Governor Morehead has proclaimed July 29th and 30th as good roads days, and asks every one to get out and help work the roads these two days. The good roads proclamation is a good one, but we believe the governor has named two days in a very busy season, that will keep many from taking part in the movement, especially in this part of the state.

Mrs. G. W. Collipriest and three younger children left last Saturday for Ord where they will spend a couple of days with the W. L. Dietz family. It has rained almost every day since last Saturday and over two inches of water has fallen. Hail storms have been very numerous all over the state, but this vicinity has been fortunate in that regard, a small territory west of town being the only place touched by hail. There is some small grain yet to cut and if this cloudy wet weather continues there is danger of wheat sprouting in the shock. Corn has not made much progress the last few days, but warm weather following the rains will bring it along nicely. The corn crop is about made now.
