Among the announcements this week will be found that of John J. Jezewski, who asks nomination at the primaries for the office of county treasurer at the hands of the democratic voters. John has no competitor on the democratic side, hence goes to the campaign, undoubtedly, with the full democratic endorsement. He is one of our brightest Polish citizens and no doubt would fill the office satisfactorily in case he was successful at the polls.

Among the political announcements this week will be found that of A. C. Ogle for the office of sheriff at the hands of the democratic voters at the coming primaries. If size, good nature and everlasting energy counts, Friend Ogle will be in the forefront among the five candidates before the democratic primaries, and in fact Pete is a pusher in everything he undertakes. If he should come out winner and become high sheriff, he no doubt would prove most satisfactory in that office.

J. S. Pedler this week presents his announcement in our columns as a candidate for re-election to the office of county attorney at the hands of republicans at the primaries. As he has no competitor for the nomination, he is sure winner there, and as he is a vote getter par excellence, and knows no such word as fail, nor has ever been worsted in any former place to our knowledge, it would take little less than a political earthquake to shake him loose from his position as a sure winner. He is too well known to the people to make any comment at our hands of value.

The announcement of W. S. Waite as a candidate for clerk of the district court at the hands of the republican voters at the coming primaries will be found among others this week in our columns. Mr. Waite has been here so many years and been connected with the fortunes of Sherman county so long that he is too well known for any comment at our hands to be of further value. With his experience along clerical lines, if he is successful at the primaries and fall election, he will make a satisfactory man for the duties devolving upon him, there is no doubt.

Believing that the time and opportunity has arrived when a personal and public welfare can alike be promoted by a sale of my lands, I have concluded to dispose of all my holdings in Valley and Greeley counties, Nebraska.
 Being fully aware that the most ample facilities of purchase are needed, and often a necessity, for those who are seeking a permanent home on a farm, and recognizing further, that good agricultural lands with constantly increasing value, constitute the best possible basis of security for the investment, and loan of capital, it becomes apparent that there can be thus instituted a mutuality of interest between the purchaser and the seller.
 Accordingly, I have in the terms of my contemplated sale of the lands, made an effort to materialize as fully and equably as possible, this existing identity and community of interests. As there does not exist in my varied financial affairs and business enterprises any necessity for an increased use of additional capital, I am therefore enabled, in seeking to facilitate the purchase of these lands, to offer them on an extended period of purchase and at a most reasonable rate of interest on deferred payments, as well as a very liberal term of years exemption, before the first installment of purchase money falls due.
 For further information, apply to my agent, E. J. Shinn, Beatrice, Nebraska.
