What is the matter with stirring up the band boys again and see if we can't get an organization perfected this time that will last. The band organized this spring but held only two meetings, and then just naturally fizzled out. We are informed that there is plenty of good band material in Loup City and all they lack is organization. Let's stir things up and see if we can't be doing something. What's the matter with Loup City!

The scheming enemy who is trying to win the fair Alice away from Ben Bolt hires a gang of thugs to decoy Ben to the old mill. They attack and overpower Ben and bind him fast to the mill wheel. Then they release the water and the wheel starts to turn with its human freight. Faster and faster it turns and Ben is apparently done for when something happens. Go to the Daddow theatre on Thursday June 24, and see what it is. Opportunities to see such pictures as this big three reel feature are few and far between. Also two other reels, price 10 and 15 cents.
