Miss Minnie Gilbert went on to Neligh from the convention at Fremont, for a visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Emma Way of Ravenna was a guest of Mrs. E. G. Taylor Tuesday night returning home Wednesday morning.

From now on Jenner's Park will be open every day, including Sundays, with refreshments served, the admission being 5 and 10 cents.

Elder Miller and wife of York arrived here last evening and drove out to the home of Sam Foss in Webster township, and were caught in that down-pour of rain on the road. The elder came to hold quarterly meeting at Litchfield.

I am now prepared to do most all kinds of repair work, such as fixing sewing machines, bicycles, guns, tinware, umbrellas, grinding knives, scissors, also I prepared to put up eave troughs and sheet steel roofing on houses. Your patronage solicited. Resp yours, P. O. REED.

The county dads took a recess last week Thursday evening till Wednesday noon of this week, to conclude their work as a board of equalization. The board is up against more than the usual complaint of high assessed valuations, many finding the valuations placed far in excess of the price they ask for the property. It will undoubtedly take them the rest of the week to finish up.

Mr. J. A. Danielson, who has been acting as relief agent of the B. & M. at this place, since Mr. Arthur's retirement from that position, has finally accepted the place as regular agent, at the urgent solicitation of that company, and will leave for his home at Omaha this week Friday to pack up his goods and return here with his wife some time next week to make this their home. Mr. Danielson has been with the B. & M. company for over thirty years, most of the time as relief man, and feels that he would prefer settling down regularly and liking Loup City and its people has consented to remain here. Mr. Danielson has made a host of friends and we are assured will prove a very popular and painstaking employe of the road at this point.

Loup City Mercantile Co.

Uncle Tom Chamberlain's smile was visible on our streets yesterday, coming over from the west end to see if we had had any rain, we suppose.

The Industrial society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. Wm. Larsen on Wednesday afternoon of next week at 2:30 o'clock. All ladies of the church are urged to attend.

Andrew Garstka, supervisor from Ashton township, who was here in attendance on the county board meeting, was taken sick with typhoid fever at the home of G. Wasnicke in this city.

The topics for discussion at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening are respectively, "The Mighty Magnet" and "People who Wake up too Late." Miss Lizzie Leininger will sing at the evening service.

The city council met Monday night and the saloon petition of Mr. Heesch was carried over till Friday evening for action, a remonstrance being filed against it. No action was taken on M. C. Mulick's petition for license, he not having filed his bond.

W. G. Odendahl will build a house for his fine auto adjoining his drug store on the east. He will make it fire-proof. The report that he will buy a second horseless carriage is yet a little previous, as he says he will wait and see how the present auto goes financially before doing so.

C. W. Fletcher returned from Council Bluffs Tuesday evening, where he went last week for the purchase of an artificial limb. He expects the arrival of that artificial member inside of a week. He was told while at the Bluffs that they had had rain there every 24 hours for the preceding 28 days.

Since the morning of the 8th instant and up to yesterday morning, 1.82 inches of rain was added to the 3.10 inches received up to that time the present month and with the little moisture added up to the time we go to press gives us a good five inches of rain so far this month.

Quite a bunch of the good farmers of Harrison township above Litchfield, among them being I. V. Ellett, E. H. Allen, Heapy Brothers, Geo. Gray, John Mead, Wm. Cole and Henry Beck, were before the board of equalization yesterday and succeeded in cutting down their valuations somewhat.

Max Jeffords offers the following prizes for the largest list of names and addresses of piano or organ owners living in Sherman, Custer or Howard counties. For largest list, five copies of any vocal or instrumental selection; second largest, three copies; third, two copies. All lists must be sent before the first of July.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Leininger, Miss Jessie Leininger, and Master Johnnie Leininger will leave next Monday morning for a visit on the Pacific Coast, principally with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Cora Zimmerman, at San Diego. Mr. and Mrs. Leininger and son expect to be absent only a month but Miss Jessie intends remaining there indefinitely for the benefit of her health.

G. P. Callahan expects to leave the last of this week or on Monday at the latest for Sioux county, where he has purchased a relinquishment on 640 acres of land—one of the Kinkaid sectional homesteads—and will later move his family up there and become a plutocratic agriculturist. Gay has had in mind some time of quitting the blacksmith business and has made a lucky purchase, which is bound to prove pay dirt to him. We wish him success.

Ward Ver Valin is enthusiastic over the big Sunday school convention he attended at Fremont last week. The first two days Sherman county had the largest delegation of any county represented. Sixty-two counties of the state were represented, and of the representation, forty per cent were men, a good showing of interest in Sunday school work by men over the past. All the delegation returned last Friday (except the two otherwise mentioned as visiting friends at other points) namely: Mamie Truelsen, Mamie Anderson, Adeline Leininger, Ray Kearns, Robt. Dinsdale and Ward Ver Valin.

Misses Pearle Needham and Mary Minshull went to Lincoln Monday morning to consult a specialist in regard to their eyes.

Hon. E. H. Kittell was up from Rockville township last Thursday and said the hail and heavy rains had badly damaged crops in that section.

The Northwestern is indebted to Miss Ruth Taylor for the first bouquet of the season presented to this office—our favorite flower, the ever fragrant rose.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mellor came up from Lincoln last Saturday evening, remaining till Wednesday morning, partly on business and partly for a pleasant visit home.

Mrs. Maggie Viel arrived from her home at North Platte Monday evening for a few days' visit with her brother and sister, Mr. John Solms and Mrs. John Ohlsen.

Ashley Conger and Billy Simpson on Tuesday caught nine of the biggest catfish we have seen this season. Of course they presented each of the newspapers with a fine specimen! Nit.

Mrs. G. H. Wise and children were guests over last Sunday of Mrs. B. M. Thompson, on their way to visit Mrs. Wise's parents at Arcadia. Rev. Wise is stationed at Beaver City this year.

Mrs. Rose Bishop of Boyd county, who had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Keeler, for a few days, returned home Monday, Mr. Keeler accompanying her on business. He will be absent perhaps a month.

Some one on a certain day last week left a pocketbook containing more or less money on one of the check desks in the First National Bank. They can have same by calling, proving property and paying for this notice.

Mrs. L. W. Callen, accompanied by son and daughters, Anson, Eva and Leona, of Arcadia, visited with friends here from Saturday until Monday, Miss Eva remaining to attend the Institute and Junior Normal.—Broken Bow Republican.

Celebrate the Fourth of July AT Jenner's Park

The following new and old readers of the Northwestern have remembered us financially since last report: J. Q. Pray, W. H. Keller, A. Erazim, Christ Hansen, F. A. Pinckney, Frank Zwink, Albert Fiebig, Ed. Manchester, Thos. Wilson, H. W. Shipley, Mrs. I. C. Coppersmith, Mrs. A. L. Watson, Ira Timson, John Solms.

Hazard is to have a rural route and last Saturday the following applicants for the position of carrier passed examination before Postmaster Owens: Hiram H. Thompson, Clifford Norris, Robert O'Neill, Frank H. Hand, John Benson, Jurgen E. Clausen, William Peterson and William R. Riggins.

The play given by the Sargent young people at the opera house last Saturday evening was very pleasing in many respects. Two or three of the characters were especially well represented and the entire performance gave evidence of much histrionic talent among the young people of our neighboring village.

Besides the great Liberator's Military Band and Grand Opera Concert Company consisting of 60 persons, 18 of whom are singers of national reputation, the State Fair at Lincoln, August 31 to September 4, will have the services of bands from Hebron, Beatrice, Aurora and St. Paul. This should assure patrons of the Fair plenty of music.

Mrs. Mary Gardner is enjoying a visit from her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Watson of Wood River, who is accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Ray Dubs and little daughter of the same place. This makes four generations of that family together at one time—mother, daughter, granddaughter and great-granddaughter, and the four had a group picture taken a few days since. Mrs. Watson is meeting a great many old friends here, having been a former resident of Loup City. She has a very charming personality.

Every newspaper wants to publish news, the better the paper the more prosperous it will be. Local items are especially hard to run down. How many times have you, dear readers been approached by the newspaper man for an item of news, and told him that you knew nothing of interest. Probably at the time your family was away on a visit or some one from out of town was visiting at your home. Of course you didn't mean to deceive the scribe, yet when you received your paper you wondered why your family or friends were not mentioned. A good way to avoid all this is to kindly inform us of the facts or drop a note in the postoffice to the paper. The one item may not amount to much, but several columns of such is the life of a local paper.

Interview With Dr. Caldwell

Some Remarkable Cures that have been made.

Her Patients are Usually Those Who Have Tried All Other Kinds of Medical Skill Without Success.

A Physician Certainly Eminent in Her Profession.

It goes without saying that Dr. Caldwell, the Specialist, who is visiting the principal cities throughout the Northwestern States is the possessor of the largest and most desirable practice of any physician throughout the Northwest. Quite naturally it is to be expected that her ability as a physician ought to be superior to the vast majority of specialists who are numbered in that particular locality.

Caldwell's remarkable ability insures her a practice in any land. She is perhaps to most of you personally a stranger, but well known to you by reputation. And if you never met the Dr. and have never been sufficiently interested to look into her marvelous cures, you would certainly be surprised to find what results she has obtained and the cures she has made. The unacquainted are in no position to predict to others what she might do for them unless they are acquainted with some of her results. We know often times where people who were contemplating consulting a specialist, or any physician, in fact, to allow some uninterested person to persuade and prevent them from doing so, which really might be the worst thing they could do.

In an interview with Dr. Caldwell in one of her city offices she made the statement that as a rule physicians did not believe in her particular way of doing business, not that she was not professionally qualified, not that she was not sufficiently experienced to handle a particular line of chronic diseases that she has made a specialty of and demonstrated to the satisfaction of herself that these diseases could be cured, but that it was against the code of medical ethics to advertise or profess publicly that these diseases could be cured and it was only the cheap quack or pessimist who had more time to devote to other people's business than to his own practice that had anything to say in special condemning her.

Dr. Caldwell is sought after in consultation more than she has time to give, she is certainly more superior in rendering a diagnosis than any ordinary physician. She has connected with her office four regular assistants all of whom have been with her for years and her laboratory is composed of the greatest and best variety of fresh and well selected medicines in the United States.

Dr. Caldwell has been traveling in the Northwest for more than two years, she has been practicing a specialty for about twelve years, consequently she has had a very large field of observation and that she has taken advantage of this is indicated in her many marvelous cures. It is understood that she will eventually retire from traveling and devote her time to her office practice.

We have taken the liberty to publish the names of a few of her patients who have testified as to the good results obtained from her treatments. These people are among the most prominent in their locality, people who have tried all varieties of doctors, medicines, etc., and failed to be cured.

This is to certify, that I was a sufferer of stomach trouble of a severe nature at times nearly despairing on account of the severe pain and suffering I had to endure. I tried many doctors and patent medicines, which only gave me temporary relief. This lasted for four weary years and until I saw the advertisement of Dr. Ora Caldwell and made up my mind to try again for a cure, and to my surprise I immediately got relief and four months later was a well man and have continued so for nearly two years, and so feel it my duty to recommend her to all suffering humanity everywhere. The doctor will do just as her advertisement signed. May God bless her efforts, signed Eld. J. C. Wright, 3309 B av. Kearney, Nebr.

N. B. Colter, of Clark, Neb., cured of catarrah contracted eighteen years before, cured with six months' treatment.

Mrs. D. H. Wilhelm, Norfolk, Neb., cured of female disease.

Mrs. John Wibel, Wolbach, Neb., cured after being treated by many other doctors.

Consult Dr. Caldwell while the opportunity is at hand. Dr. Caldwell will make her next visit, Friday, June 26th, at St. Elmo hotel.
