

W. F. MASON, President

L. HANSEN, Cashier

When Are You Going to Get Your Nose Off of the Grindstone ?

When old age comes upon you will it find you laboring for your daily bread?

Deposit a portion of your earnings each week.

CHUCK THAT GRINDSTONE

In other words—"give it the go by" and "put it in the shade."

You will find that this bank is able to do all your banking business.

Let us help you out of the ruts and onto the level places.

It makes no difference if your first deposit is only $1.00; your last may be $1,000.

Start a Bank Account With Us and See if the World Isn't a Better Place to Live In

First National Bank

Loup City, Nebraska.

We Pay 5 per cent on Time Deposits.

LOUP CITY HAPPENINGS

Daily sells for less.

Earl Daddow was a passenger to St. Paul Monday.

Big ball game June 10.

A. C. Ogle received another car of Ford autos this week.

Those wishing to take music lessons call and see Fay Gallaway.

E. T. Thrasher, Painter and Paper Hanger. 15tf

August Jaeschki was at Rockville last Friday on business.

Baled hay for sale.—R. L. Arthur.

Miss Pearl Needham was a passenger to Grand Island Monday.

Opening day, Thursday, June 10.

Drugs for bugs at the Swanson & Lofholm Pharmacy.

Mrs. J. A. Chandler visited over Sunday at Ravenna.

Mark your calendar Thursday, June 10, for a holiday.

F. E. Brewer was a business passenger to Rockville Wednesday morning.

Try Loup City Flour.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Wharton were passengers to Ashton Tuesday morning.

If you want good, prompt draying call on Roy McDonald, phone Brown 57. 13tf

Daily sells for less.

Johnny Rapp, Jr., of Ashton, visited friends here last Thursday.

Miss Ida Stein visited at Ashton last Saturday.

For Rent—Modern house. Call Blue 74.

Mrs. Stewart Conger of Arcadia, visited in Loup City Monday.

Beehives for sale. Inquire of W. H. Hughes, Loup City. 22-2

G. O. Dabry and family of Lincoln are here visiting with relatives and friends.

You are sure to get the best Paris green at the Swanson & Lofholm Pharmacy.

M. C. Mulick returned from Grand Island Friday where he had spent several days visiting.

Leave orders for Roy McDonald dray at either lumber yard or Taylor's elevator, or phone Brown 57.

Grandma Bowen of Rockville, is here visiting with her son, G. D. Bowen and other relatives.

Used typewriters, all makes, at all prices. O. E. James, Y. M. C. A., Grand Island, Nebr.

C. J. Tracy and wife visited over Sunday at Comstock with their son Milford.

Rev. L. V. Slocomb and son Rigdon went to Lincoln Monday morning to spend a few days.

Daily sells for less.

Jack Amick was a passenger to Grand Island Saturday.

Tomato plants now ready for sale. Inquire of W. T. Gibson.

Miss Helena Janulewicz was a passenger to McAlpine Monday evening.

For sale—Cane seed $1.00 per bushel.—Robert Fuliton, Austin, Nebr.

Mrs. A. E. Reed and son returned to their home at Greeley Monday morning.

Miss Grace Fawthrop left last Friday for her home at Hastings, Nebraska.

Jessie McGovern came down from Comstock Tuesday for a short visit with friends.

Will Odendahl and wife went to Ashton Monday, where Mr. Odendahl has opened up a saloon.

Horlicks Malted Milk, good for young and old, is served at the Swanson & Lofholm Fountain.

Cecil and Paul Travis left Monday morning for Aurora, Nebraska, to spend their summer vacation.

Gene Patton lost a valuable Jack last Saturday, the animal getting tangled up in a rope and breaking its neck.

O. T. Miller went to York Monday morning to attend the commencement exercises and to visit a few days.

Forest Larson and Bernard Slocomb left Monday for York, Nebraska, on business. They go from there to Kansas City.

The Burlington passenger leaving here at 7:05 a. m. will now arrive at Omaha at 2:55 p. m., without change of cars at Lincoln.

Miss Myrtle Bulger, who has been visiting here with her sister, Mrs. Elba Smalley, returned to her home at Arcadia Monday evening.

If you want a dray, phone A. L. Enderlee, black 63, or leave your order with either lumber yard or E. G. Taylor. Best of service guaranteed.

Mrs. J. A. Smalley returned home from Grand Island Monday evening where she had been visiting with her mother and sister the past few days.

Oswald Christensen and family returned to their home at Sargent Monday evening after spending a few days here at the Werner Pritschaw home.

Wanted—For the Eastern war zone, the best and most marketable horses, sufficient in size and quality for any of the duties required there. See Myrl Warrick.

Fritz Leschinsky came up from Lincoln Tuesday evening to be present at the Smith-Coltrane wedding which was held yesterday morning at the brides home.

Mrs. J. W. Thompson, who has been very ill and underwent an operation about two weeks ago is improving nicely and will soon be completely restored to health.

Miss Grace Lang left last Friday morning for her home at University Place. She was accompanied by Miss Ruby Johnson who spent a few days visiting friends.

Mrs. J. J. Jezewski and children returned from Ashton Monday evening where she attended the fortieth wedding anniversary of her parents.

Miss Marie Pilger returned from St. Louis Missouri, last Friday evening where she has been visiting with relatives the past three or four weeks.

Mrs. Milt Hutson returned to her home at Greeley last Thursday after spending a few days here visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. P. T. Rowe.

Miss Ruth Taylor, who has been here visiting her brother, Will Taylor and wife for the past few days, returned to Omaha Monday noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hansen of Hastings spent a few days here visiting with their son and daughter, Perle and Mable Hansen.

The eighth grade gave a farewell party to Miss Clara Plant Wednesday evening at the home of John Needham. The evening was spent in various games and light refreshments were served.

Moving picture films showing pictures of the Ford automobile factory will be shown at the opera house every Tuesday evening. Don't miss these pictures. See how a Ford car is turned out every sixteen seconds.

Henry Dolling and wife left Tuesday morning for Grand Island. From there they go to Denver where they will visit with friends for a few days and from there they go to Cheyenne, Wyoming for a short visit.

Summer Groceries

This is the season when it seems to be difficult to get foods that taste right—that hit the spot. Seems like everything is too warm and most people crave something that is cool and sweet.

Our Cooling Equipment

Insures you fresh fruit and vegetables, and our prompt delivery gets all these necessities to you before they have any chance to get stale and wilted. Our service is the best and our constantly increasing number of patrons shows our service is popular.

Try us and you'll come back

R. L. ARTHUR

Daily sells for less.

I. N. Syas returned home from Omaha Monday where he had taken some cattle.

Everyone for park opening, Thursday, June 10.

Miss Abi E. Beynon of Liberty, Nebraska, came up Tuesday evening for a short visit with friends.

Mrs. Sena Christensen of Antelope county is visiting at the Christensen home this week.

A. W. Boecking and family are visiting with relatives at Litchfield this week.

R. M. Hiddleston and John Needham returned from Grand Island Friday where they spent several days.

Miss Nettie Southwell of McCook, Nebraska, arrived last Saturday for a short visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Foster left Tuesday morning for Ontario, Oregon, to visit with their son Frank and family.

The Misses Esther and Hilda Olson who were attending the exercises here, returned to Omaha Friday afternoon.

Lost—White bird dog with brown ears. Has collar on, with name almost worn off. Notify C. J. Larson if dog is located.

Porcupines, horned toads, armadillo, snakes, etc., have been added to the already large collection of strange animals in the park.

The Sophomores held a party last Thursday evening at the home of Miss Katie Janulewicz. Light refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, and all those present reported a fine time.

Rev. Teodor Young arrived here from Chicago Monday and will spend the summer here, holding regular services in the Swedish church. Rev. Young will return to Chicago in the fall to resume his studies.

I have between 60 and 80 acres of ground I want broke between now and the 15th of June. Anyone wanting this contract apply of Frank Lorchick, Loup City, Nebraska. Land is in southwest quarter of section twenty-seven four miles southwest of town. 22tf

New Perfection Oil Stoves

A WOMAN'S time is so taken up with housework, and with her other duties the hours fly so fast—that before she knows it it's meal time again!

No. 7, New Perfection Complete $25.00

The New Perfection Oil Cook Stoves are especially designed for the busy woman with three meals a day to prepare for her family.

Call and see The New Perfection at

J. A. ARNETT & SON'S

Daily sells for less.

Miss Blanche Fisher went to Ashton Monday morning for a short visit with friends.

E. T. Thrasher, Painter and Paper Hanger. 15tf

Judge Wall was a business passenger to Grand Island yesterday morning.

Jenner's Park this year far exceeds for beauty than any previous year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Grow of Arcadia visited in Loup City last Saturday.

Miss Lucile Decamp of St. Paul, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. S. A. Allen.

There is no other as good as Nyals Face Cream. Sold only at the Nyal Store.

John W. Long returned home from Lincoln last Friday where he had been on business.

Mrs. J. T. Hale arrived here last Thursday from Ogden, Utah, for a short visit with relatives and friends.

W. C. Mackey left Tuesday noon for Kearney, Nebraska, where he will attend the Kearney Normal.

Mrs. D. M. Woods went to Dannebrog Monday morning for a few days visit with relatives and friends.

P. T. Rowe went to Farwell Saturday morning where he is doing some lathing and shingling for John Ohlsen.

Miss Segrid Rasmussen returned from Rockville Monday evening after spending a few days with home folks.

Miss Barbara Sobieszczek came up from Schaupps last Friday to attend the dance here and visit over Sunday with friends.

J. P. Leininger returned home from South Dakota last Friday where he had been to look after some land business.

Latest reports that come from L. Bechtold that he is improving nicely and is able to be up and around.

Cheap as rent. For sale, six lots with five room house, small barn and a good deal of fruit. Easy terms, inquire of Mrs. Emma McCray or Loup City State Bank.

John Needham went to Grand Island yesterday morning to bring home his car which he left there last Friday on account of the muddy roads.

Victor Swanson, J. W. Conger, I. C. Conger and Elba Smalley went up to pony lake in Cherry county Monday to spend a week camping and fishing.

Mrs. D. C. Grow and sister, Mrs. DeGoyler, arrived here Saturday from Jeffersonville, Vermont. Mr. Grow arriving Monday evening. We learn that they expect to locate here permanently.

For sale—160 acres six miles from Sargent. About 100 acres cultivated, rest good hay and pasture, small buildings. If sold before July 1st, crop goes with place. Easy terms.—Mrs. Emma E. McCray, Comstock, Nebraska.

Miss Flora Ohlsen left last Saturday morning for Lincoln where she will visit with her sister, Miss Orena Ohlsen who is attending University, and from there she will go to David City, for a few days visit with her father and brothers.

Mrs. Joe Sietman and children returned to their home in Omaha Tuesday morning after visiting here a few days with relatives. She was accompanied by her father, Fritz Johansen, and her niece, Miss Fay French who will visit there for some time.

William Fletcher, of Austin, shipped a car of horses from Loup City to Grand Island Monday. These horses were purchased for the English army. Thousands of horses have been shipped out of Nebraska to the warring nations in Europe, farmers receiving several million dollars from that source.

I have a customer for an unimproved quarter or half section within two miles of Loup City. If you have land of that description you will do well to list it with J. W. Dougal, of Loup City at once. I also have a customer for an improved quarter. Act quick if you want to be the lucky one.—J. W. Dougal, Real Estate and Insurance.

Manager Thomas Daddow of the Daddow theatre, will show the famous four-reel feature, "The Firefly," on Thursday, June 3. This great picture is one of the really worth-while things that will be brought to this city this season. It combines a beautiful story with fine photography and remarkable acting. The final scenes are among the most remarkable ever filmed. Pictures of Conger's Loup City picnic parade will be shown on this night.

Ten Reasons

why you should trade at my store

- 1—Hats
Longley leads them all
- 2—Suits
Strauss Bros. High Art for dress
- 3—Shoes
Raiston for comfort and style
- 4—Shirts
M. E. Smith's guaranteed
- 5—Collars
Arrow Brands are better
- 6—Neckties
Pomeroy Bros. styles every thirty days
- 7—Socks
Holeproof, six pair six months or new ones
- 8—Underwear
Alus and Goodknit, the latest.
- 9—Gloves
Ripon
- 10—Overalls
Fink's Detroit Special, none better made

WARRANT ALL for MEN AND BOYS

GUS LORENTZ

The Popular Men's and Boys's Clothier

The Faultless Silo Beats Them All

Come in and talk over the Silo question. A few gallons of our weatherproof paints. A few rods of our Squard Deal Fence and a Faultless Silo doubles value of farms. The Silo and the cow spell prosperity.

Don't forget to have us figure your lumber bills. We carry everything to complete the building.

FLIES WILL NENER BOTHER YOU IF YOU USE OUR FLYPROOF SCREENS AND SCREEN DOORS.

Hansen Lumber Co.

Our Ideal Summer Coal makes it a real PLEASURE to cook

For Fifteen Days Only

Beginning Saturday, June 5th, at The Hub Clothing Store

SPECIAL PRICES ON SUITS

Men's Suits

- $10.00 Suits for $7.95
- $12.50 Suits for $9.95
- $15.00 Suits for $12.50
- $20.00 Suits for $17.50

Boy's Suits

- $6.00 and $7.00 Knee Pant Suits for $4.95
- $5.00 Knee Suits for $3.95
- $3.50 and $4.00 Suits, $2.95
- $2.50 Suits for $1.95

Hub Clothing Store

Victor Viener, Prop.

Cash Prices Count

We are going to offer for cash for a while, prices that are cheaper than long charge prices.

We all know that one who buys for cash ought to buy goods for less than one buying for six or nine months time.

Below we quote you a few items for cash:

100 lbs. Sugar	$6.80
1 Sack Flour	1.90
1 lb net Superb package soda	5c
5 1-lb packages Gloss Starch	25c
5 1-lb packages Corn Starch	25c
2 cans First Prize Hominy for	25c
3 cans good Standard Corn for	25c
1 can small size Tomatoes	10c
2 cans first prize sweet potatoes	25c
1 can of King of Hawaii Sliced Pineapple	22c
3 lbs Santa Clara Prunes for	25c
3 lbs California dried Peaches	25c

We also pay the highest market price for produce

Loup City Merc. Co.