J. W. BURLEIGH, Editor and Pub. J. R. GARDINER Manager

We have received a big bunch of dope running up into the columns from F. G. Hamer of Omaha who is out as republican candidate for state treasurer, wishing to occupy our columns with the extensive eulogistic stuff in his favor and prepared by his managers. Hamer ran for the same office in the last campaign, and as is usual under our beautiful primary farce system, paid the big dailies bunches of money for space in the same and then called upon the country press to print columns of the dope gratis, with the accompanying stereotyped phrase that they would be kindly remembered, etc. The primary election is a gold mine for the big papers, and it is little wonder that the financial end of these papers control the editorial end. But to the taxpayers of the state, who have to pay out over one hundred thousand dollars as cost of holding every primary election and get not even as good results as under the old convention system, the primary business is a costly farce.

Ross Hammond, editor of the Fremont Tribune, and one of the best and most favorably known editors in the state, has filled for the republican nomination for governor. From years of acquaintance with Mr. Hammond, we know him to be one of the best equipped men for the chief executive's office in the state and it is with pleasure that we hear of his candidacy and can give him hearty support, knowing the republican, nor any other party can produce a better man in every respect for governor than Ross P. Hammond. Here's hoping he may receive the republican nomination, which this year is equivalent to election.

Another great ship disaster, in some respects even more horrible than the Titanic, occurred on the St. Lawrence river last Friday morning, in which from last accounts 964 people lost their lives. The disaster occurred about 2 o'clock in the morning, when a Danish collier rammed into the great passenger liner, Empress of Ireland, with over fourteen hundred souls on board, tearing the great steamship apart midships and plowed diagonally through her, from the effects of which the Empress of Ireland went down in 19 fathoms of water within fifteen minutes time, taking to their death nearly one thousand of those on board, nearly all of them first and second cabin passengers, who were drowned in their berths with no chance to save themselves.

Ex-Gov. Chester A. Aldrich hints strongly that he may conclude to again become a republican candidate for governor. Since Aldrich was so kind as to give democratic papers over the state big slices of constitutional amendment printing while governor it may be expected that he will expect much support from that source should he again shie his castor into the ring. Aud of course republican papers touched by the "touching" process of the ex-governor in his efforts for democratic newspaper support will fall over each other in their frantic efforts to see him governor again.

It is strongly hinted by those who seem to know regarding Roosevelt's future plans that the ex-president will again become candidate for president. Isn't it sufficient honor that he has discovered a great river in South America that no one ever heard of, without going after still further presidential honors?

Gov. Morehead, in his campaign for chief executive two years ago pledged that he would not become a candidate for the governor for a second term. If his pledges amount to so much wind in the past what may the people judge for the future.

Since Gov. Morehead turned lose a murderer of a ranchman in Cherry county, what a scramble there will be up in that country to re-elect him governor.

It is proposed to pass a law abolishing the muffler cut out on automobiles. How then is a man to call attention to his car?

Speaking of Gov. Morehead's promise, what does promises and pledges amount to anyhow,—with some politicians.
