A Word to the Young Men

We wish every young man in this town and county could start a bank account with us. It would not mean much to us but it would mean lots to them. What a recommendation it would be for our town could we say to the world that every young man carried a bank account. It would be worth more to the town than to advertise we had the greatest college on earth. Young men, come in and let us talk this over with you.

CLIPPED

A. L. Ballman is carrying his foot is a sling since Monday and hobbling around on crutches, and all because he is one of the luckiest mortals living. Had he been unlucky in the matter, he would have been shy a leg and in all probability he would have been a badly mangled man. He was discing and in some manner, which he cannot explain, he caught his foot in the machine, and in such a way that he had his shoe all cut and his foot cut to such an extent that he had to have three stitches taken when medical aid was reached. He hollered at his horses to stop the second he felt his foot in the disc and he can thank his lucky star that they stopped, or the result would be appalling. He was able to extricate himself, mount one of his horses and get a neighbor to help him get to the house, get out his auto and come to town for medical treatment.—St. Paul Press.

A letter was received last week from John A. Weber by his children which was written the 6th of August stating they had written to him before, since the war started, but sealed the letter as usual, but the letter came back to them, they had to be left open and examined at the sea port, as they are afraid they will use them for spy work they said, 160 men had to leave the little village of Holzhausen where they are visiting at the present time, the second of August and bid their woman and children good by, they said it was a heart breaking scene. Mrs. Weber is not feeling any better she had been taking treatment but everything is broken up now even the doctor is gone. They are coming back as soon as they can.—Litchfield Monitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Hunter celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Friday and enjoyed a nice dinner prepared for them by Mr. and Mrs. Wetherington of the Colony house. E. O. Briggs and wife set down to table with them also, Mr. Briggs being a nephew of Mrs. Hunter. They were married fifty years ago in Indiana, their native state where they lived until 1882 when they moved to Nebraska where they resided until May 1911, when they came to Zephyrhills with the intention of spending the evening of their life in Florida's balmy clime. Mr. Hunter has been honored by offices of trust, by the people wherever he lived and is still in the harness being our Justice of the Peace at this time. He is seventy-five years old while Mrs. Hunter is a few years his junior. May they live many years yet and be happy.—Zephyrhills (Florida) Colonist.

Prominent citizens of this section will meet at Ord tomorrow to organize the "Central Nebraska and Loup River route," an auto road running from North Platte, runs to South Loup river, Arnold across West Table, Merna, Broken Bow, down Clear Creek valley, through Lee Park, over Middle Loup river, Arcadia, down Mira valley, North Loup, over North Loup river, Scotia, on north side of North Loup river to Cushing, Fullerton, Genoa, Monroe, Columbus over Lincoln highway to Omaha. Another road to be organized is the North Loup and Calamus River route, that will follow the C. N. & L. route from Columbus to North Loup, thence up the North Loup river, Ord, Elyria, Burwell, on the north side of the Calamus river on the Bloody creek valley, thence north to Bassett, Neb., or Longpine.—Sargent Nebraska Leader.

A group of men were pestering a German and taking him to task for the sins of his countrymen. "It is a terrible thing one of them declared solemnly, after winking at his companions, "for these German aviators to drop bombs on the city of Paris, killing and maiming helpless women and children. A civilized people wouldn't do such a barbarous thing."

The German began to dance. "Trop bumps, trop bumps!" he sputtered. "Vat voutl you have dem trop? Sausages?"—State Journal.

The state law says bird and duck shooting opened Tuesday, September 1, and the federal law says it must not begin until October 1. You can take your choice and also your chances.—Kearney Democrat.
