Good Word for Mr. Williams.

Ira E. Williams and family of Beemer removed to Loup City, Sherman county, on Monday. Their car of goods was taken there by Carl, the oldest son. Mr. Williams went to that place on Monday, while the wife and children remained a few days at Fremont.
We are sorry to see this estimable family leave our county. For the past fourteen years they have been instrumental in the upbuilding of the business, social and religious affairs of Beemer and vicinity. We wish them unmeasured success and true friends in their new location, but hope they will retain somewhat their unparadiseable pride in Beemer's welfare and remember their old friends when they meet with the new.
Mr. Williams sold his interests at Beemer, invested in the First National Bank at Loup City and has taken the cashiership of same. He would not have gone to that place were it not a good and substantial one. He has had years of experience in book-keeping and banking and knows the ground thoroughly.
He took charge of the Beemer State bank in February, 1894, a time when money stringency at the Beemer branch of the bank at the lowest mark. He found the deposits $18,000 and left them at $118,000. When he terminated his services at the Beemer bank, not a hundred dollars of bad loans could be found. He personally guaranteed to his successor that all the assets of the bank were in the approval of the board of directors and if any did not he would take them himself. Three months have passed and none have thus far been returned to him. His strict integrity and conservative business methods gave the bank a safe and sound standing among business men.
Prior to his banking experience, he was for six years head bookkeeper and traveling auditor for the Fuller & Fuller company, and lived at Scribner. Previous to that he was secretary for some years of the Glenwood Canning company of Iowa. In all his positions he met uniformly the high esteem of his employers and as the head of the Beemer bank he was tendered the hearty approval of the stockholders and directors for his honesty and success. His record is one that any man might well feel proud of.—Cuming County Democrat.

R. P. Starr and wife made a trip to Ord yesterday returning today.

A baby boy was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Carry on Wiggle Creek.

Dr. W. L. Marcy went to Hastings Tuesday to attend a meeting of the state dental association.

Sheriff Williams went to Schappus Wednesday morning and arrested one, Anton Kosliski, on a complaint of keeping and selling liquors at that place contrary to law. A hearing was had before County Judge Peder in the afternoon, when accused waived preliminary examination and was bound over to the district court in the sum of $500. The complaint was sworn out by Judge Aaron Wall, R. J. Nightingale has been retained by the accused man.

Our own Boyd Burrowes and his merry company of players opened up a two nights' season of entertainments last evening with the fine play, "The Californian," in their tent west of the Keystone lumber yard and gave one of the best plays ever given in the city, as our people who attended aver. Tonight they give "The False Step," another of their excellent repertoire, and you will make no mistake in going to see it. The people of Loup City take a pardonable pride in Boyd Burrowes, whom they claim as one of their own favorites in the theatrical line, and he and his company always secure fine representation of our best people whenever they appear in our city. Go and hear them tonight.

Banker Williams last week purchased the fine residence property of C. C. Cooper and will move therein the first of next week. Mr. Cooper is this week moving into the new building house in the southeast part of town. Mr. Williams' two sons and two daughters arrived last Friday with the household goods ready to take possession of their new property. Mrs. Williams, soon after the arrival of Mr. Williams here, and while stopping with her daughter at Fremont, was taken ill with a severe nervous trouble and at present is doing nicely at the hospital to which she was removed, and will be able to come to Loup City by the time the family is settled in their new home. Of course Banker Williams is a new reader of the Northwestern.

August Reiman is on the sick list. Mrs. Judge Hunter who has been quite seriously ill is better.

Dan DeWitt is moving into the house vacated by the editor.

The ladies of the Industrial Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Foster next Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. John M. Taylor and daughter, Miss Ruth Taylor, left for Omaha this morning to visit their daughter and sister, Mrs. Dr. Lyman.
