the butcher's employ and helped take care of the carcasses of the diseased hogs, as he told Inspector Mayo.

Food Commissioner Harman had already sent Inspector Kemble to St. Paul for the purpose of assisting Mayo. Kemble and the Howard county sheriff drove in an automobile to Grand Island on Thursday evening, and at that place they located the missing witness. He had $135 in cash on his person. When asked how he came into possession of the money, he replied that he "drew it out of a bank." He was arrested and will be held as an accessory to the crime of selling diseased meat, unless he tells the same facts on the witness stand which he related to the inspector.

The hogs that were cut up and sold as meat, after they had contracted or died from cholera, were kept by Svantner in his own pens at his slaughter house, it is asserted. People at St. Paul who brought their meat of Svantner are very indignant over the disclosures.

Resolution, Notice and Proposition

Whereas, Under the laws of the State of Nebraska it is made the duty of the County Board of Supervisors of each county in the state to provide for a safe and suitable court house for the transacting of the county business, and to provide suitable offices for the accommodation of the county officers and court rooms and offices for the accommodation of the several courts of record of the county, and fire-proof vaults and every particular, and the vaults are not fireproof and not of sufficient capacity to hold the records of the county, and many of the valuable records of the county affecting titles to real estate are in no way protected against fire, and some of the more valuable records are protected by reason of the board through necessity having hired bank vaults outside of the court house.

The county jail is an old frame structure, and is not of sufficient strength to hold prisoners, and is unhealthful and unfit for use. And whereas, By reason of the aforesaid condition of the court house and jail of said county the record title to each tract of real estate in said county is in danger, also the court records and the records involving the estates of deceased persons are unsafe and liable to be destroyed by fire or otherwise, which might result in endless litigation and great expense. And the unsanitary condition of our jail is dangerous to the health of any unfortunate who may have to be incarcerated therein, by reason whereof the county may become liable in damages to those confined therein.

Now, therefore be it resolved by the Board of County Supervisors of said county of Sherman, in the State of Nebraska, in adjourned regular session met at the court house in Loup City, Nebraska, county seat of said county, and the usual place of meeting of said board, on the 19th day of May, 1914. That there be submitted to the legal voters of said county at a special election to be held therein on Tuesday, the 30th day of June, 1914, proposition which is set out fully in the following form of notice, which is made a part of this resolution, which said proposition it will be necessary to carry, in order to enable said board to provide a suitable and proper court house and jail for said county, to-wit:

To the Legal Voters of Sherman County, Nebraska:
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN. That at a special election to be held in said county on Tuesday, the 30th day of June, 1914, there will be submitted to the legal voters of said county, for their acceptance or rejection, the following proposition, to-wit: "Shall the Board of County Supervisors of Sherman county, State of Nebraska, for and in behalf of said county, issue the bonds of said county in the sum of seventy-five thousand ($75,000.00) dollars, of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, for the purpose of purchasing material for, and building, erecting, constructing, furnishing and completing a fire-proof court house with jail in connection in said county, in the city of Loup City, the county seat of said county, on block
