ALONG ROUTE TWO

Born, Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Wagner, a baby boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Criss of Spaulding visited at the home of S. N. Criss Monday.

Harold Burt is able to be up after a three weeks sick spell out in Montana.

Mrs. C. O. Wagner was frightened one day last week when the little 2-year-old baby found a small hole in the foundation of the house and had crawled under it and out of reach, instead of coming to them it kept going under and did not stop until it got to the farther side of the house. Mrs. Wagner sent for her husband and he immediately commenced to dig a hole under the foundation. He was not long in getting the little one out.

Frank Casteel had a close call from having his eyes put out last week while putting up hay at H. Brodock's. They had finished a stack and the man on the stack threw his fork to the ground just as Mr. Casteel came into view. The fork struck him full in the face, one of the tines went in on the side of the nose and one struck on the other side, one of the tines tore quite a hole in the flesh under the left eye. Had the fork struck an inch higher, both eyes would have been blinded. He suffered a great deal at first but is much better at this writing.

Clerical Humor.
Laughter savors life and wit will endure long after many of the old priestly functions have fallen into desuetude; manners and ideas alter, but the basis of humor remains the same. Today Rabelais conceivably could have written the "Ingoldby Legends," and in the fifteenth century Barham might have been the author of "The Inestimable Life of the Great Gargantua." Today a young cleric, preaching his first sermon, has the native wit to take for his text, "What hath this bladder to say?"

Diogenes Says Hirsutone is good for the Hair.

"Oh! What a Lot of Hair!"
You often hear this remark because everyone delights at the sight of a luxuriant head of hair. There is nothing that will promote the growth of soft and glossy hair to a greater extent than Nyal's Hirsutone. There is nothing "just as good" because it is not merely a hair-wash—it's a Tonic—a REAL FOOD—cleanses, nourishes and stimulates the roots of the hair—removes all dandruff and preserves the hair's natural color and beauty. Fragrantly perfumed—easily applied—put up in handy sprinkle-top bottles—NYAL'S HIRSU-TONE should be on your dressing table. Only 50c and $1 the bottle. Highly recommended by us!

We are exclusive agents for Nyal Family Remedies—one for each ill—fully guaranteed and recommended.
