R. P. Starr has purchased of M. H. Mead his full set of abstract books, said to be a full record of all transfers of real estate in Sherman county. We did not hear the consideration, but it runs well up into the hundreds, if not into four figures. We congratulate Bro. Starr on his acquisition of such valuable property.

Last Saturday morning, Mrs. Wm. Larsen received a telegram announcing the sudden illness and death of her mother, Mrs. H. G. Dawley, at DuBois, Idaho, on the evening of the preceding day. The news came as a sudden blow, as no news of her illness had preceded the dread intelligence of her death, and was therefore wholly unexpected. It will be remembered that only a few months since the lamented mother and her husband were here visiting their daughter and family. Our people will sympathize with the bereaved daughter over her irreparable loss of "Mother."

While at the T. M. Reed Implement store the other day, Mr. Reed showed us a sample of the McCaskey Account Register, which is about the slickest affair for business men we ever saw. It can do for you what no set of books can do—and that is to show at first glance just how each customer stands on credit. It is just about the completest thing in its line you could imagine, and will repay its cost an hundred times over in its saving of time and money. Drop in and see the register and you will lose no time in securing one. Mr. Reed has the agency for this and several adjoining counties.

The Dog Nuisance.

H. M. Walker, living in the northeast part of town, can testify most thoroughly as to the dog nuisance about town. Last week, dogs so worried his horses at night running loose in his pasture that one valuable mare was badly cut in the wire, in trying to get away from the dogs. Mr. Walker gives fair warning that owners must take care of their dogs hereafter, or he will appeal to the law. If some dog owner has to pay heavy costs for damage done by his brute, it will be a lesson for owners of the thousand and one worthless curs that make nights hideous.

The Ravenna Creamery Co. will pay 18 cents for butter fat till further notice.

The many friends of Mrs. Theo. Wilson of Ashton will regret to learn the illness of that lady is assuming a very serious stage and fears for her ultimate recovery are entertained. She is suffering from a complication of nervous and stomach troubles and with rheumatic ailments. We trust her condition may not be as serious as feared.

Mrs. J. A. Danielson, wife of our new B. & M. agent, was up from Omaha last Thursday for a short visit. It looks now as though Mr. Danielson, who has been in charge of the office till a regular man could be secured, will remain with us as regular agent himself. He is a very pleasant and accommodating man and thoroughly acquainted with the work and our people are to be congratulated over acquiring himself and family to our citizenship, should the powers place him here as regular agent.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mellor were up from Lincoln to spend Decoration Day at home, returning to the capital Monday morning. When on the excursion to the coast, Mr. Mellor took nearly 200 snap-shots of the various scenes witnessed, and while here favored us with a short and interesting account of his trip and explanation of the pictures taken, a large number of which he had with him. It was the next best thing to have taken the big trip. And by the way, Mr. Mellor had he turned his attention to descriptive writing or lectures, would have proven a success along those lines.

Rev. Miss Palmer, Congregational minister at Waverly, this state, is in the city working in the interests of a Chautauque system and will probably result in Loup City having a week of Chautauque some time in August. The heaven is working but we will not be able to give any definite results in time for today's Northwestern. A Chautauque for Loup City means much for the business and intellectual interests of our city and county. There is every argument to offer in favor of a Chautauque and our citizenship should be a unit in securing it.

A representative of the Northwestern visited the Ohlsen Brothers brickyards last Thursday and found that while the force was not busily engaged in manufacturing new brick that day it was busily shipping carloads to Sargent, and the kilns were full to overflowing with the finished and unfinished product, and the proprietors on the eve of making extensive improvements in the plant in many ways. Ohlsen Bros. brickyard means a great deal to the prosperity of Loup City and Sherman county and its proprietors are among our most progressive citizens. While there Mr. Henry Ohlsen gave us some surprising figures of the extensive business of the company the past few years and are contemplating a most pleasant business surprise in the near future, which is yet in embryo state, and we wait till a later date to give publication, when the gentlemen shall have the matter in full control, when the Northwestern will be happy to give the satisfactory facts. Wait just a little while.

HYMENEAL

Youngquest-Lohholm

On Tuesday evening, June 2, 1908, occurred one of the prettiest weddings of the season, when at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. S. N. Criss, were united in the bonds of hymen, Miss Minnie Lohholm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lohholm, and Mr. Marsel Youngquest, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Youngquest of Aurora, this state. At the hour of 8:30, before a large number of invited guests, and with Miss Beth Zimmerman presiding at the organ, the bridal party entered the parlor, with Mr. Lawrence Lohholm acting as best man to the groom and Miss Lillie Lohholm as bridesmaid, and were united for life in a few choice words by Rev. L. C. McEwen, followed by the hearty congratulations and best wishes of all. Following the ceremony the guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a most excellent supper was served, and after viewing the tokens of esteem presented the new homemakers by their friends, which were most beautiful, costly and useful, the guests departed to their several homes showering best wishes on the happy pair for a long, happy and prosperous life. The bride is one of Loup City's choicest daughters, having been a resident of this city and county from early childhood, a graduate of our high schools and for several years a successful teacher, and loved and respected by all. The groom is a most highly esteemed young farmer living a few miles north of this city, coming here from Hamilton county some two years since. The young people will immediately go to housekeeping on the farm of the groom. The Northwestern, with the host of friends of the contracting parties here and elsewhere will unite in best wishes for their happy future. Following is a list of the out-of-town guests present on the felicitous occasion: Mr. and Mrs. John Youngquest, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, A. G. Youngquest and Roy Shankland, Mildred and Hazel Kennedy, all of Aurora; Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Jacoby and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bock and family, Messrs. Clarence Youngquest and Chris Baumann all of Logan township, and Mr. Frank Weedon of Webster township.

Alumni Reception and Banquet

On Friday evening, May 29th, the first reception and banquet of the Loup City High School Alumni Association was given at the Odendahl and Zimmerman residences in this city. At 8:00 o'clock the reception committee stood ready to receive the members and invited guests, to the number of about sixty, in the Odendahl parlors, which were artistically decorated in sage green and ecru, the colors of the class of '08. After an hour spent in talking over old times and making new acquaintances the class of '08 which had been locked in rooms on the third floor were ushered in and duly initiated one by one into the association and introduced to those assembled. The merry party then made their way to the banquet hall at the Zimmerman residence, which was beautifully decorated in crimson and pearl gray, the High School colors. While all were being seated at the banquet table the orchestra composed of Messrs. J. F. and Max Jeffords and Miss Nellie Jeffords furnished the music, which continued while the feast was being served. After each one had partaken of the good things to eat the toastmaster, Raymond Kearns, called upon Mary Minshull as treasurer of the association to read the toast, "School Life as it Was," written by Mrs. Myrtle Williams Cole, a member of the first graduating class, "School Life as it is," by Maggie Minshull class '08, "Reminiscences of School Life," by Robert Mathew, class '09, and "School Life as it will be" by R. E. Dale. Good-nights were then said and each one felt that they were glad to have attended the first Alumni reception and banquet of the L. C. H. S. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Polski and Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Jamrog of Ashton and Mr. and Mrs. King of Grand Island.
