PARK OPENING.

Jenner's Park opening last Thursday was well attended, although the attendance was not near as large as it was on the similar occasion last year. The park never was in better condition and the weather was perfect, being slightly cloudy and cool, which probably kept many away as it looked like rain in the morning. The Arcadia band failed to put in their appearance, which fact was explained by the statement that most of the members were farmers, and the storm a few days before had put their crops in such condition that they could not leave. The ball game between the Arcadia and Sargent teams was won by Sargent by a score of five to three. It was a splendid game from start to finish. The festivities of the day were closed with a dance in the evening. Seventy-five couples tripped the light fantastic until the small hours of the morning.

NOTICE.

Parties dumping rubbish along the highways leading into Loup City will hereafter be prosecuted and fined according to law.—Lou Schwaner, Township Clerk.

Mrs. John O'Bryan and children went to Ulysses, Nebraska, last Friday to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B.J. Swanson.

Mrs. A. Wall left last Thursday morning for Hot Springs, South Dakota, in hopes of benefiting her health.

COUNTY BOARD MEETS.

The board of county supervisors met on Monday afternoon and held a short session, completing all business that came up. A remonstrance was filed against issuing a saloon license to Edward Oltman at Schaupp's and upon motion the hearing was postponed for one week, until Monday, June 21. Board adjourned and met on Tuesday morning for a three days session as a board of equalization.

MARRIED AT GREELEY.

Former Loup City Girl Married Last Wednesday.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening, June 9, at the home of the bride's mother, when Zelpha E. Reed and LeRoy D. Smith were united in marriage.

Shortly after eight o'clock Miss Edna Lundberg at the piano played "Alice," followed by a vocal selection "Oh Promise Me" by Miss Grace Conger.

During the beautiful strains of the wedding march, the Bridal Chorus from "Die Meistersinger," came the maids in attendance. Miss Annie Leschinsky and Miss Lulu Lofholm, followed by little Mansella Davis bearing the ring in the heart of a white peony, then Miss Leda Reed, sister of the bride, followed by the bride and groom who took their places in an alcove decorated with streamers of pink and white ribbons, where Rev. Warren spoke the few solemn words which united the lives of these young people.

The bride was beautifully attired in Pussy Willow taffeta trimmed in embroidered chiffon and seed pearls, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and peonies. The groom was attired in black broadcloth.

Through the impressive ceremony Miss Lundberg played "Humoreske" while during the few moments of congratulations Miss Leschinsky sang "The Hour That Gave Me You."

The color effect of pink and white was carried out in pink and white carnations, roses and clover blossoms which gave a beautiful effect to surroundings. The dining-room and table where the sixty guests were seated for supper was decorated to correspond with the other rooms with pink and whitestreamers gracefully grouped from the chandelier and stayed by a bouquet of white clover blossoms.

Of the bride and groom, who are well and favorably known here, it may be said that Mrs. Smith has for the past two years held a responsible position as one of the instructors in our city school, is an accomplished musician on the piano and cornet. Mr. Smith has grown to manhood in Greeley and during his few years of business has made rapid progress and is numbered among the thrifty, energetic merchants of the town, being proprietor of the Greeley Clothing Co's store with a branch house at Spalding and one at Belgrade.

The happy young people were the recipients of many beautiful gifts and leave for their future home at Belgrade with the hearty good wishes of a host of friends.

Those from out of town in attendance at the wedding were: Mrs. R. D. Hendrickson, Miss Annie Leschinsky, Miss Lulu Lofholm, Miss Grace Conger all of Loup City and Miss Josephine Block of Spalding.—Greeley Leader-Independent.

WHEN THE FARMER COMES TO TOWN

Is He Greeted As One of Us and Made to Feel at Home, or Does He Feel Himself a Stranger?—Interests of Farmer and Merchant Identical.

How do you greet the farmer when he comes to town?

Is your greeting such that he feels that he is with us, but not of us? Or is he made to feel that he is in his town, among his people, and with his friends?

The making or the marring of the town depends greatly upon your attitude toward the farmer when he favors us with his visits.

He is the backbone of the community, and without his aid and encouragement we would be an unsuccessful business community.

The townsman is no better than the man from the farm, and the farmer can claim no superiority over the townsman.

We are all human beings, with the same aims and purposes in life, and endowed with the same brands of intelligence.

In fact, we are brothers of a common community, the only difference being that the one lives in town, where life is a little more diversified, while the other breathes God's pure air in the green fields of the country.

Let us remember that we are brothers, and sisters, and cousins, and that the welfare of the one is vital to the success of the other.

When we ride out into the country the farmer extends the hand of fellowship, bids us welcome, and hands us a hearty "come again."

It is a delightful characteristic of the man from the farm, for his greeting is sincere and his invitation is from the heart.

But what of us when the farmer comes to town?

Is our welcome on the same high plane as his?

Is he made to feel and realize that our smile is for him, and not for the contents of his purse?

We of the town are proud of the farmers of this community, and of their wives and their daughters.

They are men and women of a high order of intelligence, whose integrity is beyond question, and whose thrift, and energy, and perseverance is transforming our countryside into a hive of industry and wealth.

They are builders; one and all.

But we fear that we of the town are often forgetful of the great duty that we owe to them for their loyalty and generosity in support of the local business community.

We ourselves know of the high regard in which we hold the farmers of this community, but we doubt if the farmer knows of the warm sentiments which we entertain toward him.

And this is because we think much and say too little.

It should not be so, it should be otherwise than thus.

Let us of the town cultivate a more friendly and neighborly spirit, let us open up our hearts that the farmer may look within, for we are but one big family and should dwell together in unity and brotherly love.

Let us act as we feel, and give the farmer to understand that he is of us, as well as with us.

We need each other, for a prosperous farming community makes a live town, and the prosperity of the town adds life and enjoyment to the countryside.
