NEW YORK TRULY GREAT CITY

Larger in Population Than Sixteen Different States and Territories.

Some one who is apt at figures has shown that New York city to-day is larger in population than 16 different states and territories, and further that within a radius of 20 miles are living over 10,000,000 people.

The improved methods of transportation, which are fast widening the limits of New York's business energy, will soon embrace a radius of 50 miles, within which are located 2,364 different towns and cities whose total population, with that of Greater New York, is equal to fully one-fifth of the population of the United States.

When it is realized that the permanent increase in population of New York last year was about 400,000, a city the size of Cleveland, O., some

Dr. Rich, the well known Grand Island Specialist, has arranged a system of Home Treatment for Catarrh of the various organs of the body, and is now prepared to supply to any sufferer from this prevalent disease a course of remedies that will be found to be not only satisfactory in every respect, but at a price certainly reasonable, and within the reach of everybody. During the five years Dr. Rich has been in Grand Island he has carefully avoided the treatment of Catarrhal conditions of the body, not being prepared to take up a work requiring time from his already extensive office business. During the past year, however, Dr. Rich has perfected a method which he offers below, for treating Catarrh in the home, and feels not only assured of excellent results, but that he will make many new friends, which will assist in increasing his already large practice. A photograph below shows one of the $3.00 outfits, and should give a perfect idea of the value offered. Dr. Rich's treatment for Catarrh is a Home Treatment in every sense, and can be used without detention from business. A full month's treatment of these remedies will be sent for $3.00. You may order as often as you like at the same price, or have the treatment sent to your friends. As there will be a large demand from the many people familiar with Dr. Rich's reputation as a Skillful Specialist, you are kindly requested to order early and avoid delay.

BALLOONING AMONG CLOUDS

It has been my lot to see, in arctic regions, some hundreds of thousands of icebergs close at hand, and I have always believed them to be the most beautiful objects on earth; but the clouds of the sky, close at hand, are almost as beautiful. If you mount above one of these majestic things, swiftly overtopping one by one its folds and wreaths, and if, remembering how high it is, you look down and see only small green patches of earth

STATE OFFICERS CHEERFUL.

Ready to Retire to More Peaceful Walks of Life.

The state officers rallied from the shock of the election returns, says the Lincoln Journal, and took philosophically what they consider defeat. Governor Sheldon received several callers and he was assured of the support of friends from every quarter. Some of the callers were inclined to be indignant at the defeat of the governor. "The people of this state have said they do not want a square deal and honesty," said one visitor at the state house, "when they turn down Governor Sheldon, Attorney General Thompson, Treasurer Brian and Secretary of State Junkin."

Secretary of State Junkin said he intended to go back to his farm in Gosper county and plant corn next May. Treasurer Brian is still at his home at Albion. "I do not know whether he will deem it worth while to come back for so short a time," said one of his office force.

Attorney General Thompson was as busy as usual and will proceed to prosecute the important state suits now pending in the state and federal courts.

Governor Sheldon will go back to his home and farm at Nehawka, where he will doubtless find more peace and happiness than he has experienced during the past two years in public office.

Martin Dimery, the governor's private secretary, arrived from his home at Beaver Crossing. His mail contained a bright new corn husking peg. It came from Columbus. Taking it as a hint that he might have to husk corn this winter, Mr. Dimery tried it on his hand and declared that he knew how to use it. He said he had husked 90 bushels a day and he desired to challenge the man who sent the peg.

RAILWAY COMMISSION ORDERS.

Consultation with Reference to New Classification of Rates.

The railway commission issued several orders and held a consultation with the freight agents relative to the proposed new classification issued by the western association. No action was taken on the classification and it will stand suspended as to Nebraska until the commission approves it.

Elmer E. Wood, general freight agent of the Union Pacific and a member of the committee that formulated the western classification of freight, was present, together with S. F. Miller of the Northwestern and F. Montgomery of the Burlington. Explanations of some of the increased rates resulting from change in classification were made by the freight men. The proposed increase on steel culverts and tanks they said was caused by the fact that these articles are bulky and light in weight and sometimes fill a car without producing sufficient freight revenues.

The commission denied the request of the Burlington to cancel a milling in transit rate given in 1906 for W. H. Ferguson to apply at Hastings. The present rate is $4 and $5 a car and the proposed rate based on cents per hundred pounds would increase this charge to $30.

The Union Pacific road was authorized to publish a rate of 12 cents on scrap iron from Kearney to Beatrice to meet competition by the Burlington. The former rate was 13 cents.

The Burlington was given leave to put in a rate of 35 cents on cabbage, minimum rate 20,000, from Northport and Bayard to the Missouri river. The former rate was 40 cents, minimum weight 24,000.

The Missouri Pacific road was authorized in connection with the Union Pacific to publish a rate of 16 cents on canned goods from Nebraska City to Columbus.

Chancellor Andrews Quits.

Chancellor Andrews of the University of Nebraska tendered his resignation to the board of regents and the same was accepted, to take effect January 1. He was elected chancellor emeritus by unanimous vote of the regents. No action was taken looking toward the selection of a successor. Several times in the past few years it has been rumored that the chancellor would resign on account of ill health and this time the rumor proved true. His physicians advised him that it was absolutely necessary that he should cease work. Chancellor Andrews came to the University of Nebraska from the superintendency of the city schools of Chicago, previous to that having been president of Brown university.

Fees for October.

Secretary of State Junkin reports the receipt of $3,087.60 in fees during the month of October. The receipts were as follows: For filing articles of incorporation, $2,687.05; notary commissions, $65; motor vehicles, $237; brands, $56.50; certificates and transcripts, $38.75; labels and trade marks, $2; all other sources, $1.30; total, $3,087.60.

Insurance for Sailors.

The recruiting office of the United States navy has recently received a booklet from the war department in which are to be found interesting articles on the establishing of special insurance for the sailors as well as the installation of regular postal clerks in the naval service. According to these new arrangements any recruit joining the navy who dies after his enlistment is granted six months' pay, less about $35 which is held for funeral expenses. The money he may make payable as he pleases.

October Weather Report.

The United States weather report for the month of October at Lincoln shows that the total precipitation was 2.34 inches, while the average for the same month for twenty-eight years was 2.08 inches, an excess of 0.26 of an inch. The accumulated excess since January is now 7.87 inches. The prevailing direction of the wind was southeast and the average velocity was thirteen miles an hour, but a maximum velocity of forty-five miles was reached on the 13th of the month. The highest temperature was 86.
