Mr. A. J. Moore of Pittsburg, Pa., was here Monday visiting his cousin, Mrs. T. A. Taylor, and family, on his way home from a sojourn on the Pacific Coast. Mr. Moore expressed himself as well pleased with Loup City and the valley, which he thought superb in looks and location.

More people are using Loup City flour now than ever has been in the past. Try a sack from your flour dealer next time, and if satisfied get a supply while old wheat is being ground. We always carry ground corn and all kinds of feed and solicit your business.

LOUP CITY MILL & LIGHT CO.

The smiling face of Geo. W. Marvel was seen on our streets last Saturday and Monday of this week. On the latter date he concluded a real estate deal, whereby he traded a section of land up on Davis Creek for a quarter section adjoining his farm between Loup City and Ashton.

George now owns a farm of one section all in one body of land. He will return to Greenwood in a few days.

W. A. Holder of Council Bluffs, Ia., who has been visiting his sister, Dr. Allen's mother, left Wednesday morning for his home. Mr. Holder could but marvel at the change that the western country has gone through since he crossed it in early days over the government trail with corn bought at Kansas City, Mo., at 25c per bushel and sold to the soldiers at Denver for 12 1/2c per pound.

Ed. Radcliffe has received the contract for the erection of a residence, barn and outbuildings on the farm of Otto Petersen, some six miles north of town and went out Monday morning with a force of men to begin operations.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Keeler and son, Earl, left Tuesday morning for Spokane, Washington, where they will visit with their daughters and sisters for an indefinite period. It is hoped Mr. Keeler's health will greatly improve during his stay in the west.

Grandma Smith, Judge Hunter's aged mother, is quite seriously ill. She is growing rapidly feebler and only a short time will elapse till she will be entirely dependent and unable to even move or partake of nourishment without assistance. She has nearly reached her 95th milestone.

A number of the young friends of John Janulewicz gave him a pleasant surprise last Friday evening.

Mrs. Victor Johnson came up from Aurora last Thursday for a visit with her parents and many friends.

Mrs. E. L. Patton left last Friday morning for a few days' visit at Grand Island and Broken Bow.

Mr. Meyers of Palmer visited over last Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Ira Timson, and family, north of town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Long and children left Tuesday morning for Lake Okoboji, to spend several weeks at the lake.

We are pleased to note that Supervisor Andrew Garska, who is ill with typhoid fever, is reported as improving.

Miss Merove and Master Raymond Outhouse visited at the Aufrecht home in Washington township a few days last week.

Grandma Beck is reported as growing feebler day by day, and partakes of scarcely any nourishment whatever. Her demise may be expected any day.

Prof. J. F. Nicolson went to Grand Island Tuesday morning to meet his wife and baby, who were on their way home from their visit to Colorado Springs, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Downs and the twins were down from Broken Bow over last Sunday visiting numerous friends, while Mr. Downs looked after business interests.

Miss Marie Schneider orders the Northwestern sent to her sisters, Misses Anna and Ella Schneider, at Long Grove, Iowa, where they will visit for some time.

E. G. Taylor went to Farwell Monday morning, taking Pete Rowe and Fritz Johansen along to work on his elevator there. Pete will put in a cement foundation for his portion.

Cash Conger and family were visiting relatives here over Sunday last, returning to Dannebrog Monday morning, where he has been placed as the regular agent of the Union Pacific.

C. F. Charlton, son of Bert Charlton, a recent graduate of the State University, and who has been here on business for the past two or three weeks, returned to Lincoln Monday morning.

C. W. Conhiser and H. B. Musser returned Saturday from their trip to Nevada. They report the country as showing good real estate outlook, but we understand they did not make investment.

Monday morning—There has been good rains all around us in the last two days, but the moisture has scrupulously avoided hitting the city, although coming within a mile or so on either side.

E. J. Delaney, in his Southern California home, re-orders the Northwestern to visit him the coming year. He still has the fondness for old associations and to know how matters plod along here.

There will be both morning and evening services at the Baptist church on Sunday, July 19th, at the regular hours. The ordinance of baptism will be administered at the close of the evening service. All are cordially invited.

The Locust orchard consisting of seventeen acres of the finest fruit land in the valley was yesterday sold by Charles Trisler to William Kettle of Ashton, Nebraska, the consideration being $12,000.—Grand Junction (Colo.) Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blaschke left for Dodge, this state, the first of the week to take charge of the hotel there which they have leased for a time. We wish them success. Of course the Northwestern will visit them regularly.

The remonstrance of the anti-saloon league against the issuance of a saloon license to M. C. Mulick last week before the town council, was decided by the city dads in favor of Mulick, and the anti-saloon league will take the matter to the district court.

Rev. Joseph James came up from St. Paul on Monday, where he had been spending a few days gathering the Baptists of that place together. He reports a good prospect for continuous work and will continue as pastor until the Association in September.

A. H. Mead, father of Mrs. W. T. Draper, who has been visiting old scenes herabouts, orders the Northwestern to keep him posted on Sherman county affairs in the future. Mr. Mead is highly pleased with his Colorado home and thinks nothing could induce him to return although he desires to keep in touch with his old home county.

The $22,000 Catholic church recently completed in this city was dedicated yesterday forenoon, and we are informed about eight thousand dollars the amount required to meet the debt, was pledged at that time. High mass and confirmation services were also held. Owing to the illness of Bishop Scannell of Omaha a bishop came all the way from Wyoming to perform the ceremonies, and also preached an excellent sermon in the English language.

Dannebrog suffered from a cloud-burst last Sunday afternoon, washing out some of the track between Boelus and Dannebrog, and the flood conditions prevailing at Dannebrog on account of the storm was very severe, the town being flooded to a depth of several feet. The motor, which was disabled and want to Grand Island for repairs Sunday morning was unable to return to Loup City till Monday morning, but got here in time to make its regular trip only an hour belated. This would indicate that the washout was not very severe. The property damage was quite serious, but no loss of life is reported.

We utterly refuse to relate the experiences of Dr. Longacre and a party composed of Judge Starr, Dr. Allen and others, the front end of the week on the river just below the city, especially the harrowing experiences of the good doctor in his endeavors to teach the others the difficult feat of walking on the water, etc.

As mentioned last week, the new Heesch saloon, operated last year by Cords & Grafe, started up last Friday morning, and the sigh of gratification of the thirsty patrons would have caused tears of sympathy from a granite monument. Just how long a time the establishment will remain open is a matter of conjecture and the probable action of the district court.

The regular annual meeting of the school board of this city occurred on Monday evening of this week. The new members of the board were sworn in and J. S. Pedler was elected director, S. N. Sweetland treasurer and Ward Ver Valin secretary. After transacting some routine business, the board took a recess to meet at the school house at 7 o'clock the following (Tuesday) evening.

Miss Emma Rowe, who teaches a class of girls in the Baptist Sunday school, is giving her girls an outing in the country. Last Tuesday they drove out to the home of Mrs. Herman Jung ten miles up the river where they will camp until Friday. There are thirteen girls in the party accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Joseph James and the pastor of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hale, Mrs. C. C. Outhouse and Miss Ella Taylor went down to Grand Island Wednesday morning to attend the marriage of Mr. LBanks Hale and Miss Carrie Gallup, which occurred at high noon on that day at the home of the bride's parents in that city. Miss Taylor playing the wedding march at the ceremony. The wedding party came to Loup City the same evening where a reception was held at the residence of the groom's parents, several hundred friends of the contracting parties being present. The spacious rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers and wedding bells, and the presents were many and beautiful. The best wishes of their many friends will go with them through life.

J. A. Failor is handling Ashley Conger's dray business.

Don't forget the recital by Miss Van DeCar next Tuesday on the A. B. Outhouse lawn.

Mrs. Jennie Rawson has almost recovered her recent illness and able to be up and around again.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Mathews of Webster township Tuesday afternoon.

H. A. Sleeth went to Lincoln Tuesday morning where he will be employed on the State Fair grounds for a season.

The Unity Club donated $10 to the Young Men's Athletic Association on Tuesday of this week. That was very kind of the ladies.

The hearing in the Elsner saloon case came off last evening and the city council granted a license. The case was appealed.

For Sale—A real estate mortgage, $1035.00 at 6 per cent, on SW 1/4-24-14-15, Sherman county. Inquire of J. J. King, Kearney, Neb.

Rev. A. H. Brink of Arcadia will fill the M. E. pulpit here next Sunday morning and evening and at Wiggle Creek at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Mrs. J. B. O'Bryan of Ord and Mrs. Rinker of St. Paul were here yesterday to attend the dedication ceremonies of the Catholic church.

Miss Maude Blackman returned from Sargent Tuesday morning and will visit for a few weeks at the home of her uncle, C. W. Conhiser.

In case of rain or cool weather, the elocutionist advertised in this paper will appear at the Methodist church instead of the home of A. B. Outhouse.

A postal card from Rev. J. O. Hawk at Jeffersonville, Ills., says, "Folks all well, but oh, how hot, dry and dusty. A real drouth is on. Crops all dried up."

Some thirty to forty people came down on the B. & M. Wednesday morning from Sargent and other points to attend the dedication ceremonies of our Catholic friends.

The union meetings of the Baptist and Presbyterian churches during the hot evenings will begin a week from Sunday evening at the Baptist church or on the lawn. Rev. McEwen will preach.

Ladies, if you want millinery, call at Mrs. Mead's former millinery rooms, where for the next ten days, Mrs. D. L. Adamson will dispose of the stock of goods at less than cost. Call early and secure first choice of this fine stock of goods.

Preaching by the pastor at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning. Sunday evening a "Flower Service and Festival" will be held, beginning at 8 o'clock. This promises to be something altogether unique and attractive in the way of church services and the public generally are invited to attend.

Judge Hunter and wife were sufferers Sunday with a slight attack of ptomaine poisoning from eating canned peaches. However, they only ate a little of the fruit, and the effect was correspondingly small, although the judge was quite seriously ill for several hours Sunday night and suffered more or less from the effects of the poisoning for two or three days.

Carsten Truesen came home Monday from his trip to Death, Nevada. He is well pleased with the country, which he believes has great possibilities. He says Will Zimmerman expected to start home about the 15th, but would stop at various points enroute. Mr. Truesen has purchased a cattle ranch in Elko county, 100 miles west of Salt Lake City, and will move to that country as soon as he disposes of his business interests here. Our people will regret the loss of Mr. Truesen and his estimable family, but will wish their unbounded prosperity in their new home.

Miss Mary Minshull and brothers, Charles and Will, entertained a number of friends at 7 o'clock dinner last Thursday evening. The guests were: Misses Elva and Beth Zimmerman, Jess Culley, Ernestine Odendahl, Henry Young, Maude Craven and Pearl Needham and Messrs. A. S. Allen, Robt. Mathew, Rex Jeffords. After a sumptuous dinner, stories and jokes were exchanged. The guests then withdrew to the parlor, and there were solos by the Misses Zimmerman, Culley and Needham; organ and cornet duet by Miss Odendahl and Chas. Minshull. The young people then departed for their homes thanking their host and hostess for the most enjoyable evening they had spent for some time.

Y. M. A. A. Notes.

Follow the merry crowd and use the shower bath. It was very well patronized last Saturday. All members are given the use of the bath free of charge, but have to pay five cents for the use of a towel. We are not advertising this as a public bath, but will admit any one at a regular charge of twenty-five cents.

Next Tuesday, July 21, Miss Cora B. VanDecar will give a recital for the benefit of this Association. Miss VanDecar is a graduate of the Department of Elocution of York College and comes well recommended. Music will be furnished by local talent. The program will begin at 8 o'clock, seats being provided on the lawn at the residence of A. B. Outhouse. No one can have any excuse for not attending this as there will be no hot building to stay in and the proceeds will go for a good cause. Get your tickets of anyone selling them. Admission, 15 and 25 cents.

Roy Boone has resigned his position as librarian to take another place in the country. Delmar Draper is back again, for a while at least. If the service at the library is not quite what it should be, we ask that you be satisfied for a while until we can get it in better shape.

By next week we expect to have the wrestling mats in good order. They will be quite large, (5x10), and arranged so that a mat ten feet square can be made. We hope that by this time next year the Loup City Y. M. A. A. will have the champion wrestler of the world. You can arouse the interest in the gymnasium by taking a little interest in it yourself.

If you are thinking of joining, ask any of the officers to show you what we have in the way of gymnasium appliances. We are glad to show you everything and do not object to any one joining. The shower bath will more than pay you for the small membership fee charged.
