Oklahoma with a reported 25-inch rainfall inside of 24 hours last week can't make one believe it is a very "dry" state.

Jim Dahlman, the cow-boy mayor of Omaha has one consolation. His hair never pulls after a night out with the boys.

Oklahoma seems to be getting no end of tornadoes this spring, every few days one being reported visiting that newest state of Uncle Sam's domain.

Senator Platt, in his controversy with Mae, has it proved conclusively to himself that "hell hath no fury like a woman's corn," or words to that effect.

Three small twisters operated in Nebraska last Thursday, at Hastings, Fremont and Chadron, doing no little damage, but fortunately causing no casualties.

The Methodist conference at Baltimore selected Quayle as one of their bishopric birds. That proves that Methodist preachers are great people for chickens or even Quayl on toast.

H. H. Hanks of Nebraska City and John A. Maguire of Lincoln are two absolutely new and fresh candidates for the democratic nomination for governor.

The visit of Mr. Berge to our city last Thursday night and his address at the commencement exercises, may give added interest among our people to the fact that he is again a candidate for the demo-pop nomination for governor.

The contractor is just completing the cement floor in the new cattle barn on the State Fair Grounds at Lincoln. This barn is a mammoth building 174x255 and will have stalls for 636 head of cattle.

Cattle Superintendent O. E. Mickey of Osceola reports the receipts of entries daily, and the management confidently expect that the ample provisions for caring for cattle will result in the largest exhibit Aug. 31st to Sept. 4th ever held in Nebraska.

The Annual Camp Meeting of the Nebraska State Holiness Association, for 1908, will be held at Epworth Lake Park, Lincoln, Neb., June 18th to 28th.

The most marvelous photograph ever made, showing 500 different views of President Roosevelt assembled in one big picture, forms the double-page feature of the June Woman's Home Companion.

All persons are prohibited from treating or giving away any liquor, beer, wine or intoxicating beverages whatsoever, purchased and to be drunk in any saloon or other public place where such liquors or beverages are kept on sale.

Surely Sherman county has had sufficient rains the past two weeks to place the soil in best possible condition. Last Monday's down-pour measured about half an inch within a short time.

The C. B. & Q. Ry. Co. last Tuesday morning filed with the county clerk a mortgage for three hundred millions of dollars on that company, an agent of the company arriving on a special that morning for that purpose. The filing fee was $18.70.

Through the kindness of Bro. Davis of the Journal, we have received a complimentary season ticket to the Chautauqua to be held at Ord July 25 to August 2—nine days of a splendid program course 25 entertainments, including some of the best speakers and finest concerts and musical treats of various kinds.

It turns out that the democrats had more money in the campaign of 1904 than anybody suspected. Mayor Dahlman admits that Tom Allen got $15,000 from the national committee and that the money was spent in an effort to elect George W. Berge governor.

The Presbyterian church was tested to its utmost seating capacity last Thursday evening on the occasion of the Commencement exercises of the class of '08.

$150 For Best Article. The Republican Congressional Committee offers $150 for the best article not exceeding 1,000 words on the subject:

WHY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY SHOULD BE SUCCESSFUL NEXT NOVEMBER. The competition is open to all.

The award will be made and check sent to successful contestant about August 15th. Manuscripts must be mailed not later than July 15th to Literary Bureau, Republican Congressional Committee, Metropolitan Bank Building, Washington, D. C.

Rattled? Well, Rather. The following story is told of one of our bashful young men who called on a young lady recently to spend the evening and when he got ready to leave he realized that a heavy rain was falling.

When Longfellow was in London, Queen Victoria sent for him to come and see her at the palace. He went, and just as he was seating himself in the waiting coach after the interview, a man in working clothes appeared, hat in hand, at the coach window.

Too Much Clothing. The chief quarrel which hygiene has with clothing is that there is too much of it; garments come down too far, are too tight, too heavy, too hot, writes Dr. Woods Hutchinson.

Memorial Exercises.

Decoration Day was better remembered this year in Loup City than ever before, according to the oldest inhabitants. The day was clear and beautiful and at an early hour our streets were lined with farmers' teams and with rigs of every kind that would carry passengers.

Commencement.

The Presbyterian church was tested to its utmost seating capacity last Thursday evening on the occasion of the Commencement exercises of the class of '08.

New B. & M. Time Table

It will be well for our people who take the B. & M. for the east to take notice that the time of the morning passenger is changed to 7:38 a. m., arriving at Lincoln without change of cars at 1:30 p. m., connection arrives at Omaha 3:45 p. m., St. Joe 9:10 p. m., Kansas City 11:30 p. m., Chicago 7 a. m. next morning.

COMPLIMENT FROM THE HEART.

When Longfellow was in London, Queen Victoria sent for him to come and see her at the palace. He went, and just as he was seating himself in the waiting coach after the interview, a man in working clothes appeared, hat in hand, at the coach window.

What Ears Are For. In a Cleveland kindergarten the children were reciting their nature lesson in unison, responding to questions of the teacher.

ALLOWED TO CHOOSE MATES.

French female convicts have one privilege that female convicts of other countries do not enjoy—they are allowed to get married. But the husbands must also be convicts. Every six months a notice is circulated in the female penitentiaries calling upon all women who feel minded to go out to New Caledonia, in the South Pacific and be married to make application to that effect through the governor.

THOUGHT HE WANTED SNUFFBOX

Suspicion of Piper Not Very Flattering to His Grace. At a dinner given by the marquis of Bute, among the guests was a well-known duke who, in full Highland dress, had his piper standing behind his chair.

Sad-Colored Food.

Now that it has been discovered, or rediscovered, by an eminent physician that the colors of food have much to do with the appetite, a woman in town who is known for her novel entertainments is going to give a luncheon where all the dishes "will be bright and cheerful in tone."

Saving on Drink.

That men will drink less while they have something to look at or to listen to is proved by the sobriety which attends public amusements in England.

Caves of a Cannibal Race.

Strange evidences of cannibalism have been brought to light with the recent opening up of caves at One Tree Hill, Maungakiekie, New South Wales, and another link has been added to the chain of interest encircling this celebrated spot.

Teach Care of Children.

In Brussels a school is being started for nursemaids who will probably be drawn largely from the various orphan asylums. Close to the young nurses' home a school will be instituted and the future guardians of the little folks of the wealthier classes will, under the charge of doctors, be thoroughly instructed in the care of children.

IT MUST BE A "MOON" IF THE BEST IS WANTED

The days for driving are drawing near, so you'd better begin looking for the new buggy you intend to buy.

This year's purchase of the famous Moon Brothers' buggy includes some of the very nicest medium priced rigs that have ever been brought to Loup City.

The screwless and plugless body of the 'Moon' insures against spotted sides-cracked paint—a buggy not to be ashamed of—for many years.

Come in and see some high-class buggies that sell at a medium price.

Hayhurst-Galloway Hardware Company.
