The Ball Player's Prayer.

Lord help me to play the game. It matters not to you whether I am talented or poor in natural gifts; wealthy or starving; a leader among men or a simple follower, so that I play the game as you would have it played. Help me to keep my eye on the ball, that the curves of temptation not deceive me. Keep my feet in the path of righteousness, that I may touch second and third on my way 'round the bases. Help me to beat out my bunts, and hold me that I stray not too far from base when the catcher is ready to peg me. Count Help me in the pinches, Lord, because a good bingle might bring my brother home. Let not the music of the fans keep my eye from the ball, nor the enticements of the slabman draw me away from th need of a clean single with a man on second. Help me, O Lord, to bat over .300, because my eyes are on the big league for eternity even while I sojourn here among the bush-leaguers.-Ralph Sundstrom.
