THE BANK EXAMINER

is always a welcomed visitor at our bank. Examinations have no terrors for a bank that has nothing to conceal. Our loans are all "gilt edged." The business of this bank is so interwoven with that of its patrons that a divorce is out of the question. No man can accumulate without the service of a good bank, and there is where we come in. We allow no bank to give its patrons more liberal and generous treatment, and no bank could more highly appreciate the class of patrons whose names are upon our books. Better men do not walk the earth. Come in my friend and let us add your name to our lists.
