NUMBER 28

LOUP CITY TO HAVE NEW SCHOOL HOUSE

Bonds Amounting to $30,000 Voted By Electors at Tuesday's Special Election—Question of a Site Will Now Have to Be Decided.

The proposition to issue $30,000 in bonds for the building of a new school building in Loup City was carried at the special election held Tuesday. 390 votes were cast, 288 for the bonds and 102 against. As it took two-thirds of the total vote cast to carry the bonds, or 260 votes, the majority in favor of the new school house was 28 votes.

While some time ago there was considerable talk against the issuance of the bonds, the sentiment has changed greatly during the last few weeks, as the great need of the new building was brought to the attention of the people. Many women exercised their right of franchise at this election.

The result of the election shows that the citizens of Loup City are united for the upbuilding and betterment of the town and that when a pressing necessity is brought to their attention they respond loyally.

The school board and others who helped to bring this issue to a successful culmination are to be commended for the efforts they put forth.

Every citizen of this community should stand loyally by and lend a helping hand to our public schools, for education is one of the strongest bulwarks of our modern civilization.

The public schools is one of our greatest constructive agencies and without its aid and assistance in creating and cultivating the intellect of our young people of this community would soon be sinking to the ancient plane of ignorance and superstition.

There is nothing to be gained by jeopardizing the work and influence of our public school system, but there is everything to gain by fostering and encouraging and extending it a helping hand.

Education is a vital necessity of the day, and its effects are felt in every walk of life. Without it a young man enters upon the serious problems of life handicapped in a thousand ways.

We of the community are personally interested in the welfare of the community, and there is no way in which we can better serve our individual and collective interests than by standing loyally behind our public schools.

They need our good will and encouragement, not only need them, but should have them.

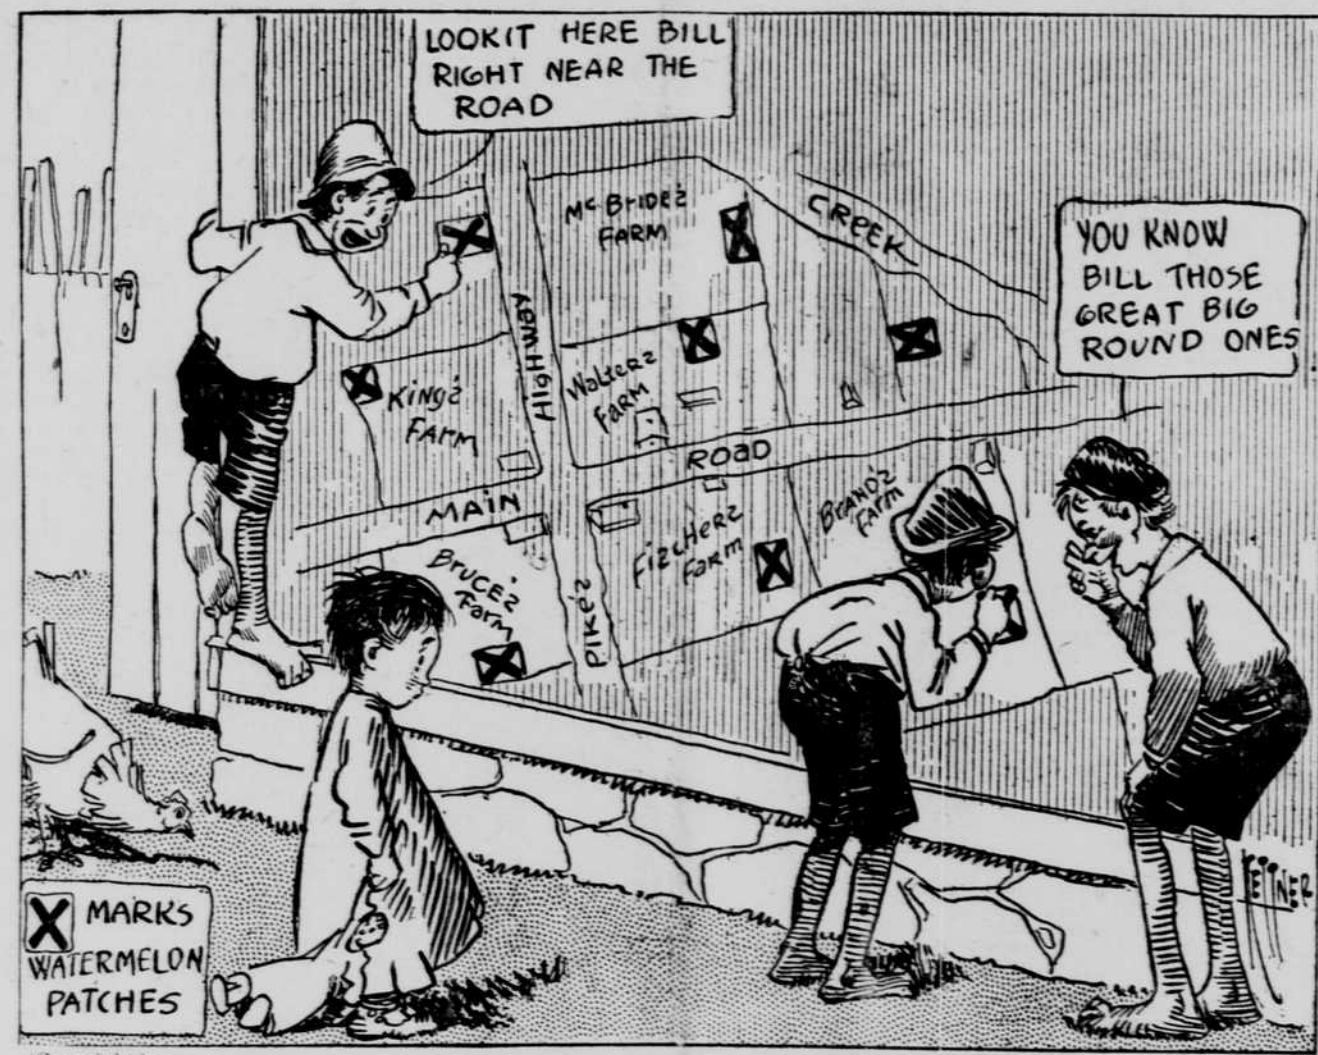

STORE BURGLARIZED.

The Gus Lorentz clothing store was broken into early Monday morning, the thief gaining entrance by taking off the screen on one of the back windows and breaking the glass on the top window, then turning the catch and lifting the bottom window. Four one dollar bills that were pinned to overalls in the front window and a pair of blue serge trousers were taken. This is the first burglary that has been pulled off in Loup City for some time. As the amount taken was small, no great effort will be made to apprehend the thief though greater precautions will be taken in the future and any one pulling off a similar stunt might not escape so easily.

Sherman County Crops.

The wheat crop in Sherman county will be a bumper this year, and other small grains will also be a splendid yield. The large demand from Europe for American wheat has caused high prices here and has induced our farmers to sow much more grain than usual. Fields which otherwise would have been summer-fallowed, were sown to wheat last fall, because of the prospect of large returns. Because of the large wheat crop and the urgent demand, there will be a pressure for early shipment. The railroads have anticipated a big demand for cars, and several roads have added to their equipment.

Corn has not had much of a chance to make a good showing, but warmer weather will bring it out better than many believe at this time. Some corn has had to be replanted and many fields are too wet to be worked at this time.

Alfalfa has been a good crop, but up-to-date there has been very few days that work could be done in the fields, and considerable alfalfa has been damaged on that account.

Taken all in all, the Sherman county crop will be something to be proud of this year. Though it has been a strenuous season for the farmer, the results, in the end, will repay him for his extra efforts. Now is the time to boost for Sherman county.

From Oregon, alone, more than 350 carloads of horses have been shipped to the European war zone. It is estimated that these sales brought into Oregon more than a million dollars. Such a report, coming from the state farthest from the scene of conflict, indicates the extent to which sales of horses and other war supplies have helped turn the balance of trade in our favor, notwithstanding the broad denials of the Secretary of commerce.

Coal Buyers Take Notice.

I have decided that we have been carrying too many coal accounts upon our books and have too much expense in collecting them. Commencing July 1st, we expect to give a discount of 10 per cent to all of our customers who buy and pay cash. Now is the time to put in your storage coal or buy threshing coal.

Coal that we sell at $7.50 will only cost you $6.75 per ton. This means cash when you buy the coal. Yours for a cash business.—E. C. Taylor.

Rex Beach's wonderful book "The Spoilers" created a sensation in America. Citizens of Loup City have a chance to see this great play in motion pictures, at the Daddow theatre on Monday, July 5th. Three shows will be given, matinee at 3 p. m., 7 and 9 p. m. Don't miss this splendid nine reel picture.

M. C. Mulick received two bear pelts from his son D. L. Mulick, of Perma, Montana, this week. The largest hide is that of a cinnamon bear and the other one a black bear. Young Mulick must be somewhat of a hunter to bag two such fine specimens. Mr. Mulick will have the pelts made into rugs, which will enable him to warm his feet when he crawls out of bed on cold mornings next winter.

CASH STORE

On and after July 1st this store will be strictly cash. We are convinced that we can save our customers money by the cash system.

We trust that by the reduced prices we will be able to make by selling for cash, we will retain all our old customers and make many new ones.

Produce will be paid for in cash.

AID FOR COUNTY FAIRS.

Last week the supreme court of Nebraska declared the 1913 statute relative to aid for county fairs unconstitutional. Happily for the county fair people this law was re-enacted by the 1915 legislature so as to remove the unconstitutional feature, and the present law approved April 13, 1915 is as follows:

Sec. 6. County Aid to County Fairs. Whenever twenty or more persons, residents of any county in this state, shall organize themselves into a society for the improvement of agriculture within said county, and show have adopted a constitution and by-laws agreeable to the rules and regulations furnished by the usual and proper officers, and when said society shall have raised and paid into the treasury, by voluntary subscription, a sum of money, in each year not less than fifty dollars, and whenever the president of said society shall certify to the county clerk the amount thus paid, the county board shall order a warrant to be drawn on the general fund of said county in favor of the president of said society for the sum of five cents on each inhabitant of said county upon a basis of the last vote for the member of congress in said county, allowing five inhabitants to each vote: Provided, in counties having less than 14,000 population the county board may allow an additional three cents, in the manner as directed for the five cents; and said county board shall include the sum in its annual estimate, and it shall be the duty of the treasurer of the county to pay the sum out of the general fund. No moneys so received shall be used in payment for speed; Provided, if any existing county agricultural society fails for two years or more to hold an annual fair of at least three days' duration, then any agricultural society in the county, duly organized and formed for a similar purpose and governed by the rules of this chapter, and who shall hold an annual fair of at least three days' duration, may apply for and shall be allowed the amount above designated in this section.

Sec. 2. Repeals. That said original Section 6, Revised Statutes of Nebraska, 1913, is hereby repealed.

THE GOOD CITIZEN.

We can not help admiring the men and women who place the welfare of the community side by side with their own. To our mind they are good citizens, and the town or countryside is blessed by their presence. We have such citizens—many of them—hereabouts, and you find them always giving the local business man the benefit of no doubt, the opportunity of making a sale. If the local dealer has the article they want at a fair price they prefer to buy from him, knowing full well that in buying from him they are enhancing the welfare of themselves, the dealer, and the whole community. They are constant readers of the advertisements in the local paper, and because of this practice they know where best to find that which they seek before they go out to buy. And then there are some citizens who are not of this class, who make a regular practice of getting stung by sending their cash to the foreign dealer who values their money and not them.

Life is sweet—while the kissable lips hold out.

ODD BITS OF NEWS FROM EVERYWHERE

Accidental Discharge of Pistol During Playful Struggle Causes Death of Young Couple—Snapping Turtle Liked Looks of Pretty Pink Toes.

Hillsboro, O.—Herman Morris and wife, while playfully struggling, knocked a pistol from the hands of a visitor, which was discharged. The bullet passed through Morris' body and entered the heart of Mrs. Morris, killing her instantly. Morris died shortly afterward.

Herndon, Pa.—Pretty pink toes and the ambition of a snapping turtle nearly caused the drowning of Mae Lesser, 18 years old. While swimming, Miss Lesser suddenly disappeared beneath the water, and when dragged out, a snapping turtle was found clinging to her toe.

Seattle, Wash.—Miss May Stehle in charge of the cloakroom at the hotel here, is untippable. If she would take tips, she could make $2,500 a year in addition to her salary. "But," she says, "I would lose my self-respect." The hotel management could, if it desired, fire Miss Stehle, and save her salary, and, to boot, sell the cloak room "privilege" for $150 a month.

Wapakoneta, O.—A pebble, pinched between the pavement and an automobile tire, was hurled against a nearby plate glass window with such force that it pierced the glass in the same manner as if a bullet had been fired through it.

Kingman, Ind.—A colt has been born on a farm near Romney, which is minus his front legs. Where the right foreleg should be, there are two legs about six inches long. One of these has the foot of a dog and the other the foot of a calf. The animal is expected to live.

New York, N. Y.—Sallie Par-ness, a New York woman who is an expert butcher, has been placed as head butcher in a booth in the new cosmopolitan market.

Allentown, Pa.—Twenty acres were found covered with fish when a cofferdam at the government dam on the Ohio river below Evansville, Indiana, was pumped out. People from miles around gathered up the fishes in baskets and buckets.

Kansas—An Englishman who publishes a newspaper here which is read largely by Germans, has retained the popularity of his paper by suppressing all war news and not allowing his own opinions to get into his paper.

Pins and Dollars.

Some people never fail to bend their backs to pick up a pin, and yet let the dollars slip right through their fingers without even a blink. They grasp at the shadow while the substance marches by.

If the point of a pin is facing you it is supposed to be good luck to pick it up.

But there are greater values and better opportunities for luck than in stooping your shoulders in a futile search for pins.

Read the ads in this paper if you want to find luck in big chunks and pick up dollars instead of pins.

Our advertising columns are full of splendid opportunities every week, and they are to be had simply for the reading and the taking.

Forget the pins and go after bigger game.

Read the ads and pick up the dollars.
