Jenner's Park has just received at much expense a wild Mexican hog. Mr. Jenner believes no attraction is too good to get for his park.

The following are the progressive delegates to the state convention at Lincoln, July 28th: A. E. Waneke, H. E. Robinson, David Kay, A. L. Zimmerman, Ed. Jones and George Curry.

Do you want to sell your farm? If so list it with W. D. Zimmerman, he can get the buyer for you.

There will be a big dance and house warming this week Saturday night on the Outhouse farm gotten up by a bunch of Loup City boys and it is proposed to have one of the best events of the season. The barn is a mammoth structure, with the smoothest of floors and with splendid music and best of order which is assured, the young people of Loup City, Arcadia and surrounding country should have the time of their lives.

On the evening of the Base Ball Tournament, August 6th there will be a big dance in the dance pavilion at Jenner's park, with Pritchard's orchestra giving the music and the park brilliantly lighted with electricity. Tickets for the dance, 75c, spectators 25c, ladies free. This is to be the big event of the season along that line. Don't forget it and make your arrangements to be one of the elect and merry revellers that night.

Our "Odd Fact" Series.
The longest word in the German language is "Constantinopolitanischerbergstrasse" which means, "The fatherly lodging house keeper for Turkish baggage makers journeyman."—Letter to New York Herald.

Course of True Love.
"I thought my fiancée broke our engagement when she threatened to kill me," pleaded a Nevada defendant in a breach of promise suit. Not a bit of it—that is a way some women have of cinching things.

Sad Lesson.
A—"You don't seem to have any life in you. Is there nothing or nobody over which you can enthuse?" B—"Nothing at all. I once became enthusiastic over somebody, and a short time afterward she became my wife. That was a sad warning to me to avoid enthusiasm."

Limoges' China Industry.
Limoges has a world-wide reputation for its china. The industry has been carried on in this city for over a century. The excellence of its ware, its hardness, fineness of texture, perfect vitrification and translucency make it unsurpassed in the estimation of connoisseurs.

Reminders of Limerick Siege.
Near a battle scene during the siege of Limerick, in 1691, workmen while excavating discovered a quantity of human remains recently. A bullet hole was observed in one skull, and on examination a bullet was found embedded in the bone.

Soured on Afternoon Teas.
"Then you don't like these afternoon teas?" "Too rough on the nerves. Here's the situation: I gotta hold a sandwich in my mouth, a plate of cake in one hand, a cup of tea in the other, and nothing to set anything on but a grand piano."

Take Care of Your Fluorine.
Prof. Armand Gautier tells the French Academy of Sciences that when the element of fluorine begins to disappear from the body old age comes on. It is this that causes the falling of the hair and the loss of the teeth.

Little Wonder.

ALONG ROUTE TWO ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Mrs. Will Draper is visiting at Grand Junction, Colo.

Ed Pugsley's oats went fifty bushels to the acre.

There was a big dance at Henry Kuhls last Saturday night the reports a good time.

Mrs. Ed Kilpatrick has been up in the sand hills visiting her son Ernest.

George McFadden's wheat weighed out 30 bushels to the acre and tested 63 pounds to the bushel.

Those that had hogs on the Loup City market last Friday were Alfred Jorgensen, Frank Daddow and Mrs. Henry Neisner.

Don't miss seeing the masquerade route parade Monday, September 7th. It will be much better than last year.

Every one on the route are sore at W. O. Brown for trying the corner all the rain as he did last Thursday and Friday, however, W. O. promises to be better in the future.

The main features of the route picnic September 7th will be a masquerade parade, a wrestling match, short talk by Rev. Slocumb, a play entitled "That Ras-cal Pat" one half hour long, a dance for an hour, two ball games, an hour on the ocean wave, and many other side attractions, 100 cases of pop which will be sold at two bottles for 5 cents.

Rural carriers have been granted an increase of pay and their checks on the 4th of August ought to be not less than $8 more, on a standard route of 25 miles or more.

In the new postal law if a carrier gets hurt in the line of duty and is unable to work for one year he draws full pay and it is not to exceed 1 year, in case it is two years before he is able to work again he draws 50 per cent of the yearly salary, in case of death $2,000 will be paid to his wife or other relatives. It looks as if rural carriers ought to be satisfied for this year. When the carrier on route 2 carried mail 8 years ago the salary was $720 per year year, now it is $1,200 per year.

When Scauties Suffer.
A London writer says that the beautiful American woman is very beautiful, but she lacks feeling because she has not suffered enough. Still a lot of them overcome that drawback when they wed English titles.—Philadelphia Enquirer.

Sucrose in Many Fleahy Roots.
Sucrose is found in the fleshy roots, such as the beet, carrot, turnip and sweet potato, but thus far it is only from the beet that it has been obtained in quantities commercially profitable. The beet root today yields by far the greater part of the world's sugar supply.

Visiting Cook.
An English girl has adopted the profession of visiting cook, and will devote herself to teaching the indispensable art. She believes that "if kitchens were beautiful, and not the stuffy, stodgey dungeons that they so often are, and that if women dressed for their work in them with the care that they dress for a ball, cooking would no longer be regarded as drudgery and a monotonous business."

County Superintendent

I desire to announce my candidacy for the office of County Superintendent of Schools for Sherman county. Appreciating previous favors, I thank in advance, all those who will in any way contribute to my support at the August primaries.

MARY A. K. HENDRICKSON.
I hereby announce myself as candidate at the coming Primary Election for the Republican nomination as County Superintendent of Public Instruction and will greatly appreciate the support of the voters of Sherman County.
Respectfully,
Ethel Pearson Heapy.

I am a candidate before the primaries of August for renomination by the democratic party to the office of County Superintendent of Schools. J. R. Gardiner.

To the Voters of Sherman County:
A petition having been filed with the County Clerk requesting me to allow my name to appear upon a primary ballot August 18, 1914, as a Republican candidate for the office of Clerk of the District Court, I hereby announce that I fully appreciate the same and have filed an acceptance to the above request.

Not unmindful of past favors and hoping that I may merit your further support, for which I shall feel very grateful, I am,
Yours very truly,
Wilber S. Waite.

To the electors of Sherman county, Nebraska, I beg to state that I have filed for the nomination for the office of Clerk of the District Court of your county, as a republican, subject to the will of the voters of said county to be expressed by them at the coming primary election to be held August 18th, 1914.

I first made my home in this county in the year 1877, and continued to live here, and to make the same my home for the following twelve years, at which time I became engaged in the United States mail service, living at Council Bluffs and Omaha, until 1908, when I returned to live permanently in this county, and have remained here and been engaged in farming ever since.

My long experience in clerical work in the service of the United States, who is always considered to be a strict master, may as I believe, have of some distance toward preparing me for a kind, and careful performance of the duties devolving upon that of office. Should you see fit to choose me for the position, I pledge you the very best service that I am able to perform, rendered with the utmost kindness and patience.
Geo. Brill.

For County Attorney

I wish to announce my candidacy for the Democratic nomination for county attorney at the Primary Election to be held August 18, 1914. I ask for the support of the voters of Sherman County because I feel that I am fully capable of performing the duties of the office, and because I am a Sherman county product, having been born here and having lived in the county all my life. Your support will be appreciated.
Lamont L. Stephens.

To The Voters of Sherman County, Nebraska,
I have filed as republican candidate for the office of County Attorney and will appreciate the support of all who consider me worthy of a second term.
Respectfully,
J. S. Pedler.
