Order the treatment you need. Write me a personal letter if you wish. I will read your letter and reply to it myself, telling you just what to do. When you receive the outfit you order, if you do not think it is the greatest value you ever received for $3.00 send it back at my expense and I will return your money.

GUARANTEE

STATE OF NEBRASKA, } ss.
Hall County.

Dr. Rich, being first duly sworn, deposes and says, that the illustration below is a true representation of the $3.00 catarrh outfit for catarrh of the head, nose and throat, herein advertised, and that any one ordering same and finding it not satisfactory may have his money returned upon demand.

DR. RICH.
Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 25th day of February, 1908.
JOHN ALLAN, Notary Public.
My Commission expires Jan. 5, 1912.

Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drug Act of June 30, 1906. Serial Number No. 18752. The above outfits contain no Morphine, Opium, Cocaine, Heroin, Eucaine, Chloroform, Cannabis Indica, Chloral Hydrate, Acetanilide, or any of their derivatives.

Dr. Rich, the well known Grand Island Specialist, has arranged a system of Home Treatment for Catarrh of the various organs of the body, and is now prepared to supply to any sufferer from this prevalent disease a course of remedies that will be found to be not only satisfactory in every respect, but at a price certainly reasonable, and within the reach of everybody. During the five years Dr. Rich has been in Grand Island he has carefully avoided the treatment of Catarrhal conditions of the body, not being prepared to take up a work requiring time from his already extensive office business. During the past year, however, Dr. Rich has perfected a method which he offers below, for treating Catarrh in the home, and feels not only assured of excellent results, but that he will make many new friends, which will assist in increasing his already large practice. A photograph below shows one of the $3.00 outfits, and should give a perfect idea of the value offered. Dr. Rich's treatment for Catarrh is a Home Treatment in every sense, and can be used without detention from business. A full month's treatment of these remedies will be sent for $3.00. You may order as often as you like at the same price, or have the treatment sent to your friends. As there will be a large demand from the many people familiar with Dr. Rich's reputation as a Skillful Specialist, you are kindly requested to order early and avoid delay.

STATE NEWS AND NOTES IN CONDENSED FORM.

THE PRESS, PULPIT AND PUBLIC

What is Going on Here and There That is of Interest to the Readers Throughout Nebraska.

The Otoe County Teachers' Institute had an attendance of 160.

Senator Brown has announced a number of speaking dates for August. When a saloon in Nebraska City was attached for debt it was found the proprietor had removed most of the goods.

Sophie, the eight-year-old daughter of L. P. Hansen, west of Farwell was shot and instantly killed by a bullet of four years. The shooting was purely accidental.

M. L. Richardson, an old soldier, resident of Hay Springs, was literally cut to pieces by falling in front of a self-binder while harvesting wheat. He is not expected to live.

C. G. Baker, appointed as special appraiser for estates from which inheritance tax is collectable, has filed his reports on several estates in the county court of Gage county.

Johnson Tetten who tried to kill his wife by shooting her some days ago and since that time has been in the county jail of Otoe county, has been bailed out by his relatives, five of them giving a $5,000 bond.

The 16-year-old son of Charles Landroff, a farmer living fifteen miles southwest of Broken Bow, lost his life by being dragged to death by a horse. As he fell from the animal his foot caught in the stirrup. He was dragged half a mile, being horribly mangled.

The York Independent Telephone company has purchased all the copper toll lines between Seward and Grand Island and Seward and David City and is now constructing a toll line from Grand Island to Ravenna, connecting with the Broken Bow company.

Mary Broeking, the 21-year-old daughter of Henry Broeking, a wealthy farmer, was driving a team to Lorton, Otoe county, and tried to cross the tracks ahead of a local Missouri Pacific freight train. The vehicle was struck and she was thrown twenty feet. Her neck was broken, the vehicle destroyed and the horses killed.

Frank Hooper, a young man who claimed to have been employed at the farm home of J. H. Losen, near Hastings for several days, succeeded in cashing a check for a little over seventeen dollars at Picken's store, but before he had made his escape he was taken into custody.

Whin Campbell Bros. circus was showing in Alliance three lion cubs were born, one of which was a rare curiosity, in the fact that it was almost pure white. This makes this end of their menagerie similar to the show itself, inasmuch as it is strictly a Nebraska production.

An Old Settlers' association has been organized at Ashton and will hold a reunion September 22 and 23. The following officers were elected: President, Theodore Ojendyk; secretary, Thomas Jaenroj; vice president, S. Golczinski and I. Sondburg; treasurer, H. Smelser.

The old settlers' association of Cherry and Keya Paha counties will hold their sixteenth annual reunion at Sparks on August 28 and 29. The program of races and sports, including a big baseball game, is larger than usual, and there will be speaking and music also, as well as a big bowery dance in the evening.

Sioux Falls (S. D.) dispatch: While traveling through the country in a covered wagon in the hope that open-air life would restore his broken health, George Johnson of Yutan, Saunders county, Neb., died in his wagon while it was at a point about a mile and a quarter from the town of White Lake, Aurora county, in the central part of the state. He was a victim of consumption.

Edward Lundsford was arrested at St. Deroin and taken to Syracuse, where he was arraigned on the charge of wife desertion. He waived examination and was bound over to the district court. The couple were 16 and 18 years of age, respectively, when they were married about two years ago.

Kingston (N. Y.) dispatch: The marriage in this city Monday night of George Faulkner, 62 years old, and Mrs. Sarah E. Seymour, 61 years old, both of Schuyler, Neb., was the culmination of a romance begun in Ulster county more than forty years ago. Faulkner was a native of Kingston and Mrs. Seymour was a native of Saugerties, twelve miles from here. They became engaged in their youth, but a lovers' quarrel separated them and each one married some one else. Both lost their partners by death and were of course privileged to marry again.

But few people realize the enormous amount of improvements that are being effected at the state fair grounds at the capital city this year in view of the annual state fair to be held during the last week of this month. An immense new cattle barn is being built, located just west of the administration building, and erected at a cost of $30,000.

Dr. G. T. Irons, chief inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry at Nebraska City, leaves Monday for London, England, to visit his old home and with his mother. Dr. Kane will be in charge during his absence.

A prairie fire started by a Burlington engine traversed a section east of Oxford and destroyed many tons of hay for A. Walter. Four large stacks of oats, belonging to O. Schienseuer were also consumed.

Ed. Wood of Mankato, Kas., was drowned at Superior while in swimming. He was taken with cramps. His body was recovered.

Tom McCauley, a farmer living near Goehner, was painfully injured. A bottle of nitric acid which he had purchased, broke and seriously burned him. Neighbors assisted in relieving him.

"Boston's Stump."

"Boston's stump" is the local name of the tower of the parish church of St. Botolph, in Boston, England, which was damaged by lightning not long ago. The church dates from the fourteenth century, and its tower, 272 feet high, is the tallest but one among the parish churches of England. It has 305 steps, one for each day of the year, and the church has seven doors, 52 windows and 12 pillars, for the days in the week and the weeks and months in the year. For the 24 hours in the day there are 24 steps in the porch by which the library is reached. Two flights of 60 steps lead to the roof, one for the seconds, the other for the minutes; and the tower is in four stories, for the four seasons. Thus does time stand still in Boston.—Springfield Republican.

National Dish of Brazil. "After existing in South American countries for the last eight months it's good to get back to town where one can get something to eat," said Mr. R. G. Breeden, a San Francisco mining engineer. "Most of the time I've been in the south was spent in Brazil. In that country the national dish is jerked beef and black beans, and one sees nothing else. Nowhere in South America, except Buenos Ayres, can a stranger from the United States get a meal that will tickle his palate. The South Americans surely don't know the rudiments of cooking. Every dish they bring you is something in grease and garlic and so dosed with pepper as to nearly strangle you." Couldn't See It. "Poor man!" said the kind lady. "How did you go blind?" "Well, mum," answered Tired Treadwell, "de foist time dat I noticed it was when I was out lookin' fer work."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Why He Kicked

"Some people are chronic kickers," growled the hotel clerk, "and it's no use trying to satisfy them." "What's the trouble now?" queried the reporter. "You saw that solemn-looking chap making a get-away as you came in?" rejoined the man behind the ten-carat sparkler. "Well, he registered about half an hour ago and was shown to his room. Now what do you suppose happened?" "I pass," said the pencil pusher. "A few minutes later," continued the key juggler, "he rushed back to the office, mad as a March hare, and jumped all over me, figuratively speaking. It seems that he had come here for the purpose of doing the suicide act, and I assigned him to a room lighted by electricity."

"You're not," was the juvenile's comment.
