GUARANTEE

STATE OF NEBRASKA, } ss.
Hall County.

Dr. Rich, being first duly sworn, deposes and says, that the illustration below is a true representation of the $3.00 catarrh outfit for catarrh of the head, nose and throat, herein advertised, and that any one ordering same and finding it not satisfactory may have his money returned upon demand.

DR. RICH.

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 25th day of February, 1908.
JOHN ALLAN, Notary Public.

My Commission expires Jan. 5, 1912.

Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drug Act of June 30, 1906. Serial Number No. 18752. The above outfits contain no Morphine, Opium, Cocaine, Heroin, Eucaine, Chloroform, Cannabis Indica, Chloral Hydrate, Acetanilide, or any of their derivatives.

Dr. Rich, the well known Grand Island Specialist, has arranged a system of Home Treatment for Catarrh of the various organs of the body, and is now prepared to supply to any sufferer from this prevalent disease a course of remedies that will be found to be not only satisfactory in every respect, but at a price certainly reasonable, and within the reach of everybody. During the five years Dr. Rich has been in Grand Island he has carefully avoided the treatment of Catarrhal conditions of the body, not being prepared to take up a work requiring time from his already extensive office business. During the past year, however, Dr. Rich has perfected a method which he offers below, for treating Catarrh in the home, and feels not only assured of excellent results, but that he will make many new friends, which will assist in increasing his already large practice. A photograph below shows one of the $3.00 outfits, and should give a perfect idea of the value offered. Dr. Rich's treatment for Catarrh is a Home Treatment in every sense, and can be used without detention from business. A full month's treatment of these remedies will be sent for $3.00. You may order as often as you like at the same price, or have the treatment sent to your friends. As there will be a large demand from the many people familiar with Dr. Rich's reputation as a Skillful Specialist, you are kindly requested to order early and avoid delay.

ABANDON THEIR OLD CUSTOM

Peruvian Women Replace Sombre Headgear with Colors.

As the visitors from the American fleet went about in Lima, one change, national in character, impressed itself upon them immediately. Every writer on Peru has commented on the fact that the headdress of the women, worn universally, is the black manta. It is said that it is a relic that has come down from the Incas when they put on mourning for their great chief Atahualpa. Rich and poor have worn that headdress on the street for centuries. It was an established institution. Well, it is going. About one-half of the women, some of them in good circumstances evidently, wore mantas on the streets, but as for the rest—well, a man has no business to write about women's hats. All that this man can say is that he never saw more dazzling specimens of flower gardens than those bobbing around over the graceful drapery with which the Peruvian women adorn themselves.

Thus does fashion war successfully upon established custom. The Peruvian woman loves a beautiful hat just as much as any other woman on earth. Moreover, what is said about her surpassing beauty is true. Given great beauty and the love of a hat on the part of a woman—what chance has a black manta got? The manta has got to go and is going. Truly this is a world of change and there are those who will say it is one of decay, but let no one breathe that in a fashionable millinery shop in Lima.

Aphorism from Stevenson.

A wet rag goes safely by the fire; and if a man is blind he cannot expect to be much impressed by romantic scenery.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Atonement

"Sister Shufflem," says the deacon's wife, "I am pained to hear that your husband played poker the other night and won a sum of money, and that you encouraged him in his wickedness by accepting his winnings from him. I have called to speak to you about it, and to reason with you as to—"

"Wait a minute, Sister Canty," interrupts Mrs. Shufflem. "It is true that John Henry went and played poker and won $20.40, and that I took the money he won, but I did it to teach him a lesson. I wouldn't allow a husband of mine to keep such ill-gotten gains. And I have spent the money for prizes for the bridge party I am going to give this week. You'll be here, won't you?" "Indeed I shall, of course. I'm glad, Sister Shufflem, that you have taught your husband such a valuable lesson."—Judge.

THE PRESS, PULPIT AND PUBLIC

What is Going on Here and There That is of Interest to the Readers Throughout Nebraska.

A Masonic lodge has been established at Franklin.

The Hastings chautauqua was a success financially and otherwise.

The peach crop in Pawnee county surpasses all expectations and the quality is excellent.

State Superintendent McBrien says he knows of no school houses in Nebraska that have been abandoned because of want of teachers.

The one-year-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Platt of Tecumseh fell from a second story window but was not severely hurt.

Rev. Sturdevant of the Baptist church at Tecumseh desires to go to another field and asks that his resignation be accepted.

York will soon have an $80,000 post-office building that will be strictly up to date and one of the latest and most beautiful modern structures of its kind in the west.

Nearly 1,500 people attended the third day's session of the Wayne chautauqua, held at the Assembly grounds. Gov. Hanley of Indiana was the principal speaker.

While Thos. Bower, jr., living near Ainsworth, was hauling hay the wind blew a barn door shut and caught Bower's head. Two pieces of his skull were taken out above the left eye at the hospital. He may not live.

The York County Telephone company, one of the largest independent companies in the west, has purchased the copper trunk independent toll lines between Columbus, Seward and Grand Island, and is going to build to Ravenna, Neb., and other points.

While raking hay George Funk, a well known young farmer living northwest of York, was thrown from the rake and one of the steel rake teeth entered the left leg, tearing the tendons and causing a fracture of the bone.

Deputy Game Warden Hunger ran up against an experience out in Loup county which nettled the state two fines, where only one had been contemplated. It was a case where the complaining witness after sticking the defendant, became the defendant in the same case, and also got stuck.

Passenger train No. 15, west-bound, picked up, between Dawson and Salem, a stranger lying alongside the tracks with his legs cut off. The man was of middle age and evidently a tramp, who, it is thought, fell from a passing freight on which he was stealing a ride and was injured by the wheels of the train.

Western Douglas county farmers have at last arrived at the conclusion that the only way to successfully combat and correct the existing bad conditions is by an efficient drainage system, and to this end they are preparing to organize themselves into drainage districts.

Rev. Emanuel Hartig, who has been pastor of the St. Benedict Catholic church of Nebraska City since 1861, has been sent to Atchison, where he will enter the St. Benedictine home. He has become quite feeble and had to be replaced by another priest.

C. C. Jones of Beatrice has recovered his two greyhounds which were stolen from the kennel. The dogs were found with a farmer near Pickrell and arrests are liable to follow.

James Brott, an old resident of Beatrice, was arrested by Sheriff Trude on the charge of bootlegging.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shively and Edward Fussell, victims of the tornado in Fillmore county in June, are all able to be out, although Mrs. Shively is lame, and her husband's face is still bandaged. As soon as they are able, they will go east to have his nose treated. Mr. Shively's watch, which was in his pocket, was badly dented and the fob was gone.

F. M. Hall of Lincoln has accepted the invitation to be chairman of a committee to select an artist to make the Abraham Lincoln monument to be erected on the statehouse grounds by popular subscription. Mr. Hall was selected because of the great experience he has had in matters of this kind and because of his knowledge of artists and their work.

There is great activity at all the stone quarries and sandpits along the Platte river between Ashland and Plattsmouth. Full forces of men are at work at all of the Louisville and South Bend quarries and many carloads of crushed stone are being shipped daily. The Burlington sand dredges have been at work constantly since the high water receded along the Platte.

The contract for the new Odd Fellows' hall at Harrison has been let and the work will begin at once.

A fire broke out at Winside, but the firemen got control before much damage was done.

Jack Hanley, the Cornland hotel night clerk at Lexington, who escaped with the funds from the safe of the hotel, was captured in Cozad.

Complaints have been filed under the state pure food law against six Lincoln druggists for the alleged sale of headache powders, containing acetanilide and not branded as the law requires.

While returning from Rosebud agency, Dave George, who carries the mail between Valentine and that place, had his leg broken in a runaway. He was about ten miles out from Rosebud when the accident occurred. It was caused by the single tree breaking.

The Northwestern and Burlington railroads have filed a joint petition in federal court asking for an injunction against the state railway commission to prevent the enforcement of an order directing the construction of a transfer switch at York.

The Fullerton chautauqua opens August 7 and will last ten days.
