For State Senator.

The undersigned respectfully offers his name to the Republican voters of the Sixteenth Senatorial District and asks the favor of their votes for the nomination as their candidate for the State Senatorship. C. A. CLARK. Dated Ravenna, Neb. June 29, 1908.

Dated Ravenna, Neb.. June 29, 1908.

The undersigned respectfully announces to the legal voters of Buffalo and Sherman counties that he has filed his written application with the Secretary of State requesting that his name be placed upon the official primary ballot at the primary election to be held in said counties on September 1, 1908, as a candidate of the Republican party for the office of Senator of the Sixteenth Senatorial District of Nebraska, and he hereby appeals to the republican voters in said district for their support and especially calls upon his many personal friends in both of said counties to use all honorable means to secure his nomination for said office.

Dated this 27th day of July, 1908.

ARMINIUS P. CULLEY. of Loup City. Nebraska.

For Representative

To the Republican voters of Sherman county:
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the Republican nomination as Representative for the 57th district, consisting of Sherman county, and respectfully ask your support at the primary election held Sept. 1, 1908. My principles are the protecting of the personal libertues of the people and shall, if nominated and elected, oppose the so-called county option
bill. Respectfully, THEO. OJENDYK.

I hereby announce my candidacy for the of fice of Representative for this 57th district, subject to the will of the voters of Sherman county at the Republican primaries on Sept. 1st. 1908, and most respectfully solicit their support.

CARLE T. MCKINNIE.

To many of our readers, Hon. E. D. Gould of Kearney, needs no introductlon, having been largely interested in grain and stock business for over twenty-five years, and in that time had dealings with many men in Buffalo and Sherman counties. He is interested at many points in Buffalo

Aready great progress has been made in this respect, for which I feel entitled to a portion of the credit.

In the revision of the tariff, I shall strive for provisions calculated to promote the best prices for farm products including live stock. Secretary of State Root will certify to my efforts with the State Department commencing more than two years ago in benalf of the extension of the sale of American meats in foreign countries, especially in Germany. The provisions of a bill I introduced during the recent session to place lumber and barbed wire upon the free list, if not previously enacted into law, 1 shall urge for adoption with the general revision to be made at the commencement of the next Congress. In revising the tariff, care must be taken that the higher standard of wages and living of labor in this than in foreign countries be fully preserved. No interest appeals to me more strongly that that of Nebraska homesteaders and it is my purpose to do the most practicable for them during the remaining session of my present term, which commences the first Monday in December next, and if re-elected, to continue vigilant in their behalf.
