STATE OF NEBRASKA, } ss.
Hall County.

Dr. Rich, being first duly sworn, deposes and says, that the illustration below is a true representation of the $3.00 catarrh outfit for catarrh of the head, nose and throat, herein advertised, and that any one ordering same and finding it not satisfactory may have his money returned upon demand.

DR. RICH.

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 25th day of February, 1908. JOHN ALLAN, Notary Public.

My Commission expires Jan. 5, 1912.

Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drug Act of June 30, 1906. Serial Number No. 18752. The above outfits contain no Morphine, Opium, Cocaine, Heroin, Eucaine, Chloroform, Cannabis Indica, Chloral Hydrate, Acetanilide, or any of their derivatives.

Dr. Rich, the well known Grand Island Specialist, has arranged a system of Home Treatment for Catarrh of the various organs of the body, and is now prepared to supply to any sufferer from this prevalent disease a course of remedies that will be found to be not only satisfactory in every respect, but at a price certainly reasonable, and within the reach of everybody. During the five years Dr. Rich has been in Grand Island he has carefully avoided the treatment of Catarrhal conditions of the body, not being prepared to take up a work requiring time from his already extensive office business. During the past year, however, Dr. Rich has perfected a method which he offers below, for treating Catarrh in the home, and feels not only assured of excellent results, but that he will make many new friends, which will assist in increasing his already large practice. A photograph below shows one of the $3.00 outfits, and should give a perfect idea of the value offered. Dr. Rich's treatment for Catarrh is a Home Treatment in every sense, and can be used without detention from business. A full month's treatment of these remedies will be sent for $3.00. You may order as often as you like at the same price, or have the treatment sent to your friends. As there will be a large demand from the many people familiar with Dr. Rich's reputation as a Skillful Specialist, you are kindly requested to order early and avoid delay.

The initial meeting of the Nebraska Travelers' association, an organization that is the outgrowth of the South Platte Hustlers' association, will be held in Prospect park, Hastings, September 18 and 19. The Travelers' association is purely a fraternal order and has no insurance feature.

Lon Tuttle of Palmer has perfected a machine for cutting the grass along unballasted railroad tracks, which has been tried with the greatest success by the B. & M. It is built similar to a mowing machine with a five foot sickle, and the wheels and axles were taken from a handcar. One horse draws it with ease, and it does the work of many men.

The main program of the State Teachers' association meetings at Lincoln, November 4, 5 and 6, is nearly complete. Wednesday, November 4, will be taken up with the exercises of the superintendents' and principals' association, which is a part of the main association. These exercises will be unusually varied and interesting this year.

In order that his funeral may not be too elaborate and unnecessary expense involved, D. S. Gardner, a farmer living near Arcifer, has purchased his coffin. The cost of the casket which he selected and ordered reserved for him is $50. He explains that he did not care to go above this amount, because he wished his sons to have as large an inheritance as possible, and did not care to have money wasted on an expensive funeral.

The Wahoo Chautauqua closed with Capt. Hobson as its drawing card. The Farmers' elevator at Benedict is one of the successful and prosperous farmers' elevators in Nebraska which has been doing a most profitable business for several years. Its success is due principally to the fact that the farmers and stock holders are in earnest and are assisting the officers to make it successful. The farmers have had a great deal to contend with as elevator after elevator owned by trusts and large corporations have purchased houses at Benedict, but there is no dissension among the farmers.

Ferdinand Martin, a well known and prosperous farmer living four miles northeast of Elkhorn committed suicide by blowing the top of his head off with a shotgun. He had been in poor health for some time and it is believed he took his life in a fit of despondency over his condition.

The body of Jay Webster of Tekamah, who was drowned in the Missouri river, was found almost east of that place about seven miles below where the accident occurred. The body was caught in a log which proceeded in the river and was almost buried with rubbish.

AN UNKNOWN PEOPLE.

Strange Race Which Inhabits Country South of Thibet.

In spite of the activity of explorers for many centuries past, there are still portions of the globe that are very little known to the outside world. A country called Ta-Lang-Chang, just south of Thibet, had never until a little over a year ago been penetrated by a white man. Recently Capt. D'Ollone, a prominent French traveler, has returned to Paris after a visit to the hitherto almost unknown land. Its inhabitants are called Lolos, and so far as historical records go, they have always been independent. Efforts to subdue them have often been made by the Chinese, but the troops of the latter have invariably been defeated and many of them captured and made slaves. The Lolos are good fighters, but in maintaining their independence they have been highly favored by the nature of the country. Ta-Lang-Chang is said to be the world's largest natural fortress. It is bounded on the north by a river which cannot be forded, on the south, west and east by lofty mountains, with very few passes.

Capt. D'Ollone regards the Lolos as much superior to the Thibetans in civilization. He says that they are the only half-civilized people that he has ever met who have a scientific system of hygiene, and a system of ethics much like that set forth in the Sermon on the Mount. The Lolos live in well-ventilated houses and make a great point of bodily cleanliness. They are brave, polite, true to their promises, and kind and respectful to foreigners whom they like. The origin of the Lolos is unexplained, but there is evidence of Chinese blood among them. Their features are regular and almost Grecian in type.—Leslie's Weekly.

Not Like a Hen. "The female codfish," remarked the boarder who had been gleaning statistics from between the covers of a patent medicine almanac, "lays more than a million eggs. Now, what do you think of that?" "I think," rejoined the Cheerful Idiot, "that it's a mighty lucky thing for the codfish that she doesn't have to cackle over every egg."
