THE NORTHWESTERN

Along R. R. No. 1. Tom Driskell had his corn shelled Monday.

For City Clerk. I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of City Clerk of Loup City, subject to the will of the voters at the city election to be held April 6th, 1909.

At the head of our editorial column this week Judge G. W. Hunter announces his candidacy for the office of City Clerk for the ensuing fiscal year.

One week from next Tuesday, April 6th, occurs the coming city election. From the ambiguous notices posted by the superb city clerk on the sides of buildings about the city we find that a question of license or no license will come up for decision of the voters.

Reports are coming to the state veterinarian at Lincoln that horses are dying all over Nebraska. He has investigated a number of these reports and has discovered that the cause is largely overfeeding.

In another place in this issue will be found the report of the W. C. T. U. convention which took place week before last.

The interest in the coming city election is fast gaining momentum and should claim the earnest and united work of all to the end that best government in all its branches will result.

Austin Happenin's. D. B. Carpenter by trade and name, also grain buyer and dealer in coal and general merchandise, had the misfortune to lose his pocketbook containing $15 cash and checks amounting to about $100 last Friday, and at this writing has not found it.

Along R. R. No. 2. Mrs. H. W. Brodick is on the sick list. Henry Kuhl shipped the last of his cattle last week.

School Notes. With the return of spring it is pleasant to see the boys and girls at play outside, instead of standing about in the halls and rooms.

The organ was out of commission last Monday morning, which made the chapel exercises very dull.

The 8th grade is doing good work in vocal music. The pupils of Miss Young's and Miss Smith's rooms gave a very interesting program last Friday.

The pupils of Miss Young's and Miss Smith's rooms gave a very interesting program last Friday. Another will be given on April 2nd.

Mary Montgomery of the 2nd intermediate room gave a very interesting talk on the city of Washington to her classmates last Friday.

There is a farm on the route for rent. Max Leschinsky is going to sell the place where he lives.

Mrs. A. J. Gilbert on her way home from church last Thursday evening lost a heavy shawl, gray on one side and light brown on the other side.

Ed Lewis moved to near Litchfield last Saturday morning. W. T. Chase commenced the foundation for the new house on the farm last Saturday.

Carrier Sweetland carried the mail in a buggy Saturday while his wagon was being repaired.

The Big Four hauled lumber for Dr. Chase this week. Please don't let the time run out on your daily paper. Look at the label on the paper and you can tell just what time to renew.

Along R. R. No. 1.

There are 39,500 rural routes in the United States now. Anton Dymac is some better.

There is a young man on the route who will be married soon. Can you guess who it is?

Miss Mary Fitzgerald will close her school on April 2nd. Carrier Sweetland sent in his resignation Monday night and will move to Arkansas.

One of the Bunner boys will work for Walter Sletter this summer. Will Petersen and family are home again after spending the winter in Florida.

Miss Dollie Zahn is working at Mason City in a restaurant. Vincent Johns is out visiting his mother and father this week.

Frank Zwink, J. Ling, O. S. Fross and F. A. Pinckney shelled their corn this week. Sam Foss is the first farmer that the carrier has seen ploughing this spring.

F. A. Pinckney, J. Ling and J. A. McIlroy had their cattle dehorned Monday. Mrs. Frank Leney, sister of Mrs. F. A. Pinckney, left Friday for Brady Island, Neb., to visit her home, when she will go to Grant, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hatch visited their parents Sunday. Frank Zwink has been storing his corn in the Farmers elevator.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sickles visited at Andy Gray's over Sunday. A party was given at August Johnson's last week Thursday evening and a good time was had.

Frank and Fred Zwink came home from Grand Island last Thursday, bringing with them four horses which they bought at the horse sale. The family of A. L. Enderlee are having a siege of the mumps, the baby being the first victim.

Mrs. W. O. Brown attended the district meeting of the Rebekah lodge at Sargent last Thursday night. John Wheeler bought a young calf of J. W. Conger last week.

CROSS EYES!

are in 9 cases out of 10 the result of Eye-Strain, which if relieved by glasses in early life would never cause crossed eyes. Preliminary symptoms of Eye troubles that cause crossed eyes are: Pain in back of eyes; pain in temples, sometimes running over ears; print jumps after reading for a time. These are strong symptoms that the eyes will soon cross unless the eye-strain is removed.

It will pay you to see me at the St. Elmo hotel. I do not go out of the hotel to look. Not a drop of medicine used.
