The Election.

Election returns were received in Loup City Tuesday night from both the Western Union and the telephone company.

Cupid at Work

Married, Tuesday evening, Nov. 3, 1908, Ed. Veeder and Abbie Sanford, both of this city.

Along R. R. No. 1.

Will Albers took chickens to market Wednesday.

It was a landslide for Taft.

The third time was the charm—not for Bryan, but for the people.

The W. T. Gibson special levy was defeated but we can give no figures.

The two Bills—Bryan and Fisher, having been sat down on hard three distinct times, should get on to the curves of the people and go way back and sit down.

Mathew didn't seem to have anything to run against.

A wire from Lincoln claims Kin-kaid's defeat. Maybe.

Gibson has found that he does not control the Poland vote.

The ways of the voter are past finding out; eh, Gibby, old socks?

Reports come from Buffalo county that Gould wins by a small majority.

Sherman county did not do so badly. Only 142 for Bryan, and Brown only by 4 votes.

New York went for Taft by from 200,000 to 250,000 and for Hughes by a handsome majority.

Our democratic friends claimed the Roosevelt landslide was an account of their votes.

Well, what do you think? Florida 20,000 for Taft. The first time it has twisted away from the democratic mule since 1876.

Iowa 75,000, Indiana 15,000, Ohio, 50,000, and all the eastern, northern and western states, save Nebraska, for Taft at the same ratio.

It is an open secret that had the republicans had a candidate for county attorney R. H. Mathew would not have had the walkaway recorded.

Little fatty degeneration claims the Polanders played him false. The Polanders were not found in Gibby's vest pocket, and the little "savior of the people" is hot over it.

Mrs. Hogue and daughter, Laura, Dr. and Mrs. Stoaks and son Ralph were callers Sunday afternoon at the Hurly home.

Friendship, Love and Truth

"My Boy, Jack" will probably be one of the most refined productions given at Pilger's opera house this season.

There are no sium scenes, no heavy browed villains, no adventurers, no exaggerated climaxes or impossible situations, no monkey-faced comedians no impossible Hebrews and no short-skirted subplots, but there is plenty of fun, causing hearty, whole-souled laughter; bright, witty dialogue, reasonable and logical complications and situations, set in an atmosphere of art, with a touch of life in Bohemia, and there is not one word which can offend the most sensitive nature.

"My Boy, Jack," is a story of friendship, love and truth, and no greater sermon has ever been preached from any pulpit by the most eminent divines of the day, than can be drawn from the presentation of "My Boy, Jack." "Jack Paden," the hero, is the acme of young American manhood, he is true, loyal, chivalrous and self-sacrificing; he is the kind of boy, that in time of trouble, goes to the front and dies for a principle, and in these days of hustle, worry, intrigue and selfishness, it is refreshing to come in contact with one of nature's noblemen, and such is Jack Paden, whose unconscious motto is, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," and yet he will make you laugh. Edwin Milton Royle is responsible for him, and he may well be proud of "My Boy, Jack." This production will be at Pilger's opera house, Loup City, Tuesday, Nov. 17.

In the District Court of Sherman county, Nebraska.

In the matter of the application of Levina J. Sparks, guardian of the persons and estates of William A. Sparks, Walter R. Sparks, Bertie A. Sparks, Ray E. Sparks and Vernie Sparks, minor children of James W. Sparks, deceased, to sell the real estate of said minors.

Order to show cause why license should not be granted to said guardian to sell real estate of her said wards to raise funds for their maintenance and education.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified of Levina J. Sparks, guardian of the persons and estates of William A. Sparks, Walter R. Sparks, Bertie A. Sparks, Ray E. Sparks and Vernie Sparks, minors, for a license to sell the undivided five-eighths one-half interest of said minors in the following described real estate situated in Sherman county, Nebraska, to-wit, the west half of the north-west quarter, and the north half of the south-west quarter of Section seven (7), in Township fourteen (14) north of Range sixteen (16), west of sixth principal meridian, for the purpose of raising funds for the maintenance and education of said minors, and it appearing from said petition that said real estate consists of unimproved land, from which very little income can be obtained and that it is necessary to sell the same for said purpose.

It is therefore ordered that the next of kin of said minors, and all persons interested in said estate appear before me at the court house in Loup City, Nebraska, on the 18th day of November, 1908, at the hour of nine o'clock in the forenoon to show cause why license should not be granted to the said Levina J. Sparks, guardian, to sell said real estate of said minors for the purposes above set forth.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published once each week for three successive weeks in the Loup City Northwestern, a legal newspaper printed and published and of general circulation in said County of Sherman.

Dated at Chambers at Kearney, in Buffalo county, Nebraska, this 17th day of October, 1908.

BRUNO O. HOSTETLER, Judge of the District Court of Sherman county, Nebraska.

GOOD IS NOT GOOD ENOUGH

EDWIN MILTON ROYLE, the noted leading man, and star of several recent seasons. "My Boy, Jack" is from the literary workshop of one of the brightest of American dramatists, Edwin Milton Royle, in whose great play, "The Squaw Man," William Faversham delights crowds throughout the country. Under the direction of Fred Conrad it will be presented with a specially chosen company supported by Mr. Moore.

"AND THIS IS LOVE"

"MY BOY, JACK" IS NOT ALONE AN INTERESTING PLAY, but it possesses literary value far in excess of the average run of plays. IT HAS BEEN CALLED AN ACCIDENTAL SUCCESS, it anyone with the slightest understanding of plays will know that it is not an accident but that it is the result of remarkable natural ability directed and controlled by definite understanding of the needs of the theatre. IT IS A CREDIT TO THE AMERICAN THEATRE. YOU HAVE NEVER SEEN ANYTHING ANY BETTER IN THIS TOWN. We either please you thoroughly, or make a
