INDICT NIGHT RIDERS

TENNESSEE TO UNRAVEL THE RANKIN MURDER.

OFFICIALS POSSESS EVIDENCE

Expect to Convict Every Member of the Gang that Hanged Former Army Officer.

Memphis.-What may happen this week as a result of the investigation of the night rider depredations in the north-western section of this state is a matter of conjecture. Monday, with the convening of the circuit court for An attempt to assasinate Rev. J. K. Obion county in special session at Fielding, pastor of the Corpus Christi Union City formally to investigate Roman Catholic church of Chicago, the death of Quinten Rankin, who was killed by a night rider band in the vicinity of Reelfoot lake Monday night last, that section will be under complete military domination. Five companies of the Tennessee National Guard will be at the disposal of Col. Tatom. To aid the militia the adjoining counties have been drawn on for posses of picked men.

In the Reelfoot lake district the lake itself is the source of contention. It was asserted by those living in the vicinity that it was their right to ply their vocation as fishermen in its waters without molestation, while the owners of the land upon which the lake is located took an opposite view. In the courts the latter, the Western Tennessee Land company, of which Captain Rankin and Colonel R. Z. Taylor of Trenton as the organizers, are largely interested, were upheld.

Then followed night-rider warnings threatening death to those who opposed the wishes of the band. It was upon the first visit in many months to the lake region that Captain Rankin was killed. Of a number of men arrested, ten are being held, and it is promised that when the grand jury is convened sufficient evidence will be furnished to secure the indictment of every member of the night-riders organization. The sessions of the court will be under military protection.

Governors of several states of the south have approved of a suggestion of Governor Patterson, that a conference of the executives be held and plans devised whereby they can act in concert in an effort to destroy the night-rider organizations.

Camp Nemo, Reelfoot Lake, Tenn .-Fourty-four more prisoners, including as the result of the murder at Walnut Log last week of Captain Rankin by masked night riders. In addition, seven others, including one woman were arrested by the troops but paroled. Among those seized are Wil-Ham Pratt, hotel keeper at Sambarg; J. D. F. Carpenter, Union City attorney, who, Colonel Taylor charged, wrote letters to Taylor and Rankin which were instrumental in carrying them on the fatal trip to Walnut Log; William Brewer, a 60-year-old farmer, his wife and son.

Negro Whose Crime Started Springfield Riots Is Hanged.

Springfield, Ill. - Having confessed his guilt and with a prayer upon his lips, Joe James, 18-year-old negro murderer, was hanged in the Sangamon county jail Friday. Chief Deputy Fred Long sprung the trap at 10:32 and in 11 minutes and 39 seconds James was pronounced dead by Dr. J. O. Salyers, and the body cut down and prepared for burial.

James murdered C. A. Ballard, a well-known C. P. & St. L. engineer, on the night of July 3, last. This crime was largely responsible for precipitation of the recent fatal race riot in

In a drunken stupor he wandered into the home of Mr. Ballard, on North Ninth street, entered the bedroom of Miss Blanche Ballard and seized her hand. The girl screamed. Her father came to her assistance, drove the negro from the house, followed him to the sidewalk, where a fight ensued in which James stabbed Ballard to death. James fled. Next morning he was discovered by Ballard's two sons asleep in the grass north of the city. The Ballard boys almost beat James from the crowd which gathered. While James was in jail the alleged assault by another negro upon Mrs. Earl Hallam took place, and the mob moved on the jail.

Tiptonville, Tenn.-Unharmed, save numerous scratches received in a 30hour trip through unfamiliar woods and the fatigue incident to the trip without food, and the mental strain, Judge R. Zachary Taylor reached here Wednesday after a miraculous escape from night riders at Reelfoot Lake, who murdered his partner, Capt. Quen-

Col. Taylor Wednesday told how they were seized by the masked men, and continued:

"The leader of the mob talked with us, telling us we were associated too much with Judge Harris, and were taking entirely too much interest in the lake. He said that the course of Harris and the West Tennessee Land Company in prohibiting free fishing was causing the starvation of women and children, and that something had to be done:

"I never dreamed that the mob intended us any harm, but just then they threw a rope around Capt. Rankin's neck and swung him to a limb. He protested, and said: 'Gentlemen, do not kill me,' and the reply of the mob was a volley of 50 shots. "This was the first evidence of any intention to harm us, and when the firing began I jumped into a bayou, and made for a sunken log. Behind this I hid and the mob fired several hundred shots into the log. They evidently believed I was dead, for I heard one of them say: 'He's dead, and let him go,' and with that he rode away. "I remained in the water until after
