New Prizes Offered in the Northwestern's Big Campaign

A full thirty piece china dinner set will be given to each candidate who turns in $15.00 on subscriptions (either old or new) between October 22nd and October 28th inclusively. Just a club of $15.00 worth of subscriptions; that's all. Now, the dishes are merely extra and will effect in no way the winning and the main prizes. Your votes will count on the auto and other prizes just the same. Reports which are postmarked October 28th will be included in this offer, even though late in reaching us.

Large Prize Ballot Offer!

To the contestant who turns in the largest amount of money on subscriptions between October 22nd and October 28th, inclusive, we will give 10,000 extra votes in addition to the ones regularly issued as a prize ballot for his or her energy. To the contestant who turns in second most money on subscriptions we will give 9,000 extra votes as a prize ballot. There will be 8 prize ballots awarded to the 8 contestants who turn in the most money during that period. Mail orders bearing a postmark of on or before 12 p.m. from the town where mailed the 28th, will count on this offer. The prize ballots are

1. 10,000      2. 9,000      3. 6,000      4. 5,000      5. 4,000      6. 3,000      7. 2,000      8. 1,000

The following table shows the value of subscriptions in terms of votes. Old subscribers are people now taking the Northwestern; new subscribers are people not now taking the Northwestern.

Decisions upon which hang fate, the real turning points of life, often come upon us unaware, and things that decide one's destiny may, in their hour, seem small."

J. W. BURLEIGH, Editor and Pub.

J. R. GARDINER Manager

So far in the campaign the editor of this paper has had little to say regarding his candidacy for representative from this 57th district. Since the primary he has been busy looking after the interests of the paper, which has been increasing its circulation and enlarging its business steadily, and has had no time to campaign. Nor does he think it essential, as the voters of the entire county are either personally acquainted with him or know him through the columns of the paper. For the past over 30 years he has been editing newspapers and helping in building up the communities in which he has been working. As a republican all these years he has politically and to the best of his ability upheld the principles of republicanism, never asking nor accepting any political preferment at the hands of the party. Now that he has asked for and received the nomination for representative, and without any opposition at the primary, he further asks the voters of that party to return with full measure his efforts by giving him a united support for which he asks their suffrage. Further, he has always treated those who differed with him politically in a courteous manner, granting them the same rights he has asked for himself, and would respectfully ask not only, the votes of the party to which he belongs but the votes of all those who feel that the editor can and will represent Sherman county in the coming legislature for their best interests. If elected, he promises to conscientiously and honestly represent the people, without regard to special interests, but for the interests of the people as a whole.

You will make no mistake in voting for W. T. Gibson for county clerk. He is an honest, conscientious, upright citizen and if elected to the important office to which he aspires will prove a faithful and efficient officer.

R. P. Starr has been busy down in Buffalo and Kearney counties the past two or more weeks looking after his candidacy for senatorship from this 22nd senatorial district and finds the most encouraging situation in those countries favoring his aims. From all sides he is assured that the state will go republican by a handsome majority and that result will attend his candidacy for senator with a goodly majority in both houses. That R. P. Starr will be elected by a safe majority seems to be the outlook.

Whatever office is to be filled, common sense dictates that it should be filled for the very best interests of the people as a whole. J. S. Pedler as county attorney has saved the county many hundreds of dollars to the taxpayers by settling matters out of court and the perfect satisfaction of justice. Another two years for Uncle Joe in that office means a continuance of existing conditions under his guidance. From a business standpoint this is to the interest of the taxpayers.

While M. P. Kinkaid is busy in Washington attending to his duties as Congressman from the Big Sixth, Frank Taylor is busy advancing his arguments as to why he should fill the shoes of our Moses. But then, Frankie, the republican Moses will receive so many crosses in the square opposite his name that our St. Paul friend will scarcely know he has been in the race. He should have tackled something easier.

The political situation is beginning to warm up in Sherman county as well as in the other parts of the state. Of course the primary law to a large extent kills off party affiliations, but there is enough left of the old party fervor to make the situation interesting.

Only one more issue of the Northwestern before election, which occurs Tuesday, Nov. 3. Bear the date in mind and let every voter be out and vote his sentiments.

FOR CONGRESS

FRANK J. TAYLOR
ST. PAUL, NEBRASKA.

CONGRESSMAN KINKAID
FOR RE-ELECTION

Special effort for development of western Nebraska.

Legislation yet this congress for guarantee of payment of deposits in national banks, for the making of farm loans at low rates, and for monthly payment of soldiers' pensions.

Favor, economizing in expenditures to avoid the necessity for a war tax. Believe purchase of ships under flags of belligerent nations would constitute violation of neutrality policy. Assume voters have recognized it to be my duty to remain in attendance of the session until adjournment notwithstanding the campaign is on. Highly appreciative of former generous support, I thank voters for their consideration in the present campaign.

M. P. KINKAID.
