GUARANTEE

STATE OF NEBRASKA, } ss.
Hall County.

Dr. Rich, being first duly sworn, deposes and says, that the illustration below is a true representation of the $3.00 catarrh outfit for catarrh of the head, nose and throat, herein advertised, and that any one ordering same and finding it not satisfactory may have his money returned upon demand.

DR. RICH.

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 25th day of February, 1908. JOHN ALLAN, Notary Public.

My Commission expires Jan. 5, 1912.

Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drug Act of June 30, 1906. Serial Number No. 18752. The above outfits contain no Morphine, Opium, Cocaine, Heroin, Eucaine, Chloroform, Cannabis Indica, Chloral Hydrate, Acetanilide, or any of their derivatives.

Dr. Rich, the well known Grand Island Specialist, has arranged a system of Home Treatment for Catarrh of the various organs of the body, and is now prepared to supply to any sufferer from this prevalent disease a course of remedies that will be found to be not only satisfactory in every respect, but at a price certainly reasonable, and within the reach of everybody. During the five years Dr. Rich has been in Grand Island he has carefully avoided the treatment of Catarrhal conditions of the body, not being prepared to take up a work requiring time from his already extensive office business. During the past year, however, Dr. Rich has perfected a method which he offers below, for treating Catarrh in the home, and feels not only assured of excellent results, but that he will make many new friends, which will assist in increasing his already large practice. A photograph below shows one of the $3.00 outfits, and should give a perfect idea of the value offered. Dr. Rich's treatment for Catarrh is a Home Treatment in every sense, and can be used without detention from business. A full month's treatment of these remedies will be sent for $3.00. You may order as often as you like at the same price, or have the treatment sent to your friends. As there will be a large demand from the many people familiar with Dr. Rich's reputation as a Skillful Specialist, you are kindly requested to order early and avoid delay.

Women and Cigarettes

Turning the pages of a popular woman writer's latest novel, the man read scornfully aloud such passages as: "There were red and white roses in a vase on a small stand beside her smoking things." "Lady Mary offered him nonchalantly her gold case, filled with Turkish cigarettes, each bearing her arms in silver and blue." "The writing desk was in disorder. Evidently she had sat at it till late. A half-smoked cigarette lay on the blotter. It was so like Gertrude." With a harsh laugh the man threw the book aside.

"Well, what is the matter?" his wife asked sharply. "I am so sick of you women and your cigarettes," he explained. "Never

His remains, after burial at Valladolid, Spain, were removed to Seville. In 1536 they were taken with great pomp to Santo Domingo and interred in the cathedral. In 1796 what were supposed to be his ashes were again removed to the cathedral of Havana and buried there with imposing ceremonies.

A Correction.

In the report in this paper of the various state political conventions recently held in Lincoln, it was erroneously stated that Governor Sheldon opposed an amendment to the republican platform providing for security of bank deposits. This statement was incorrect. Governor Sheldon spoke in advocacy of this amendment, voted for it and is in favor of some well-regulated law for the guarantee of bank deposits.

An encampment of the I. O. O. F. was instituted at Mitchell last week. G. M. Jacobs of Bethany has become pastor of the Christian church at Table Rock.

While moving a granary at Burwell Fred Woolworth fell and dislocated his shoulder.

The stork is reported as having been unusually busy in and around Fremont during the week.

Thos. Wilson, an Omaha painter, fell from a scaffold and was dead when picked up.

The Iowa Milling company of Ponca is just installing a sixty horsepower engine in their mill and will introduce a dynamo to produce their own light.

A force of forty men, carpenters, brick masons and other laborers are employed on the new high school building now in process of erection at Beatrice.

Sunday night M. L. Hetrick, of Agnew, Saunders county, was awakened by a curious noise, and upon investigation found that one corner of his house was on fire.

Keysee & Sons of Ponca have just closed their new sorghum molasses plant for the season. The cane was not very good this year, yet they succeeded in making 500 gallons of sorghum of extra fine quality.

Farmers should all have telephones. Write to us and learn how to get the best service for the least money. Nebraska Telephone Company, 18th and Douglas streets, Omaha. "Use the Bell."

By prairie fire Mr. A. L. Dundy of Dundy county lost his barn and granary, together with his storage of grain, hay, implements, etc., as well as his growing crop of corn. The family, including mother with a nine day old child, were saved by being removed to a cave nearby.

The funeral services over James Dyer, who was murdered on Main street in Greenwood by Matt Bozarth, who plunged a knife blade into his heart, was held at Plattsmouth and was largely attended. A wife, three sons and six daughters, two teaching school in Cass county, survive him.

Samuel Glover of Platte county will work for the state for the next two years at the penitentiary at Lincoln. He had been arrested for stealing horses last spring and was out on bail when he left for parts unknown, thus forfeiting his bond. He came back, surrendered himself to the sheriff, pleaded guilty and takes his medicine for the next two years.

A traveling evangelist was egged by the people of Blue Hill. He was, however, not to be scared out and is continuing to hold his meetings. After the egging a Hastings minister was called for to act as arbitrator but upon arriving and getting an insight into the condition, he soon made up his mind to return to Hastings and let the town people and the preacher settle between themselves.

Because of his alleged participation in the fraud connected with a claim before the legislature growing out of the Herman Goedde estate in Dawes county, Captain Allen G. Fishers of Chadron, has been debarred from practice in the courts of Nebraska for the period of a year. The disbarment is dated to begin from January 1, 1909, for the protection of his present clients.

Some time since Johnson Teten, a farmer residing near Talmage, after having left home because he was jealous of his wife, returned and without warning shot his wife three times and thinking her fatally wounded carried her out to the straw stack and laid her down, after which he started for Nebraska City, where he gave himself up and remained in jail for some time. The wife was picked up and carried in the house and with careful nursing recovered from her injuries, but they left her marked for life, one bullet wound being in her face. Now she refuses to prosecute her husband and the case against him has been dismissed.

F. J. Foster, of Beaver Crossing, was touched for $240 in gold at the Lincoln Taft meeting.

Her clothes ablaze the little two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Ryan of Norfolk saved her own life by throwing herself in a basket of clothes, in this way partially smothering the flames. The little girl was playing about the gasoline stove at the Ryan home. Mrs. Ryan was out of doors. When she heard the child's cries she rushed into the house and found that the little one had fallen or plunged into the clothes basket. The child was badly burned.

The suit of William V. Banta to oust the village board of East Oxford has reached the supreme court. The lower court held that the village corporation had been legally dissolved and ousted the board of trustees that has continued to hold office.

Attorney John C. Watson of Nebraska City is threatened with the loss of his voice, by reason of the hardening of the vocal chords. Mr. Watson is one of the best known attorneys in the section and was once speaker of the house of representatives; also once president of the senate of this state.

The Fight for Humanity. The great modern wars are fought for humanity. The old-style war brought sorrow, and evil and death. It was often fought for the interests of an individual or a dynasty.
