

W. F. WASON, President L. HANSEN, Cashier

Banking Facilities

It is our constant study to give the people of this community the best banking facilities obtainable. Our experience and equipment makes this possible. We are here to serve you.

First National Bank

Loup City, Nebraska.

We Pay 5 per cent on Time Deposits.

Daily sells for less.

Try Chase's first—it pays.

Saturday 98c sale at the Loup City Merc. Co.

Miss Myrtle Phillips was a Rockville visitor Wednesday.

W. J. Fisher was a business passenger to Rockville Monday.

Floyd Janulewicz transacted business at Ashton last Friday.

I will buy a few tons of old iron if hauled in at once. A. C. Ogle.

Nelson Smith and family spent Sunday with relatives at St. Paul.

For Rent—100 acres for wheat. Also some hay land. V. T. Westcott. 11

W. D. Garner came home from Rockville Saturday where he has been working.

The Baptist Sunday school held a picnic at Angier's grove west of town last Friday.

D. L. Adamson and son, Clyde, came home Monday from David City for a few days.

Loup City Cash Store. Wm. Lewandowski is selling summer goods at a great reduction.

Daily sells for less.

Chase's for fresh groceries.

R. P. Starr made a business trip to Omaha Monday.

R. E. Dale made a business trip to Lincoln last Friday.

For Rent—60 acres of hay land at $1 per acre.—N. P. Nielson. 11

Some great bargains in the 98c sale at Loup City Merc. Co.

I will buy a few tons of old iron if hauled in at once. A. C. Ogle.

Alva O. Lewis was a business passenger to Sargent Monday evening.

Jack Amick and Milo Daily were Grand Island passengers last Friday.

W. J. Fisher was a passenger to Council Bluffs Wednesday on business.

Master Henry Schumann visited with relatives at Ashton several days this week.

Go to the Loup City Cash Store and see their new prices. Wm. Lewandowski, Prop.

Don Charlton went to Grand Island Thursday for several days visit, returning home Monday evening.

Daily sells for less.

Try Chase's first—it pays.

Deering and McCormick sections $1 per box.—A. C. Ogle.

Mrs. Sherman of Rockville, visited with friends here Saturday.

Nyals Mosquito Lotion keeps 'em away. Get it at the Nyals store.

Edward Synak went to Elvira, Nebraska, Thursday where he will work on the section.

Mrs. C. F. Beushausen and children went to Kearney Wednesday to visit a week or so.

O. P. White, of North Loup, came Monday evening for a short visit at the Otis White home.

Miss Barbara Sobiesczyk came up from Schaupps Monday and visited till Tuesday with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. August Jung and children visited with relatives at Rockville last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hughes went to Kimball county Saturday to visit a few days with relatives.

Miss Grace Conger went to Aurora and Hampton last Thursday to visit a week or two with friends.

Miss Annie Kwiatkowski came up from Ashton Saturday for a few days visit at the John Stanczyk home.

Clayton Conger went to Arcadia Saturday evening to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Conger.

George Cole returned home Tuesday morning after spending a week or ten days with his sister, Miss Carrie Cole.

Mrs. J. F. Foy and children went to Comstock last Friday evening to spend a few days visiting with relatives.

Miss Birdie Sleuman, who has been visiting at the P. F. Hansen home, returned to her home at Hastings Thursday.

Miss Verla Fowler went to Arcadia Thursday evening to spend a few days visiting with Miss Wauneta Conger.

The Misses Hazel and Bessie Brandt went to Arcadia Saturday evening to spend Sunday visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Art Gilbert returned to her home at Arcadia Saturday evening after several days visit at the L. G. Lofholm home.

Mrs. W. S. Taylor, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, arrived Saturday for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Adamson.

Miss Emma Rowe came home from Shelton Monday noon where she had been the past ten days visiting with relatives and friends.

Miss Eunice Chase returned home from Chapman, Nebraska, last Thursday where she had been for some time visiting with relatives.

Miss Louise Bartunek returned to Ord Saturday after spending several days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Bartunek.

Mrs. Cargill, who has been visiting at the James Johanson home the past three weeks, returned to her home at Palmer Saturday morning.

Mrs. J. N. Ling and children returned home from Aurora Saturday where they have been visiting with relatives the past three weeks.

Mrs. O. S. Mason, Mrs. W. D. French and Mrs. Mike Kaminski spent the day visiting with Mrs. Ed Oltmann at Schaupps last Friday.

Public dance at the Daddow opera house on Thursday evening, September 2nd. Everybody invited. Dance tickets $1; spectators 25c ladies free.

Kenneth Cozier returned to his home at University Place Tuesday morning after spending a week or ten days here at the J. P. Leininger home.

Wanted—For the Eastern war zone, the best and most marketable horses, sufficient in size and quality for any of the duties required there. See Myrl Warrick.

Mrs. William Strankman returned to her home at Grand Junction, Colorado, Saturday morning after visiting here a couple of weeks at the J. N. Fisher home.

Miss Leona May returned from Friend, Nebraska Friday evening, where she had spent the past month visiting with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Brown.

Mrs. Mathew returned Monday from her buying trip, and will soon be ready to show the goods. She purchased a complete line of fall and winter millinery and ladies' coats.

Better buy a few sacks of White Satin flour while you can get flour that is made from old wheat. All merchants handle our flour. Every sack guaranteed.—Loup City Mill & Light Company.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hays of Ravenna, who spent several days here last week visiting at the C. C. Cooper home, left for Stanton, Nebraska Friday, where Mr. Hays is superintendent of schools.

Miss Clara Polski and brother, Ignac, and cousin, Frank Margowski, of Denver, came up from Ashton Thursday and visited till Friday with their brother and cousin, L. B. Polski and wife.

BLACK CAT HOSIERY

Just The Kind for School Children.

They Won't Wear Out

15c and 25c Per Pair

R. L. ARTHUR

Daily sells for less.

Chase's for fresh groceries.

Nyals Tooth Paste prevents decay. Sold only at the Nyals store.

W. D. Zimmerman returned from Goodland, Kansas, Thursday where he had been on business.

L. V. Slocumb returned from Hastings Thursday where he had been on a business and pleasure trip.

Mrs. J. W. Amich went to Omaha Saturday morning to visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Martin.

Miss Mary Lowery, of Grand Island, came up Saturday evening for a short visit at the W. S. Waite home.

The East Side division of the Methodist Ladies' Aid society, will hold a sale at Rig Slocumb's Saturday.

Mrs. Nelson Fisher and children went to St. Paul Saturday to visit a few days with her parents.

E. A. Miner and family went to Wobach last Thursday to visit a week or ten days with relatives.

Mrs. Edgar Foster spent from Friday till Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. R. W. Curry at Linscott, Nebraska.

Mrs. H. M. Mathew returned from St. Joe and Kansas City, where she purchased her fall and winter hats.

I have secured a first class plow man and guarantee all plow work. Bring in your plow lays now.—A. C. Ogle.

Miss Bertha Christensen returned home from Palmer Saturday where she visited with relatives the past week.

Miss Edith Johnson of Grand Island, came up last Thursday to visit with her cousins, the Misses Clara and Emma Anderson.

Miss Petronilla Theis, who has been employed at the law office of R. P. Starr, returned to her home in Grand Island Monday noon.

We will have something of special interest Saturday on our bargain counter. Loup City Cash Store, Wm. Lewandowski, Prop.

Mrs. C. W. Ogle and daughter, went to Lincoln Saturday morning after a short visit here with her mother, Mrs. Robert Grutter.

Miss Hallene Mellor returned home from Polk and Aurora where she visited with Miss Blanche Draper and attended institute.

Rev. C. G. F. Johnson returned home Tuesday evening from Hot Springs, South Dakota, where he has been for medical treatment.

The Misses Gladys and Esther Hosier went to Dannebrog last Thursday and spent several days visiting with relatives returning Monday.

J. W. Burleigh and family left last Friday for their new home at Crawford, Nebraska. Mr. Burleigh purchased a newspaper there recently. The Northwestern wishes him success.

Miss Sadie Nelson, of Hay Springs, Nebraska, who has been attending school at Fremont, came up Friday evening for a visit with Miss Alice Benschoter. She returned to her home Tuesday morning.

Donald Doxan, who has been here visiting with his uncle, Burr Robbins and family, returned to his home in Grand Island Monday. He was accompanied by his aunt, Mrs. Burr Robbins and baby who will spend a week visiting.

The congregation of St. Paul's German Evangelical church will hold a picnic at Jenner's park on Sunday afternoon, August 29th. All kinds of amusements will be provided. Ice cream and soft drinks. A good time assured. All friends of the congregation are invited.

"Les Miserables" in nine reels will be shown at the opera house on Wednesday evening, September, 1st. The greatest motion picture ever made. A magnificent production of the literary masterpiece of Victor Hugo, acted by a splendid cast of French stars. Admission 10 and 20 cents.

Look over the 98c sale at the Loup City Merc. Co. next Saturday.

J. K. Ward of Arcadia stopped off here between trains Monday.

Miss Nellie Stanczyk visited with John Dietz and wife at Rockville yesterday.

Miss Emily Steen visited with friends at Schaupps from Saturday till Tuesday.

Miss Grace Cranor, who has been visiting at York with friends, returned last Thursday evening.

D. C. Grow left yesterday morning for Hunter, Oklahoma, to visit with his son, Charles Grow, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Buss and baby came up from Rockville Saturday to visit at the W. C. Dieterichs home.

Edward Anderson came home from St. Edwards and Columbus last Thursday where he had been some time working.

For Sale—Five or six acres of land, in alfalfa, fenced chicken tight. For terms and particulars see Alfred Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson and children came up from Dannebrog Saturday to visit with the George Hosier family.

Miss Amelia Hansen returned home Saturday noon from Teeds Grove, Iowa, where she had been for some time visiting.

Mrs. Emma Collette and baby returned home to Hampton Tuesday after several days visit here at the A. L. Enderle home.

J. C. Fletcher and wife came up from Hoelus Monday and visited till Tuesday with their son, C. W. Fletcher and family.

Miss Katherine Owens went to Rockville Tuesday noon to spend a few days visiting with Mrs. Fred Anderson and family.

Mrs. Lowery and daughter Margaret, returned to their home at Aurora Tuesday after visiting here at the Cox and Warrick homes.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Orman, who have been here visiting at the Henry George home, returned to their home at McCook Tuesday morning.

Farmers you will soon want threshing coal. We have a full line of threshing coal. Our pinnacle coal cannot be beat. We guarantee our prices as low as the lowest.—Taylor's Elevator.

The Misses Elizabeth and Luella Erazim returned to their home at Ravenna Tuesday morning after several days visit here with their sister, Mrs. Gus Lorentz.

40 acres of good prairie hay, between three and four miles of Loup City, for rent or to be put up on shares. Must be put up soon. Inquire at First National Bank of Loup City.

The ladies' aid will have an ice cream social at Cleora church Saturday evening, August 28th. Please don't come unless you bring your money as the ladies are in need of cash, cash.

Miss Fay French visited with her aunt, Mrs. Edward Oltman at Schaupps Monday, returning home Tuesday evening accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Harry Ballinger, who has been there visiting.

Mrs. R. H. Mathew and son went to Grand Island Saturday where she met her sister, Mrs. W. B. Owen, and children who were returning from Chicago, where they had spent the summer with relatives.

George Kettle and family left Tuesday morning for their future home at Santa Anna, California. They will spend a week at Grand Junction, Colorado, to visit with his brother, John Kettle and family.

Mrs. P. A. Danielson, who has been here visiting at the J. A. Danielson home, left Tuesday morning for Clear Lake, Iowa, where she will join her mother and go from there to her home in Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. R. N. Pritchard and sister, Miss Regina Beschler, and Miss Constance Jenner, returned home from Omaha Saturday where Mrs. Pritchard purchased her fall and winter stock of millinery.

Mrs. E. W. Thompson entertained her Sunday school class to a party at her home Monday evening in honor of Miss Esther Kettle who left Tuesday morning for her new home in Santa Anna, California. All enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

The congregation of St. Paul's German Evangelical church will hold a picnic at Jenner's park on Sunday afternoon, August 29th. All kinds of amusements will be provided. Ice cream and soft drinks. A good time assured. All friends of the congregation are invited.

"Les Miserables" in nine reels will be shown at the opera house on Wednesday evening, September, 1st. The greatest motion picture ever made. A magnificent production of the literary masterpiece of Victor Hugo, acted by a splendid cast of French stars. Admission 10 and 20 cents.

Look over the 98c sale at the Loup City Merc. Co. next Saturday.

J. K. Ward of Arcadia stopped off here between trains Monday.

Miss Nellie Stanczyk visited with John Dietz and wife at Rockville yesterday.

Miss Emily Steen visited with friends at Schaupps from Saturday till Tuesday.

Miss Grace Cranor, who has been visiting at York with friends, returned last Thursday evening.

D. C. Grow left yesterday morning for Hunter, Oklahoma, to visit with his son, Charles Grow, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Buss and baby came up from Rockville Saturday to visit at the W. C. Dieterichs home.

Edward Anderson came home from St. Edwards and Columbus last Thursday where he had been some time working.

For Sale—Five or six acres of land, in alfalfa, fenced chicken tight. For terms and particulars see Alfred Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson and children came up from Dannebrog Saturday to visit with the George Hosier family.

Miss Amelia Hansen returned home Saturday noon from Teeds Grove, Iowa, where she had been for some time visiting.

Mrs. Emma Collette and baby returned home to Hampton Tuesday after several days visit here at the A. L. Enderle home.

J. C. Fletcher and wife came up from Hoelus Monday and visited till Tuesday with their son, C. W. Fletcher and family.

Miss Katherine Owens went to Rockville Tuesday noon to spend a few days visiting with Mrs. Fred Anderson and family.

Mrs. Lowery and daughter Margaret, returned to their home at Aurora Tuesday after visiting here at the Cox and Warrick homes.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Orman, who have been here visiting at the Henry George home, returned to their home at McCook Tuesday morning.

Farmers you will soon want threshing coal. We have a full line of threshing coal. Our pinnacle coal cannot be beat. We guarantee our prices as low as the lowest.—Taylor's Elevator.

The Misses Elizabeth and Luella Erazim returned to their home at Ravenna Tuesday morning after several days visit here with their sister, Mrs. Gus Lorentz.

40 acres of good prairie hay, between three and four miles of Loup City, for rent or to be put up on shares. Must be put up soon. Inquire at First National Bank of Loup City.

The ladies' aid will have an ice cream social at Cleora church Saturday evening, August 28th. Please don't come unless you bring your money as the ladies are in need of cash, cash.

Miss Fay French visited with her aunt, Mrs. Edward Oltman at Schaupps Monday, returning home Tuesday evening accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Harry Ballinger, who has been there visiting.

Mrs. R. H. Mathew and son went to Grand Island Saturday where she met her sister, Mrs. W. B. Owen, and children who were returning from Chicago, where they had spent the summer with relatives.

George Kettle and family left Tuesday morning for their future home at Santa Anna, California. They will spend a week at Grand Junction, Colorado, to visit with his brother, John Kettle and family.

Mrs. P. A. Danielson, who has been here visiting at the J. A. Danielson home, left Tuesday morning for Clear Lake, Iowa, where she will join her mother and go from there to her home in Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. R. N. Pritchard and sister, Miss Regina Beschler, and Miss Constance Jenner, returned home from Omaha Saturday where Mrs. Pritchard purchased her fall and winter stock of millinery.

Mrs. E. W. Thompson entertained her Sunday school class to a party at her home Monday evening in honor of Miss Esther Kettle who left Tuesday morning for her new home in Santa Anna, California. All enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

The congregation of St. Paul's German Evangelical church will hold a picnic at Jenner's park on Sunday afternoon, August 29th. All kinds of amusements will be provided. Ice cream and soft drinks. A good time assured. All friends of the congregation are invited.

"Les Miserables" in nine reels will be shown at the opera house on Wednesday evening, September, 1st. The greatest motion picture ever made. A magnificent production of the literary masterpiece of Victor Hugo, acted by a splendid cast of French stars. Admission 10 and 20 cents.

Look over the 98c sale at the Loup City Merc. Co. next Saturday.

J. K. Ward of Arcadia stopped off here between trains Monday.

Miss Nellie Stanczyk visited with John Dietz and wife at Rockville yesterday.

Miss Emily Steen visited with friends at Schaupps from Saturday till Tuesday.

Miss Grace Cranor, who has been visiting at York with friends, returned last Thursday evening.

D. C. Grow left yesterday morning for Hunter, Oklahoma, to visit with his son, Charles Grow, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Buss and baby came up from Rockville Saturday to visit at the W. C. Dieterichs home.

Edward Anderson came home from St. Edwards and Columbus last Thursday where he had been some time working.

For Sale—Five or six acres of land, in alfalfa, fenced chicken tight. For terms and particulars see Alfred Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson and children came up from Dannebrog Saturday to visit with the George Hosier family.

Miss Amelia Hansen returned home Saturday noon from Teeds Grove, Iowa, where she had been for some time visiting.

Mrs. Emma Collette and baby returned home to Hampton Tuesday after several days visit here at the A. L. Enderle home.

J. C. Fletcher and wife came up from Hoelus Monday and visited till Tuesday with their son, C. W. Fletcher and family.

Miss Katherine Owens went to Rockville Tuesday noon to spend a few days visiting with Mrs. Fred Anderson and family.

Mrs. Lowery and daughter Margaret, returned to their home at Aurora Tuesday after visiting here at the Cox and Warrick homes.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Orman, who have been here visiting at the Henry George home, returned to their home at McCook Tuesday morning.

Farmers you will soon want threshing coal. We have a full line of threshing coal. Our pinnacle coal cannot be beat. We guarantee our prices as low as the lowest.—Taylor's Elevator.

The Misses Elizabeth and Luella Erazim returned to their home at Ravenna Tuesday morning after several days visit here with their sister, Mrs. Gus Lorentz.

40 acres of good prairie hay, between three and four miles of Loup City, for rent or to be put up on shares. Must be put up soon. Inquire at First National Bank of Loup City.

The ladies' aid will have an ice cream social at Cleora church Saturday evening, August 28th. Please don't come unless you bring your money as the ladies are in need of cash, cash.

Miss Fay French visited with her aunt, Mrs. Edward Oltman at Schaupps Monday, returning home Tuesday evening accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Harry Ballinger, who has been there visiting.

Mrs. R. H. Mathew and son went to Grand Island Saturday where she met her sister, Mrs. W. B. Owen, and children who were returning from Chicago, where they had spent the summer with relatives.

George Kettle and family left Tuesday morning for their future home at Santa Anna, California. They will spend a week at Grand Junction, Colorado, to visit with his brother, John Kettle and family.

Mrs. P. A. Danielson, who has been here visiting at the J. A. Danielson home, left Tuesday morning for Clear Lake, Iowa, where she will join her mother and go from there to her home in Dallas, Texas.

Mrs. R. N. Pritchard and sister, Miss Regina Beschler, and Miss Constance Jenner, returned home from Omaha Saturday where Mrs. Pritchard purchased her fall and winter stock of millinery.

Mrs. E. W. Thompson entertained her Sunday school class to a party at her home Monday evening in honor of Miss Esther Kettle who left Tuesday morning for her new home in Santa Anna, California. All enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

The congregation of St. Paul's German Evangelical church will hold a picnic at Jenner's park on Sunday afternoon, August 29th. All kinds of amusements will be provided. Ice cream and soft drinks. A good time assured. All friends of the congregation are invited.

"Les Miserables" in nine reels will be shown at the opera house on Wednesday evening, September, 1st. The greatest motion picture ever made. A magnificent production of the literary masterpiece of Victor Hugo, acted by a splendid cast of French stars. Admission 10 and 20 cents.

Look over the 98c sale at the Loup City Merc. Co. next Saturday.

J. K. Ward of Arcadia stopped off here between trains Monday.

Miss Nellie Stanczyk visited with John Dietz and wife at Rockville yesterday.

Miss Emily Steen visited with friends at Schaupps from Saturday till Tuesday.

Miss Grace Cranor, who has been visiting at York with friends, returned last Thursday evening.

D. C. Grow left yesterday morning for Hunter, Oklahoma, to visit with his son, Charles Grow, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Buss and baby came up from Rockville Saturday to visit at the W. C. Dieterichs home.

Edward Anderson came home from St. Edwards and Columbus last Thursday where he had been some time working.

For Sale—Five or six acres of land, in alfalfa, fenced chicken tight. For terms and particulars see Alfred Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson and children came up from Dannebrog Saturday to visit with the George Hosier family.

Miss Amelia Hansen returned home Saturday noon from Teeds Grove, Iowa, where she had been