In the announcement column this week will be found the invitation to republicans by our friend, W. T. Gibson, to give him their support for the office of county clerk. Mr. Gibson is too well and favorably known to the people of Sherman county for any word from us to be of further benefit. He is an old-time resident of the county and stands high in the estimation of our people. Taylor will make a most competent clerk, if the voters of the county see fit to honor him with that office.

LOCAL NEWS

J. B. Flint, the veteran harness-maker, who used to work for the Draper Bros., here, came up last week from Dorchester, where he has been the past two or three years, and will work for James Bartunek. Mr. Flint is a splendid workman, an artist at his trade, and will undoubtedly prove a valuable adjunct to the Bartunek Harness emporium. Mr. Flint came to this county back as far as 1896, at Litchfield, where he was in business for himself, and is well known to our people.

The name of R. P. Starr will this week be found among the political announcements as candidate for the office of state senator for this district composed of Sherman, Buffalo and Kearney counties. What the Northwestern has heretofore said regarding Mr. Starr, as a bright, capable and thoroughly equipped man and lawyer, can be reiterated here. Should he be our next senator, Sherman county will be on the map in the coming legislature, as it was when that grand old hero and leader, Judge Aaron Wall, made the state sit up and listen when he represented this senatorial district.

The announcement of J. R. Gardiner for nomination to the office of clerk of the district court will be found in this issue among others. Mr. Gardiner was for five years the virtual engineer of the Times of this city and to him may be ascribed the building up and success of that paper under the present management. For the past number months, he has been at the head of the mechanical departments of the Northwestern and is found a most competent man in management of the same. With commendable ambition, he wishes to advance to something even better and comes out for the above important office, asking support of republicans for their suffrage. Judging by his ability shown in the printing art, he will undoubtedly make good, in case he is nominated and subsequently elected.

Mr. and Mrs. John Youngquest will go to Sherman county Saturday for a visit with the Dwight Jacoby family and other relatives in that vicinity. From there Mr. Youngquest expects to proceed in about two weeks to Watertown, S. D., for a visit with three of his sons who are farming up there. During a very pleasant call at the Republican office this morning Mr. Youngquest told of many interesting incidents during the pioneer days in Monroe precinct. He lived until eleven years ago on the farm now occupied by his son Edward and saw his full share of ups and downs. Mr. Youngquest was a member of an Illinois regiment during the Civil war and when he was captured on Sherman's march to the sea he surprised the rebels who called him a d—d Yankee" by telling them that he was a full blooded Swede. They had heard of such an race but never expected to see a real live specimen.—The Aurora Republican.
