Dr. Marcy has recently received a new device in the way of dental machinery which does away with the old way of filling teeth. It is called an inlay machine and prepares gold and all fillings for the teeth perfectly for insertion. The doctor is busy from morn till night these days and is doing fine work. By the way, he not only pulls teeth without pain to the dentist, but absolutely without pain to the patient, by a system of his own and demonstrates this daily. We know whereof we speak.

Why not own a reliable watch?
 A timepiece which cannot be depended upon to show accurate time, which has to be pulled back or jogged ahead every day in order to have the correct time, isn't worth trying to a fish line for a sinker. Every movement and case we sell has our personal as well as the manufacturer's guarantee. Our low prices bring them in easy reach of the weakest pocketbook. No trouble to show you.

BEATRICE NIGHTINGALE.

Mrs. Peter Larsen and two children of Hampton visited over last Sunday with Wm. Larsen and family.

H. L. Bell remembered the Northwestern financially last Friday, while in town on business. Thanks.

R. L. Arthur and M. C. Mulick drove up to O'Neill last Sunday to get chances in the Tripp land deal.

Mrs. D. L. Adams returned from Council Bluffs last Thursday, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Taylor, and infant son.

S. A. Pratt was among those who remembered the editor's creditors last week. Of course, that is the only use a newspaper has for money.

W. P. and P. O. Reed, Louis Spahr and W. H. Creery returned home last Saturday evening from their hunting trip and pilgrimage to O'Neill to register for a slice of the Tripp county stuff.

Two Bryan men in Loup City the other evening wanted to back up their belief with $25 that Bryan would carry Nebraska, and had no difficulty in finding a Taft man who quickly accommodated them.

Attorney R. J. Nightingale will go to Lincoln, Saturday, where he will visit over Sunday with his son, Herbert, and appear before the supreme court the first of the week in the Griswold-Szwaneke case.

Uncle Billy Owens from his trip to Kansas feels sure of that state for Taft. He found the sentiment in that state strong enough that way to suit the most ardent republican. At Kansas City he found a traveling man who was willing to wager even money that Missouri would give a fair majority for the Taft electors.

While riding a horse in front of the residence last Thursday evening, Myrl, the 14-year-old son of Treasurer Hildeson had his right leg broken below the knee by the horse slipping on the cement walk and falling with the boy underneath him. It was a bad accident which will lay him up for repairs for two or three months.

Postmaster Owens was called to Strong, Kas., last week Monday by the sudden death of his only sister's husband, Mr. Goudie, aged 80 years. A couple of weeks previous, Mr. and Mrs. Goudie lost a daughter by sudden death, from which shock the aged father never recovered and coupled with his advanced age caused his demise as foretold. Mr. Owens returned home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Keeler and son, Earl, arrived home from the Pacific Coast country last Friday evening. We regret to state that the protracted visit to the coast has proved as beneficial to Mr. Keeler's failing health as was desired and his condition remains practically the same. It is to be hoped that he will mend rapidly on his return home. Miss Pearl Keeler will also return to Loup City some time in November, we are pleased to note, where she will probably remain.

G. W. Collipriest and Dr. Allen returned Monday night from Dallas, S. D., where they went last Friday to register for Tripp county land. Mr. Collipriest says everything was as quiet when he was there as any ordinary town and that he did not see one drunken man and that what gambling was going on was confined to the saloons and conducted in a most quiet and orderly manner. From his experience, the wierd stories of frontier times at that town are "pipe" dreams. Dallas is a little town of perhaps 500 people, but the rush will leave the village with at least a thousand permanent inhabitants. He says he was well over the land to be given out and is fine. He is of the opinion that those who register will have about one chance in 30 of winning out, according to the number who will register and the 5000 acres to be drawn.

Miss Emma Prather, a sister of Mrs. A. B. Outhouse, who has been visiting in southern California, arrived here last evening for a short visit on her way to her home at Carlyle, Ill.

A marriage license was granted this morning to John D. McDonald of Sargent and Mrs. Lou Jessup of Three Oaks, Mich., the couple to be married today by one of our local ministers, but too late to note before going to press.

W. R. Mellor, accompanied by two nieces, Misses Grace and Alice Martz of Michigan City, Ind., were here Tuesday for a short visit, returning to Lincoln Wednesday. The Misses Martz being called home by the sudden death of a relative at home.

A fine cement walk east from the Methodist church to the residence of T. L. Pilger, has just been finished, adding much to the convenience of the two stalwart republican and two populist lot owners who put it in, and pride to our city of splendid sidewalks.

That car load of elegant Stroughton wagons just received by T. M. Reed look to us as though they would hold their own in any of the ordinary farm wagons with side boards. With our mammoth corn crop, one of these wagons is just what each farmer should have to enable him to keep up with the times.

C. W. Lent bought James Mooney's residence property one block north of the Vindicator office the first of the week, possession to be given Nov. 1st. It is Mr. Mooney's intention to move to Loup City, Neb. We shall regret to have Mr. and Mrs. Mooney leave Tingley, but we wish them well.—Tingley (Ja.) Vindicator.

Loup City vs. Ravenna.

The foot ball game last Saturday between Loup City and Ravenna high schools was the best ever played in this section of the state. The Loup City team especially played well. This team has just been organized, has had only four workouts with a coach and this was their first and only game. The Ravenna team played last year, have had regular work for a month, are well equipped with padded suits and head protectors and had the advantage of an average ten to fifteen pounds extra weight, yet the Loup City team held them down to a remarkably low score of 11 to 0, all made in the first half. In the second half the Loup City team was on the aggressive from the start and by steady line drives were advancing toward the Ravenna goal when by some mistake of the officials the ball was given to the opposing team, depriving them of a good chance to score. Ravenna made several attempts through end runs and center rushes to regain the lost ground but losing territory in each attempt they finally punted far into Loup City territory and then making an end run succeeded in landing the ball within a few inches of the goal line just at the call of time. Here another touchdown was claimed but it was vigorously disputed by Loup City, first because the ball was not over the line and because during the last series of plays the ball rightfully belonged to Loup City. If the mistake of changing the ball had not been made the score would probably have been 11 to 5 or 6. The home team deserve our heartiest congratulations on their brilliant first game. The line-up for Loup City was Edw. Thrasher, center; Ernest McEwen, left guard; Milton Tracy, left tackle; Hemple Jones, left end; Chas. Wharton, right guard; Clark Whitaker, right tackle; Cash Pritchard, right end; Roy Boone, quarterback; Claude Burt, left half; Henry Messer, right half; Walter Callahan, full back. The Ravenna team will be played at Ravenna Nov. 21.

Lawrence L. Briggs.

Last Friday afternoon occurred the funeral of Lawrence Briggs from the home of his wife, Mrs. C. J. Tracy, the body arriving from Sterling, Neb., the evening previous for burial in Evergreen cemetery where an infant brother lies. The body was accompanied here by the father, mother two brothers and sisters. The services were conducted by Rev. Hawk of the E. church. Lawrence L. Briggs was born in 1892 and died Oct. 5, 1908, aged 16 years and 8 months. He was the second son of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Briggs, of Crane, Mo., but formerly residents of this city. Three years ago he graduated with class honors from the 8th grade at the Hastings, Neb., high school. The following two years he spent in the high schools of Carthage and Springfield, Mo. At the time of his death, a student from typhoid fever, he was a result of railroad, to help pay his way through future schooling, and was employed as a brakeman between Holdrege, Neb., and Sterling, Colo. He was a young man of exemplary habits and ambitious to reach high educational planes, but the hand of the demon death, who is a leveler of all things mortal, broke the slender, brittle thread of life, yet we may not know, and leaves father, mother, sisters and brothers, besides many relatives and friends to mourn his untimely demise. The Northwestern is requested to return thanks to the kind friends of the family and assistants in the most trying moments of life's fitful course ending in the last sad rites to the one they so loved.
