Born, Thursday, Jan. 9th, to Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Criss, a baby boy.

I will guarantee 27 cents for cream, until further notice.—A. E. CHASE.

Ed. Oltmann had a horse badly cut on a barbed wire fence a few days since.

Ice Baron Conger reports the ice at a thickness of 10 1/2 inches and of splendid clearness.

Dr. Perrigo, the Fremont eye specialist and optician, at St. Elmo hotel, Jan. 25th.

The ladies of the Industrial society will meet at the home of Mrs. M. H. Mead, Jan. 22nd.

A little daughter came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. George, on Saturday, Jan. 11th, 1908.

Lee Bros., the popular butchers, are prepared to smoke meats for the farmers. Bring in your orders.

We understand John Oltmann intends putting up a brick residence in the north part of town this coming spring.

The family of D. L. Adamson are all reported ill with la grippe, Mr. Adamson's case being the most serious.

Will Zimmerman returned last Thursday evening from a few weeks' visit to Columbus, and other points in Ohio.

Miss Hattie Froehlich went to Kansas City and Chicago last Saturday on business pertaining to her millinery business.

D. A. Johnson of the Loup City Mercantile Co. was up from Aurora over last Sunday looking after his business interests.

Will Engle sold 35 fat hogs to our buyers last Thursday, ranging from eight months of age to younger, that averaged 230 pounds.

Uncle John Chipps and Chas. Gydesson were down from Oak Creek township last week Wednesday on court house business.

Weak, inflamed eyes, cross eyes, dizziness, etc., relieved by Dr. Perrigo of Fremont. He removes the cause, nature cures. St. Elmo hotel, Jan. 25th, until 3:30 p. m.

Mrs. W. R. McCombs and children, who have been guests at the home of J. W. Conger for the past two weeks, left this morning for their home near Monroe, this state.

J. A. Converse has been appointed by Gov. Sheldon as a delegate to the Trans-Missouri Navigation Congress from Sherman county, which meets at Sioux City, Jan. 23-24.

A number of young friends of Miss Lois McCombi, who has been visiting at the home of J. W. Conger, gave her a surprise party last Friday evening. A very enjoyable time is reported.

Will Engle orders the Northwestern sent to his mother, Mrs. John Romsdal at York, this year. He also renews for his own paper for the coming year. Mr. Engle is one of the Northwestern's staunch friends.

Mrs. H. E. Price and baby left Tuesday morning for Westminster, Maryland, for an extended visit. Mr. Price will continue hustling for the Singer Co. here. We wish Mrs. Price a safe journey and happy visit.

Services at the Presbyterian church next Sunday begin promptly at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Special music in the evening will consist of an anthem by the choir, a duet by Delmar and Miss Amy Draper, and a solo by Miss Beatrice Nightingale. You will find a good seat and a hearty welcome there.

George Zeigler is a Northwestern reader good to have. George parts with the wherewith for advance reading of the paper for the coming year in a spirit that gives the impression that he believes "it is more blessed to give than to receive." It is good to have such hearty good-will subscribers.

While in town doing some trading, yesterday about noon, Mr. Fred Thode had a slight paralytic stroke to the entire right side of his body. Dr. Kearns was called and soon Mr. Thode was able to be taken home, suffering little inconvenience. This is the first stroke Mr. Thode has experienced, and it is thought with a little rest he will recover.

Our good friend, Theo. Ojendyk, in remitting for the Northwestern adds: "Had it not been for your blue penciling that notice, I perhaps would not have thought of remitting for ten cents, for you know we all think the printer never needs money. They can live like the preacher—on wind." All the same, the Northwestern wishes it had ten thousand readers like Theo.

A very regretful error crept into our news columns last week, in mentioning the approaching marriage of Mr. Rubert Kowalewski. Through misinformation, the name of the bride to be was given as Miss Lucy Sonnenfeldt, when the name should have been Miss Mary Kaston, instead. So the wedding announcement should read, Mr. Rubert Kowalewski to Miss Mary Kaston, Tuesday, Jan. 21st, at St. Frances Catholic church, Ashton, Neb.

Again this week the Northwestern gives the names of the good readers of the Northwestern, both new and renewals, who have remembered us financially since last issue. We doff our hat and make our polite bow to them all: A. L. Zimmerman, Chas. Gydesson, Andrew Pearson, E. A. Angier, E. E. Tracy, L. J. Tracy, W. M. Engle, Mrs. John Romsdal, J. P. Ford, C. Truelsen, Paul Heizer, C. E. Haller, C. F. Beushausen, S. F. Reynolds, J. A. Angier, Gus Lorentz for Mr. A. Selstrom of Denver, Frank Lorchek, F. S. Robbins, H. Smelser for E. Smelser, J. S. Pedler for self and Samuel and John Pedler, C. W. Fletcher, C. E. Mellor, Peter Lorentz, Miss Louise M. Rosseter by Mrs. Viola Odendahl, E. H. Kittel, G. L. Zeigler, H. A. Sleth, Mrs. A. T. Forsell, Theo. Ojendyk, H. B. Musser.

J. A. Converse has sold his town property to George Wasnicki. We understand Mr. and Mrs. Converse will remove to Gibbon, Neb., where they own property, in the near future.

Nothing so mars a person's features as cross eyes. Most cases can be corrected by PROPERLY FITTED glasses. Dr. Perrigo of Fremont is a specialist in this line and has proofs to show you at the St. Elmo hotel, Jan. 25, until 3:30 p. m.

The Northwestern editorial family is indebted to friend Starr for a side of ribs. Our lawyer friend having killed his porkers and knowing the penchant of the editor for such delicacies as baked spare ribs, gave us a generous quantity. And still there's room for more.

The reception given by the ladies of the P. E. O. society at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hale, last Thursday afternoon, was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season, some seventy ladies of Loup City being present. A very interesting program of music, both vocal and instrumental, with readings and recitations, and followed by dainty refreshments, marked the reception hours from 2:30 to 5:30. It is such pleasurable occasions that mark the era of the Happy New Year.

This afternoon Herman Johansen's big Poland China sale is on at his farm one mile east of town and judging by what we hear on the street the town will be practically deserted, while all attend said sale to buy or be entertained. In either case you will not be disappointed.

Notice to Subscribers!

Again this week, the Northwestern calls the attention of its readers to the decision of the postoffice department at Washington to the effect that weekly newspapers should not be more than one year in arrears in order to enjoy the second class rates on its issues. This being the case, it is obligatory upon us that readers should be fully aware of the law, and be less than one year in arrears if they would have the paper visit them. This notice is not for those who are paid in advance, or less than one year behind on their subscription, nor will appeal to them till their subscription is so. We mark this notice this week to all alike, that they may be fully aware of the fact. If you fail to receive your paper at any future date, you may know your subscription has run out, and will be a courteous request for your renewal. Notice the date to which you are paid after your name.
