NUMBER 45

IS GROWING QUITE FRANTIC

Postmaster-Editor Beushausen of the Alleged Times-Independent Printing Company in a Bad Way.
A BAB CASE OF BUG-HOUSE.

The Times-Independent Printing Co., so-called for the purpose of allowing Beush to frame a fake on the people and ostensibly live up to the ruling of the democratic postoffice department while postmaster, came out last week with a lot of double-distilled agony of the postmaster-editor over the candidacy of the Northwestern editor for representative. It was really a bright decoction from the haired knot grown up from Tape worm Charley's shoulders, and while not as truthful as it should have been, was as much so as could be expected from the source. The tapeworm editor's wriggling was undoubtedly acquired way back years ago when he sat up several hours on his snipe-hunting expedition along the creek, waiting for the snipes to fly into the mouth of the sack he was holding. Or it may have been acquired when he was a candidate for county clerk during his anxious moments when he was waiting to see if the booze which he is alleged to have sent into a certain precinct to influence votes in his favor had borne fruit. Or it might have been acquired when he was a self-made candidate for state land commissioner and trying to wriggle out of the World-Herald's statement that he was a leading county opportunist, which he strenuously denied as hurting his candidacy. Or it might have been acquired in his efforts to secure the postoffice here and at the same time make the democrats believe he was not after the plum. Or it might have been acquired in any one of many other ways, not necessary to mention here. He may have a case of senescence prematurely, a sort of mental decay, we might add sympathetically, as an excuse for his article of last week, for certain it is that it was about the weakest mental contribution to that growing senile publication we have seen or heard of since we secured from that paper the only brains it has exhibited since Ed Brown sold the sheet to Beush. It is hardly possible that the Senagambian outfit connected with the fake publication alluded to above can understand the plain English in the above, judging from the school boy articles emanating from the Times Company, which smack more of the ignorant than of the intelligent. If not, if nature has not provided them with mentality, then indeed they will not be able to comprehend just what we mean. Of course, the writer could call petty names, truthfully allude to some things the paper says as plain lies, make ugly faces back at them, etc., but we prefer to allow the alleged Times Company the sole and exclusive use of the brainless epithets they call the writer, which, by the way they have not coined but have appropriated from those who have some claim to originality.

W. H. Thompson went to Washington to settle the Bryan-Hitchcock spoils in Nebraska. He found Bryan anxious for a settlement of the difficulty providing it was settled his way. Then Mr. Thompson came home and the republicans are still holding all the fat offices in the state and neither Bryan nor Hitchcock will permit the people to elect these officeholders themselves. They decry the system of letting the political bosses name the little postmasters, and then they demand the right as such political bosses to name the big fat job holders. If the republicans don't carry the state next month it won't be anything that either Bryan or Hitchcock has done to elect the democratic candidates.—Kearney Democrat.

Paul Leeper, son of Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Leeper, formerly of the M. E. Church at this place, was here a few days last week visiting his friend, Clyde Adamson, leaving Monday morning.

Another change in business circles was made last week, J. G. Pageler purchasing the dairy and business of John Haesler and will continue the business. Mr. Haesler has been a faithful and efficient dispenser of lactal fluid to our people and we can assure the patrons that friend Pageler will continue the same satisfactory service.

U. S. GETS VAST WAR ORDERS

England, France and Russia Buying Clothing, Autos, Wire, Sabers and Horseshoes.
FRANCE SPENDS $71,000,000

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 17.—War orders placed by Russia, England and France with textile and steel manufacturers in Philadelphia and vicinity have resulted in increased activity in those districts.

Charles M. Schwab of the Bethlehem Steel company is reported to be the agent of France in placing orders for $71,000,000 worth of supplies in this country, including automobile trucks.

Local textile firms, running about half time before the war began, are now working three-quarters time, employing 75,000 men, women and boys.

Woolen goods, blankets, sweaters, underwear and hosiery are demanded by the warring powers.

Two hundred thousand blue blankets are being made for France by John & James Dobson, Inc.

The Roxford Knitting company is making 100,000 cotton garments for the French hospital corps.

Numerous hosiery mills have enough European orders to keep them busy four months.

Twenty-five thousand tons of barbed wire has been shipped to Europe.

Interruption of trade with Germany, from whence came roller bearings, has forced the Standard Roller Bearing company plant to run night and day.

The Crucible Steel company has a contract for 5,000 tons of steel for sabers.

Bethlehem, Pa., reported that many tons of horseshoes, calks and nails are being manufactured for Europe.

Last week we announced the sale of the Pioneer meat market to a new man Ed Spafford of Central City. However, a few days later we were apprised the sale was off, the market back under the old management and Mr. Spafford leaving for other points. The shop will remain in charge of S. F. Reynolds for the present, and continue its good service under his excellent management.

G. P. Callahan, formerly of city, but now of Torrington, Wyo., was here the latter part of last week visiting his brothers-in-law, Dr. A. S. Main, C. C. Cooper and Ed. Angier, and families.

Conklin-Hazlett Wedding Bells

"Miss Celia Conklin, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Abram N. Conklin, was married to Floyd Hazlett Rockwell of York, Neb., at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Curry of Kansas City, Mo., Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

The Rev. J. H. Curry, D. D., read the ring service in the drawing room, the bridal couple standing before a bank of ferns and palms. Pink roses and smilax decorated the dining room where a four-course breakfast was served immediately after the ceremony.

The bride wore her going away suit of green chiffon broadcloth with a blouse of gold brocade over white chiffon. She carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses.

After the ceremony Mrs. J. S. Jeffers sang "At Dawning," and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Miss Lillian Curry.

Mr. and Mrs. Rockwell will be at home at York, Neb., after November 20th.

The bride is one of the most charming and accomplished young ladies of this city and is highly esteemed by all. The groom has visited here often and is a pleasing gentleman. The Republican unites with the many friends of the happy couple in wishing them a happy and prosperous life together.—St. Paul Republican, Oct. 22.

Ora Oliver Dubry Laid to Rest

On Tuesday of last week, Oct. 20, 1914, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Dubry, at Lincoln, occurred the death of Ora Oliver Dubry, aged 5 years, 4 months and 22 days. The remains were brought to Loup City the following day, and the funeral held Thursday from the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Dubry, Rev. L. V. Slocumb officiating, and the little form laid to rest in our beautiful Evergreen Cemetery. Deceased was the youngest son, and leaves to mourn his death, the loving parents, two brothers, two sisters and many friends.

Card of Thanks—We hereby wish to extend our sincere thanks to those who so kindly assisted us in the hour of bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Dubry, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Dubry, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rowe, and their families.

Perserverance Will Win Car

Startling Offer Made to Contestants. A Chance For Those Who Have Not Started Their Campaign to Forge to the Front. Of Interest to Everybody. Get in Line. Pile Up a Bunch of Extra Votes

FIVE THOUSAND EXTRA VOTES WILL BE GIVEN.

Read Over the Big Offer Below. Then Hustle for Subscriptions. Anyone May Work On This Offer. No Big Lead To Overcome at This Date.

THE CONTEST HAS JUST STARTED.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. will serve oysters, coffee, sandwiches and doughnuts, for dinner, supper and lunch, election day and night, in the building just vacated by the Dreamland Theatre. Everybody come and help the ladies.

Note—Contestants that wish sample copies sent to their prospective subscribers may prepare a list of names and we will send them. However, the list must be handed in before Tuesday of each week so that we will know how many extra papers to print.

In a contest there are many things that happen, that tend to discourage a contestant and cause them to lose heart, but the one that don't let those things work is the one that always comes out on top. You will find a lot of people that are tickled to death if they can make you think there is no chance and that you were foolish to ever undertake the thing and all that sort of "bunk." Here is a little poem that I read the other day in my exchanges and it expresses my thoughts as well as anything could. There is more truth than poetry in it too. Read it over carefully and if you do not feel like making things hum you are a very peculiar person. Somebody said that it couldn't be done.

But he with a chuckle replied,
That may be it couldn't be done
Who would say so until he had tried
So he buckled right in with the trace
Of a grin
On his face. If he worried he hid it.
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done and he did it.
Somebody scoffed, "Oh you'll never do that.
At least no one ever has done."
But he took off his coat and he took off his hat
And the first thing we knew he'd begun it.
With a lift of his chin, and a bit of a grin,
Without any doubting or quidditt.
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done and he did it.
There are thousands to tell you it can't be done.
There thousands to prophesy failure;
There are thousands to point out one by one,
The dangers that await to assail you.

But just buckle in with a bit of grin,
Take off your coat and go to it.
Start out to sing as you tackle the thing,
That "cannot be done" and you'll do it.
Now that is a very good poem and it should have effect on a great many of you candidates. Not only candidates can profit by that wisdom, but every one no matter whether big or little, rich or poor can get by in this world if they will do things this way.

Read this very carefully and then get busy. On every ten dollars you turn in on subscriptions between Oct. 29 and Nov. 4 inclusive we give 10,000 extra votes. If you turn in twenty dollars you will receive 20,000 extra votes if you turn in thirty dollars you will receive 30,000 extra votes and so on. All reports to count on this offer must be in by Wednesday, Nov. 4th, midnight or if mailed must bear a postmark of the town mailed from before this time. This is the opportunity for those that have not started a campaign, to get in line and pile up many extra votes. A few clubs of ten dollars will put you right up in the race. Don't overlook this chance.

LIST OF SUBSCRIBERS
We have prepared lists of subscribers in each locality, which shows how much each subscribers owes on subscriptions, and we will send list out to contestants who want them. Just drop the contest manager a line and he will mail them out to you. Get one of these lists now and see the people that are in arrears.

FIRST SPECIAL PRIZE
Mrs. R. Norseen on route three Loup City was the winner of a silver set of knives and forks that was given to the contestant that turned in the most money on subscriptions from Oct. 21st. to Oct. 27th inclusive. In speaking of Mrs. Norseen's good work it can also be said that a number of other candidates did splendid work and perhaps would have been the winner had they taken advantage of every opportunity that was before them to obtain subscriptions.

Congratulates W. T. Gibson

Oct. 23, 1914., W. T. Gibson, Loup City, Neb., Friend Taylor:—I have just read that you have finally won out in your cases against Sherman county, and that the supreme court has decided that you are entitled for the work you did seven years ago. It does me good to know that the court has reversed the lower court in this matter. It makes me feel that I was not altogether wrong when I introduced the two bills in the house and worked them through. I hope that the county supervisors will pay not only the principal but will pay interest as well. In fact they should pay all the costs including attorneys fees. Now if you can win out in the coming campaign you will be all right. Hope you will remember me to all the old friends there in Loup City. Your friend, E. A. Brown, Friend, Nebraska.

Store at Schappus Burned to Ground

A fire at Schappus yesterday morning destroyed the Peters general merchandise store. We have no particulars save that it was totally destroyed.

We want to get this list down to working proportions just as soon as possible, so let us know your intentions at once.

CONTEST NEWS
Take advantage of this beautiful weather and make a house to house canvass of this city or any other city.

Do not stop when you have called on all your friends. When your list of acquaintances has been exhausted begin on people you do not know. Tell them what you are working for and if you are earnest and sincere in your solicitation for help in your fight to win the 1915 Maxwell Touring car you will find that even people who do not know you at all will be interested in the fight you are making and will be glad to help the ambitious.

No candidate can hope to win anything worth while without expending effort. No man or woman has so many friends that they can sit at home and wait for them to come in with their subscription without personal solicitation either over the telephone by circular letter or personal interview.

If you have an ambition to win, and the energy to accomplish your ambition, you will win the respect of everybody whether or not they are your friends or merely residents with you in the same city or town. Every one admires ambition and the conviction and energy to make their ambition a realization. Everyone is ready to help the ambitious when they are really enthusiastic and in earnest.

A BIG OFFER
We will give with each new subscriber to the Northwestern a year's subscription to "The Homestead" and "Today's Magazine." Giving a $3.00 value for $1.50 the price of Northwestern alone. Now is the time to subscribe for the paper and take advantage of this Big offer. All subscriptions taken by the contestants will include a year's subscriptions to the Northwestern.

To the Voters of 22nd Sen. Dist.
To the Voters of Sherman, Buffalo and Kearney counties:
We hereby submit to you our reasons why Peter Wink should be re-elected State Senator of Senatorial District No. 22:

- 1st He is a farmer and stock raiser and his interests are with the farmer.
- 2nd He is a heavy taxpayer, therefore his interests are identically the same as all other tax payers.
- 3rd Senator Wink's record in the Legislature shows that he worked for the interests of the farmer and the taxpayer at all times.
- 4th He is opposed to University removal and you will find his vote so recorded.
- 5th He is opposed to County Unit of School government and believes that the people should hire the teachers and keep the schools in their control.
- 6th Senator Wink, if re-elected, will be in a position to do still more for the people of his district, on account of the knowledge and experience gained by him through the session of the 1913 legislature.
- 7th Peter Wink has lived in and been respected in this senatorial district for thirty years previous to his campaign and election as senator and now asks the voters for his second term.
- 8th Senator Wink is conducting an absolutely clean campaign.
- 9th Senator Wink is a successful business man, looked after the interests of his district in a business-like way, and made an excellent senator as a careful perusal of the senate journal will show.

Signed: Wm. Lewandowski, W. D. Zimmerman, R. H. Mathew, C. F. Bueshausen, J. J. Stominski, A. E. Charlton, D. D. Charlton, T. E. Gilbert, Chas. Bass, C. W. Trumble, E. G. Taylor, O. F. Peterson, L. B. Polski, Hans Johansen, J. P. Leininger.

George Bischel, progressive candidate for the state senate from this district was here all of last week looking after his fences, returning home to Kearney Sunday morning.

DIES OF STRYCHNINE POISONING

Very Peculiar Case of Poisoning Reported From St Paul. Wife Thought Husband Drunk.
NO TRACES OF LIQUOR FOUND.

St. Paul, Nebraska, October 23.—Frank Halla, living between Elba and Cotesfield in this county, died yesterday evening from strychnine poisoning. Coroner C. J. Christensen was called last evening and had an autopsy. The surgeon, Dr. Jones of Cotesfield, took the stomach out and sent it to Lincoln for complete analysis. He pronounced it strychnine poisoning. Mr. Halla went to the field in the forenoon. He did not come in at noon and his wife went out and took the team to the barn. She says he laid down on the ground for a nap and to rest. He came in about three o'clock, she says, and went into the barn and laid down there and later she went out and found him groveling in the fresh manure like a pig—had his face rooting around in the manure. She then called a neighbor and he called a doctor who at once called the coroner. There has been lots of trouble and it is alleged that Halla had threatened to kill his wife and daughter. The daughter is aged about 20 years, and the son about fourteen. There is nothing said about where the poison came from. Mrs. Halla claims she thought he was drunk. The doctor says there was not a trace of liquor about the man and absolutely nothing in his stomach except the poison. The inside of the stomach was green.

The first number of the coming lecture course in this city will be next Thursday, Nov. 5, when that noted entertainer, Robert O. Bowman, will come to us. He is said to be one of the best before the public today. His life-like portrayal of any and every character he attempts to give is true to life and his entertainment is pronounced one of the very best. Don't fail to see and hear him.
