J. W. BURLEIGH, Ed. and Pub.

For City Clerk.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of City Clerk of Loup City, subject to the will of the voters at the city election to be held April 6th, 1909. G. W. HUNTER.

The woman suffrage bill was killed by the senate last week.

Gov. Shallenberger vetoed the bill allowing saloons at Fort Crook. The governor did a good deed in that.

The legislature agreeing to adjourn April 1 is the best April fool joke they could have perpetrated and one the people will appreciate.

Sherman county has 8,510.31 acres of government school land within its territory, according to statistics from the office of the State Land Commissioner.

The democratic legislature kindly did not put the emergency clause on their bank guarantee law. They want it to soak in on the people gradually like.

The present legislature has changed the law regarding deputy assessors so as to make their election by the voters of their separate townships instead of securing their places by appointment of the county assessor.

It is one thing to claim the largest list of readers, or that one's list is nearing the thousand mark, but it is still another thing to make the public believe it. It reminds one of the story of a man who concocted a fairy tale to account to his wife for some of his directions, when she looked him squarely in the face and said, "Dear, you have never deceived me, and you don't deceive me now."

A law has been passed by the Nebraska legislature taking judicial and educational offices out of politics. It provides the names of supreme, district and county judges and state and county superintendents of schools shall be printed on separate ballot without party designation, and nominations for same shall be by petition, thus removing these offices from the domain of the direct primary, which is a party affair. The democrats realize this is their only chance to win a political jack-pot.

For the second time in the history of New York state's legal murders, a woman was electrocuted in Auburn prison Monday morning. The murderer, a Mrs. Farmer, with her husband, killed a neighbor woman in order to secure possession of the home. The job throughout was bunglingly done and the criminals in a very short time were apprehended with the body of the murdered woman in a trunk at the home. The woman confessed her guilt and the state murders her for murdering the other woman. Too bad in this enlightened age that law lends itself to commit the very act it seeks to punish. New York legally commits murder.

Text Tuesday will be city election. Owing to faulty getting up of the petition for the submission of the question of saloon license or no saloon license, which it is claimed lies at the door of the leaders of the temperance movement, it is possible that even in event of a majority vote in favor of the dry proposition, it will be a victory for the wets on the illegality of the petition. In last week's Northwestern, we wrongly laid the blame on W. J. Fisher, the city clerk, and this week make amende honorable by taking it where it belongs. It is too bad that ignorance or carelessness of friends of a measure should be the means of its probable defeat.

Sunday morning at Lincoln passed away one of the best men in Nebraska, Warden A. D. Beemer of the penitentiary. Warden Beemer was also president of the Beemer bank of which our townsman, Ira E. Williams, was cashier before coming to our city, and his death comes as a personal bereavement to Mr. Williams, the two men being intimately connected in business for years as well as the warmest friends. It had been the good fortune of the editor of this paper to be counted a friend of Mr. Beemer for the past twelve or more years and his death comes to us also as a personal bereavement, and we, with a countless number of the people of the state and wherever Mr. Beemer was known will feel deeply the loss of one of the best men the state possessed.

We are in receipt of the Nebraska News, published at University Place by J. L. Glavin, and gives extensive announcement of E. A. Brown purchasing a good part of the stock of the Clavin printing establishment there which on April 1st will be changed into a stock company. The news says in part: "The new company includes several of the force who are now working in the office. Hon. E. A. Brown has purchased a good part of the stock and will come here from his home in Loup City and make his home in University Place. All of the stockholders will, at least for the present, be regularly employed in the business." The many friends of Mr. Brown will wish him best of success in his new home and enlarged business career and feel assured Ed will do his part toward making a grand success of the undertaking.

Mrs. Engle left Wednesday morning for York.

A very pleasant surprise was given last evening when about sixty friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Fross to help them celebrate their 28th wedding anniversary, and presented that worthy couple with a fine rocking chair.

Much to the satisfaction of everyone, the organ has been tuned.

The Seniors have selected their class play, but this is all that is known.

The High School will give their next literary April 2nd. It will be especially interesting. Come.

Three of the eighth grade intermediate pupils tried for the Journal prize on the life of Lincoln. Orpha Outhouse received honorable mention.

Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Rettenmayer and Miss Nancy Howard were visitors of the second intermediate room this week.

The pupils of Miss Smith's and Miss Young's rooms will give a program Friday afternoon of this week. Everybody invited.

Don Charleton and Walter Callahan are new pupils of the High School.

Clark Whitaker has returned to school after a prolonged absence caused by the illness of his father.

The educational meeting will be held at the Methodist church Friday evening, April 9th.

A Favor Appreciated.

"I have come to inform you," said the young man who thought the firm would have to go out of business if he went away, "that unless my salary is raised I shall have to sever my connection with this establishment."

"Thank you," replied the general manager.

"Am I to understand, then," the young man asked, "that you accede to my demand?"

"No. I thanked you because you had relieved me of an unpleasant duty. I always hate to discharge a man who will be unable to hold a job anywhere else."

The Nebraska legislature have set today as the time of final adjournment. That means today will be possibly two or more days in length as legislatures are proverbial for making the last day of session of unusual length by stopping Father Time, so far as the clocks in the senate and house chambers can accomplish the feat.

CROSS EYES!

are in 9 cases out of 10 the result of Eye-Strain, which if relieved by glasses in early life would never cause crossed eyes.

Prehminary symptoms of Eye troubles that cause crossed eyes are: Pain in back of eyes; pain in temples, sometimes running over ears; print jumps after reading for a time. These are strong symptoms that the eyes will soon cross unless the eye-strain is removed.

It will pay you to see me at the St. Elmo hotel.
