LOCAL NEWS

John Frandsen of St. Paul is a new employe at the State Bank.

Cliff Rein came home from the State University last Friday to visit at home over the Fourth and for some days later.

Plenty of rubber fruit jar rings and jar lids at the 5 10 & 25c store.

Clarence Petersen visited with friends at Grand Island over the Fourth, returning home Monday.

The Industrial Society of the Presbyterian church meets with Mrs. Collipriest next Wednesday afternoon.

Two large sheets of carbon paper for 5c at the 5 10 & 25c store.

Mrs. J. R. Gardiner and little son returned home from their visit at Dannebrog, Monday.

John Needham this week bought the Homer Hughes Ford car of Blaska and Woznick, Homer trading it on a new Maxwell.

Will Schumann, Irvin and J. W. Conger left last Sunday morning on a fishing and hunting trip up on Pony Lake.

A. Fowler and wife of Aurora visited over the Fourth with their grand-children, the Mesdames Doner and Conger and other relatives, returning home Tuesday.

Mrs. R. H. Mathew left yesterday morning for a visit at Olivet, Mich. She expects to be absent several weeks, returning by way of Chicago for a visit at that metropolis.

Judge Smith issued a license to and united in marriage Tuesday morning of this week, Wm. S. Mooney and Clara Alameda Jane Hetrick, both of Arcadia. The bride was only 17 years of age, and had the written consent of both parents.

Some fifteen lady friends of Mrs. Gus George gave that lady a genuine surprise party Tuesday afternoon of this week, the occasion being the anniversary of her birthday, the surprisers bringing with them a genuine banquet of good things to eat.

The electric light company has just completed building a large flume under the mill race, amply sufficient, it is thought, to in the future carry off all surplus water, which has hitherto proved a menace and disastrous to the property of land owners on the flats above the race.

Vaudeville attraction at Daddow Opera House Saturday, July 11, 13 and 14. The Ed Le Bord Company, highly recommended, will present high class ballad singing, comedy singing, talking and plenty of good dancing, with change of program.

The published report that Mrs. Solms will erect a new store building in place of the old structure now used by O. F. Petersen, is not founded on fact, Mrs. Solms not intending to re-build, at least this year, and Mr. Petersen will continue to occupy the building.

The county supervisors met as a board of equalization Monday and finished up that work. A portion of the day was put in by the county dads in settlement with the county treasurer, and adjournment was taken that evening till the 14th instant, when they will meet for general routine business.

In another column this week will be found the announcement of the candidacy of Lamont L. Stephens, our new attorney, for the office of county attorney, subject to the will of the democratic voters at the primaries. Mr. Stephens is a product of Sherman county, having been born and reared here, graduating in law from the State University, and has now opened a law office in this city and county where he is best known. He is a bright, studious young man, and we believe if nominated and elected will prove a faithful and efficient county attorney.

This week, Uncle Lou Williams again shies his castor into the field for re-nomination and election to the office of sheriff, which he has held for the past eleven years at the hands of the voters of Sherman county. That Uncle Lou has made good all these years is proven by his succeeding himself in that important office five successive terms. He is not ashamed to acknowledge having had the office for so long, in fact is proud of the number of terms and the record made as an efficient officer, as he has a right to be, and says so over his own signature in his announcement. It is a safe bet that nothing short of a political holocaust will keep him from re-nomination and re-election.

CHURCH NOTES

Baptist—Subject for morning, "Found Out at Last." Song and Gospel service in the evening.

Presbyterian—The pastor will preach at 10:30 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sabbath school, at 11:45 a. m. and Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Prayer service, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. A welcome to all.

Lewis Stock Company Coming

The announcement of the forthcoming engagement of the Wm. F. Lewis Stock Company which opens here Monday night, July 13 and continuing for the week should bring delight to the minds of the local lovers of theatrical amusement. This organization is already well and favorably known in Loup City and the company boasts added strength and merit in their line of plays offered and the personnel of players.

Each play has been selected after careful consideration and the features of interest to the audience are the possession of merit and the fact that it is new to all. The opening play is "The Call of the Woods," and it is said to be a particularly interesting comedy drama laid along novel lines, and dealing with the people of the great northwest lumber region. Other plays to be offered during the week are "California," "The Stranger," "Rose of the Ranch," "Cinderella," and "Olivia."

The Lewis Stock Company appears in its own mammoth electric lighted and absolutely water proof tent theatre. Remember the opening play next Monday night will be "The Call of the Woods." Admission prices are to be 25 and 35 cents.

The C. S. Morrisson, O.G. Hunt and Ezra Newcomer families and Mrs. Wagner and two children of Giltner, Nebr., spent Sunday at R. I. Barriek's.

M. Biemond and wife drove by auto out into the west part of the state last Thursday, visiting John Biemond at Lewellen and at other points, returning Monday. Tenus says the crops are looking fine along the route taken and they had a pleasant outing.

Dr. Carson of Grand Island will be in Dr. Dickenson's office in Rockville Wednesday July 15th, prepared to fit Glasses and to treat the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

Just now the farmers are so busy with harvesting propositions and field work that you couldn't drive them from their fortifications without killing them, and then their embodied spirits would still retain the enthusiasm and keep at the work till finished. This will prove the greatest crop year in the past decade.

For County Attorney

I wish to announce my candidacy for the Democratic nomination for county attorney at the Primary Election to be held August 18, 1914. I ask for the support of the voters of Sherman County because I feel that I am fully capable of performing the duties of the office, and because I am a Sherman county product, having been born here and having lived in the county all my life. Your support will be appreciated.

For County Sheriff

To the electors of Sherman county: I beg to hereby announce myself as a candidate for re-election to the office of Sheriff of Sherman county, Nebraska, subject to the will of the republicans of the county, to be expressed at the coming primary election to be held August 18th 1914. In making this announcement it is not to be forgotten that I have enjoyed the favor of the good people of Sherman county for nearly eleven years past, having been elected to five separate terms, and holding a year in addition by virtue of the change in law since my last election. I am cheerfully leaving it to be decided by the voters whether said experience is likely to better fit me for the duties of said position, or otherwise, and if they believe that said position should be entrusted to some other of the candidates who like myself have already filed, your verdict at said primary will be received without complaint. L. A. Williams.

It is Not Necessary to Argue.

It is no longer necessary to argue with a family about the necessity of a daily newspaper. The only question now is which one. With people who want a fearless, independent paper, one that will print all the news about all the candidates and about all public policies all of the time, the Lincoln State Journal is the one. A trial price of only $1.00 for the daily and Sunday from now until after November election will add thousands of new readers. The paper is not forced onto people through fakes and schemes, but is sold strictly on its merits. Everyone pays in advance, and all papers are stopped when the time is out. You are directly interested in the things that are being done by the state and national governments. The Journal does not support candidates but prints the facts about all of them. Two Big Shows Combined

Circle (D) Ranch Big Three-Ring Wild West, the Most Wonderful of All Exhibitions Coming Combined With Cooper Bros. Shows.
Over Five Hundred Men and Horses in this Vast Army From the West.

To suit the young and the old the modern exhibition must combine education with amusement and present something that will make a lasting and a favorable impression on the public. Owing to the rapid disappearance of the Indian and the astonishing advance of the West towards civilization, the history of that large and important portion of our country is yet an unwritten book to thousands of our people.

The Circle (D) Ranch' Big Three-Ring Wild West faithfully reproduces life on the frontier, showing Indian sports and warfare, the skill of the Cowboy with six shooter, lasso and pony, the discipline and training of the Western girl, the clever work of the bolas throwers the South American plains, the Arabs in their wonderful riding and shooting, the Mexicans as marksmen and horsemen, the Cossacks of the Russian steppes and innumerable other features of this unsurpassed entertainment.

The military tournament introduced is something never equalled either in magnitude or picturesqueness. Engaged in it are the Famous American Zouaves, U. S. Cavalry, English, German, French and Mexican soldiers and many other interesting people who will be strangers to many hundreds who see them here.

Circle (D) Ranch' Big Three-Ring Wild West will have five bands of music, the most famous of which is the cowboy band. The great street cavalcade will be witnessed by thousands on day of exhibition. Excursion trains will arrive throughout the morning and Loup City will have on her gala dress.

Impress the date of exhibition on your mind. Will exhibit at Loup City on July 14th afternoon and evening.
