Sometimes very bad errors creep in to print and an unfortunate error occurred in last week's Northwestern, which caused no little concern to all interested. An obituary in the Rockville items was scattered through the items. The article consisted of three paragraphs and they were widely separated, spoiling the article and having no meaning whatever. The error occurred in the makeup and was the result of rush work in getting the forms ready as the office was covered up with work and the paper was late. We keenly regret the error, and reprint the article in its proper form this week.

HIS CRITICISM WAS AT FAULT

English General Had Much to Learn of the Geography of the United States.

The European has grown so accustomed to sneering at the American for his ignorance of European affairs, especially since the outbreak of the war, that we have grown to take the snub submissively, with never a thought of the even more gross ignorance of things American on the part of Europeans.

Yet that such ignorance is common in Europe, even among the educated and military classes, there is no doubt. The elder Charles Francis Adams, who was United States minister to Great Britain during the Civil war, used to tell the following experience with a prominent Englishman:

Late in July, 1863, there being no cable then laid under the Atlantic, a steamer from New York brought to the American legation in London dispatches announcing the fall of Vicksburg and Lee's repulse at Gettysburg on the same day. A few evenings later I held a reception in honor of the double victory, inviting all the prominent figures of English official society.

Among the guests was Maj. Gen. Garnet Wolseley, afterward commander in chief of the British army. After congratulating me upon the dual success of the Union arms, he added:

"Yet I think your generals made a very serious blunder, Mr. Adams."

"In what respect?" I asked, somewhat mystified; for it had seemed to me that Grant, at Vicksburg, and Meade, at Gettysburg, had done about all there was to be done.

"Why, in resting upon their arms," explained General Wolseley. "In order to make the two victories complete, General Grant should have joined his forces with those of Meade that night and, by daylight the next morning, fallen upon the remnants of Lee's army and crushed it."

Though sorely tempted, I considered my position as a minister and refrained from calling the doughty general's attention to the fact that Vicksburg and Gettysburg are a thousand miles apart!

Mrs. J. H. Barwell and two daughters returned home last Saturday evening from Lincoln, where they had been the past week visiting with friends.

HOGS STEADY TO SOME LOWER

Sheep Run Is Large and Prices Are a Quarter Lower For Ewes—Lambs Generally 10@15c Off, Bulk Selling at $8.25@8.40—Feeders in Good Demand.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Aug. 17.—Cattle receipts yesterday amounted to 8,600 head. The receipts consisted very largely of western cattle, and the quality on an average was none too good, there being a heavy percentage of rough-horned steers. The large receipts, combined with the fact that there was a good deal of sorting and shaping up to be done, made the market very slow. Prices ranged anywhere from steady to 10@15c lower in some cases.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice yearlings, $9.00@9.70; fair to good yearlings, $7.75@9.00; good to choice heavy beefs, $9.10@9.50; fair to good corned beefs, $5.50@9.00; common to fair corned beefs, $7.00@8.50; good to choice fed heifers, $7.00@8.50; good to choice fed cows, $6.50@7.25; good to choice grass heifers, $6.50@7.25; good to choice cows, $6.25@7.00; fair to good cows, $5.50@6.25; common to fair cows, $3.75@5.50; good to choice feeders, $7.50@9.25; fair to good feeders, $6.50@7.50; common to fair stockers, $5.50@6.50; stock heifers, $5.75@6.75; stock cows, $5.50@6.50; stock calves, $6.50@8.00; veal calves, $7.00@10.00; fat bulls, steers, etc., $5.25@7.50.

Receipts of hogs yesterday were 4,600 head. Packers bought the bulk of the heavy hogs at prices that were quoted as anywhere from weak to as much as 5@10c lower, and the general trade was largely so lower. Most of the packing hogs sold at $6.25@6.40, the long strings landing around $6.30@6.35, and good lights moved as high as $7.35 in a few instances.

Sheep and lamb receipts yesterday totaled 27,000 head. Prices were generally 10@15c lower. Bulk of the decent lambs moved at $8.25@8.40. Old sheep took the big end of the day's break, fat ewes being quoted as a flat quarter off. The best sale reported was a bunch at $5.25. Yearlings showed about the same decline as lambs, some selling as high as $6.25. There were not a great many wethers on hand, but a little bunch was reported at $6.65, which was a dime above last week's high figures. Feeder lambs were uneven. There was a broader supply here than at any previous time this season, but buyers went right after them, and took the bulk of the good ones around $8.00@8.15, with some on down to $7.75, and one load was reported as high as $8.30. Feeder yearlings sold as high as $6.60.

Quotations on sheep and lambs: Lambs, good to choice, $8.25@8.40; lambs, fair to good, $8.00@8.25; lambs, feeders, $7.50@8.00; yearlings, fair to choice, $5.75@6.50; wethers, fair to choice, $5.25@6.25; ewes, good to choice, $5.25@5.75; ewes, fair to good, $4.75@5.25.

THE CALL OF THE COAST

The Pacific Slope, with its marvelous development, solicits you to journey through that land. The melting snows of its mountains are magical resources shaped to the genius of electrical and horticultural wizards; those mighty forests are the last of their kind left standing on this earth; there are no such orchards, orange groves and floral landscapes in the world, nor does history record there ever have been.

The Burlington operates five through service routes to California and two through service routes to Puget sound, with the Pacific coast steamship or rail connecting link. You may combine these through service coast routes for a "See America" tour that will include the broadest scope of the West and Northwest.

Let the undersigned tell you of our through service routes available at the $50 excursion rate to California, or the $67.50 rate for the Coast circuit tour.

Hupmobile
CAR OF THE AMERICAN FAMILY

Ask the Woman Who Drives

One woman who drives a Hupmobile, spoke for all others when she said: "I feel when I am driving the Hupmobile as though I were a part of the car—or as though it were a part of me."

She meant, of course, that the Hupmobile responded immediately to every impulse or direction she gave it.

She meant that it is always as easily and completely under her control as her own movements.

She meant that she always feels safe and sure and secure, because she always knows exactly what the Hupmobile will do under any and all circumstances.

A woman knows, for instance, that the Hupmobile motor will not stall—and because it can not, therefore it's safest.

She knows the turning radius of the Hupmobile is remarkably small for a car of its length. That makes it easy to handle.

The motor is so flexible that she gets along with a minimum of gear shifting.

The steering is so easy that a child can guide the car almost without effort.

The driving seat is made with a scientific regard for her comfort—with a high, restful back, and the seat cushion tilted at precisely the right angle.

She gives no thought to emergencies which might require repairs, because she knows that repairs are so few and far between that they can safely be forgotten.

The Hupmobile is always a source of pleasure to the woman who drives—or the woman who rides.

That's why in every Hupmobile home there's a woman who is a Hupmobile enthusiast.

Let us give the Hupmobile merit-test at your convenience.
