

Trolley Roads and Farm Values. A recent item notes that farmers in Ohio are complaining that the extension of trolley roads through the rural districts increases the facilities for the young people to leave the farms and go to the cities...

Mr. Roosevelt says that his friends will make a hit with him by just calling him "mister." There is nothing quite so clumsy as the way we speak of those who were chief executives of the nation.

The association of life insurance presidents is apparently somewhat skeptical whether or not Prof. Irving Fisher is correct in his contention that 15 years can be added to the span of human life by the adoption of certain practical hygienic reforms...

The New York Medical Journal says that there is a decided reduction in the number of medical students as compared with the immediate past, and attributes it to "arbitrary standards in medical education."

Superstitions of the sea should have their edge taken off by the disaster off the coast of Malta last fall. The Sardinia was due to sail from the home port on Friday, November 13, a day which was doubly unlucky.

Perhaps Radcliffe college, in selecting a new dean, may follow the example of Barnard college, the trustees of which are said to be considering William T. Brewster, professor of English there, as the new incumbent of the office.

To avoid the troubles besetting compasses on steel ships, the metal of which deflects the needle, a German inventor has devised a needleless one, in the form of a gyroscope, the axis of which always adjusts itself parallel to the earth's axis.

Wright brothers have been made doctors of flying or something of the sort by a technical school in Munich. Presumably that will help them a lot when they have to set a broken wing of a flying machine.

How can even a bank employ afford to eat nine pounds of beefsteak at a meal and make the luxury steady diet? Did the steak or the cost thereof throw the Marshall man off his mental balance? His books are no doubt all straight, but how stand the accounts of the butcher?

Reports from Africa indicate that the jungles are subject to an epidemic of acute nervousness closely rivaling that which afflicted Wall street up to a recent date.

A DAYLIGHT SALOON

THIS HAS BEEN PROVIDED BY THE LEGISLATURE.

VOTE IN THE HOUSE IS CLOSE

Put Through, It is Said, as a Measure of Retaliation Against Omaha Legislators.

Closing hours of the legislature were marked by passage by the house of the bill by Senator Wiltse, amended, to close all saloons in the state at 8 o'clock in the evening and to open at 7 a. m. The bill was at once taken to the senate and the amendments concurred in there.

"The action of the legislature," says the Omaha Bee correspondent, "in passing this temperance measure at the last minute of the last day of the session after killing a 7 o'clock closing bill, is credited to the Omaha senators. The action of the senators in standing out for the interest of the stock yards angered many members of the house, who took the opportunity to get even. Gov. Shallenberger also came in for his share of credit because he vetoed the Fort Crook bill and thus lost one vote against the 8 o'clock closing measure.

The bill originally provided that saloons which sold liquor on Sunday should lose their license and the house judiciary committee amended it to close the saloons at 8 o'clock. Senator Wiltse brought up in the senate the matter of concurrence in the house amendments to S. F. 283 during the afternoon and it was pushed to vote with scarcely a word of debate.

Woman's Suffrage Defeated. The senate put the last touch of defeat to the efforts of the suffrage workers when H. R. 421, by Taylor of Custer, providing for municipal suffrage for women owning property was not advanced to third reading.

Signed by Governor. The following bills were signed by the governor: House Roll 112, by Fries of Howard—One mill levy for building or repairing bridges in emergency case.

House Roll 121, by Bowman of Nuckolls—Prohibiting intimidation of voters.

House Roll 242, by McVicker of Dodge—Providing for publicity of campaign contributions.

House Roll 270, by Blystone of Lancaster—Appropriating $1,000 for maintenance of the G. A. R. rooms at the state capitol.

House Roll 397, by Taylor of Hitchcock—Providing for resurvey of the fifth guide meridian through Dundly county.

House Roll 123, by Committee on Schools—Appropriates $75,000 for state aid to weak school districts.

House Roll 150, by Thomas of Douglas—Raising salary of Douglas county district court bailiffs to $1,200 a year.

House Roll 226, by Miller of Custer—Providing for transmission of prescribed course of study to teachers.

House Roll 254, by Smith of Cass—Providing for special levy for the purpose of erecting school houses.

House Roll 533, by Wilson of Polk—Provides for recharter of national banks under state law and for permitting national banks to take advantage of state guaranty law.

House Roll 4, by Evans of Hamilton—Provides for settling grain shipment damages.

House Roll 19, by Stoecker of Douglas—Provides for electing members of Omaha school board by wards.

House Roll 144, by Taylor of Hitchcock—Provides that judgments may not be revived after being dormant for five years.

House Roll 179, by Bushee of Kimball—Provides for the appointment of field superintendents to measure water to users in irrigation districts.

Closing Hours of Legislature. The closing hours of the senate were calm and peaceful, that body indulging in no undignified antics while waiting for the engrossing clerks to complete their work so adjournment could be taken. Not so with the house. Speaker Pool was presented with a gold watch by the members and employees, and after this was off its hands the lively times commenced. At 9 o'clock Friday it was seen the engrossing clerks could not complete their labors, and a recess was taken until 8 o'clock Saturday.

College Bill Passes. The maintenance bill, with its senate amendments appropriating $20,000 to buy a site for an Omaha branch of the university medical college, and $100,000 for a fine stock museum at the state fair grounds was passed in the senate by a vote of 22 to 0. It will now go back to the house for concurrence in the amendments. The house bill appropriating $30,000 for a building at the institute for the deaf and dumb at Omaha, was favorably recommended by the finance committee.

THE SENATE LIBERAL.

Adds $97,000 to the General Maintenance Bill.

Ninety-seven thousand dollars in appropriations was added to the general maintenance bill by the senate committee of the whole above the figures of the finance committee, which carried an increase of $321,000 over the bill as it came from the house. The house bill carried an appropriation of $1,965,128. The senate committee recommended changes, making the figures $2,286,418, and the senate committee of the whole added enough to make the total $2,383,418.

Table listing various items and their costs: The new items were as follows: Site for hospital in connection with medical school in Omaha $20,000; New building for nurses and attendants at Norfolk 12,000; Traveling expenses for district judges 6,000; Increase for employes at Military Soldiers' home 1,000; Wing for State Historical society building 25,000; Hog cholera investigations 5,000; Overruling the cut to $50,000 of $75,000 house appropriation for normal training in high schools, making difference in bill 25,000; For attorney general prosecution expenses, increase 3,000; Total $97,000.

The Right to Enter. The house recommended for passage a bill which has already passed the senate which gives to an agent of the state the right to enter any dwelling if he believes a dependent child of the state is secreted or detained there.

The agent is given power to forcibly enter the house and if the owner thereof offers any objections he is guilty of a misdemeanor.

This great authority is given to an agent of the state in S. F. 350, by Miller of Lancaster, which provides that the governor shall appoint a commission of three persons to have charge of a school for dependent children to be conducted at the Home for the Friendless. This board or commission shall have complete charge of the school and shall have power to appoint an agent at $1,500 a year to look after the children. If a member of the school runs away and this agent has reason to believe that he is being detained or is concealed in any house he may forcibly enter and make a search.

Building for School for Deaf. The senate finance committee decided to recommend for favorable action the bills appropriating $30,000 for a new building at the institute for the deaf and dumb at Omaha, and $18,000 for completion and furnishings of buildings at the Norfolk asylum.

The senate amended Smith's pure food bill, as it came from the house, so that under it now only packages of confectionery, fish products and other small articles are exempt from the law that requires the stamping of the weight or the measure and the contents on each package, and all other packages have to be stamped.

The Smith bill as originally introduced provided for the bleaching of flour, and in the house an amendment was introduced to strike out the present law, requiring the contents, weight or measure to be stamped on every package, and the national law, providing that if the weight or measure should be put on the package it must be correct was inserted in its place.

Senate King's amendment as introduced provides that all packages that are to be sold in Nebraska, containing dairy products, meat, wheat, oats or corn products, molasses sugar, syrup, tea, coffee or fruit, must be stamped with the correct weight or measure.

Senators King and Wiltse argued that the people should know the exact weight of every package, that the law was saving them several millions of dollars, and that a corporation wanted the present law repealed, hence it should not be done.

Senators Tibbets, Ransom, Howell and Banning replied that because of the shrinkage, it was difficult to fix the exact weight, that the people knew the quantity of goods that each package contained, and didn't care how much it weighed, and so it was their own fault if they were cheated; that this would not help the consumer but would offer impediments to business, that the packers wrapped hams and bacon in summer to prevent pollution by insects and they would be inclined to do away with this practice if required to stamp all, when the meat was subject to shrinkage.

The amendment which was carried by a vote of 21 to 11, also contained a provision that this should not apply to any goods in the hands of retailers at the time of the taking effect of this act.

For Occupation Tax. Whatever figure appropriations total this session, after the house and senate have settled their differences, the legislature will provide for meeting some of them by a new form of increasing revenue of the state. This increase is provided for in a bill for levying an occupation tax upon all corporations, foreign or domestic, which do business within the state. While the amount to be assessed against any individual corporation is comparatively small, the total revenue will be $150,000.

Regulate Insurance Dividends. The senate killed Senator Bartos' bill providing that life insurance companies should not pay to their stockholders dividends greater than 8 percent of the paid up capital stock, and providing a fine of from $1,000 to $5,000 and suspension of a charter for one year for violation thereof. Senator Bartos had charged that certain insurance companies were paying as high as 27 percent, and he thought the policyholders ought to get the benefit of the surplus earnings of premiums, etc.

NEBRASKA IN BRIEF

NEWS NOTES OF INTEREST FROM VARIOUS SECTIONS.

ALL SUBJECTS TOUCHED UPON

Religious, Social, Agricultural, Political and Other Matters Given Due Consideration.

The Midwest Life (old line) wants good local agents all over Nebraska. Write to Home Office at Lincoln for particulars.

A life insurance company is a financial institution which furnishes money to the family of the man who dies holding a policy in the company. It stands in precisely the same relation to the individual that the fire insurance company does to the house in which he lives. If your home is fully insured in a fire company and it burns you are paid its value. If it is not insured the fire company pays you nothing. You carried your own risk, and not the company. But you cannot carry the risk on your own life, although you may on your property. This risk must be carried either by your family or some life insurance company. Which of the two is the better able to assume it, the family or the company? Upon which of the two will the loss be less severe? And upon whom do you prefer to leave the risk, upon the family or the company?

The Midwest Life of Lincoln issues all the standard forms of policies.

Nursery companies are reporting large sales in the line of fruit trees.

The fiscal year ending with March, 1909, has proven the most prosperous one for the Seward postoffice in its history.

Pierce has won the championship of the north central district of the Nebraska high school debating league by winning from Albion.

The other day a horse was missing from the barn of Mr. Dean, three miles northeast of Neligh. Lee Hun, a hired hand, is also missing.

Fred Kelso, implicated in connection with the robbery of $400 from Sid Grave at Pender, waived examination. His bond was fixed at $1,000, which has not been furnished.

The York colleges report a larger attendance than ever before. One thousand students are attending the college, the Ursuline academy and the York Business and Normal college.

Ira Rigby, a young man charged with criminally assaulting Mable Meyers, the 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Meyers of Glenover, Gage county, was bound over to the district court.

Will Nolan, the young Dodge county farmer who caused so much excitement and speculation by disappearing about three years ago, was in Fremont last week on his way home. He has been living in Montana.

Frank Zoubet, a farmer living nine miles northeast of Tobias, was found dead in his field under a stalk cutter. The broken steel indicated the cause of the fatal accident. He leaves a wife and five children.

While Claud Morgan, who resides on the Missouri river bottoms east of Plattsmouth, was cleaning a 22-caliber rifle, it was accidentally discharged, and the bullet entered the groin and lodged in his abdomen. He is in a critical condition.

Steps toward probating and settlement of the estate of William Earhart who died at Louisville, develops the fact that he left an estate of about $400,000. Thirty thousand of it is in life insurance, all payable to his widow.

Articles of incorporation of the McClintock Hotel company, with a capital stock of $100,000, in shares of $100 each, were filed in Grand Island, and negotiations are pending for the purchase of the Kohler hotel of that city.

Sheriff Dunkel of Hall county arrived at Salina, Kas., to bring John Cole, who enticed from her home Miss Irene Soule of Grand Island, back for trial. Cole had been placed under $500 bonds at Salina, but when the sheriff arrived there the bird had flown and the bond was declared forfeited.

News reached Alliance of a brutal double murder near a small town named Provo, just across the line in South Dakota. The man who did the killing was Dick Barton, and the victims were the parents of his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Tucker. The murder was a heinous one, the brains of the victims having been beaten out with an ax.

The 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hinsey, who reside on a farm two miles west of Nebraska City was seriously, if not fatally burned. She was playing about the kitchen in the absence of the parents and her clothing caught fire, and before the flames could be extinguished she was badly burned on both legs and arms and about the side of the head. Her recovery is doubtful.

Ashland is greatly in need of residences to accommodate new comers. Dr. H. L. Mathers, for forty years a physician at Auburn, died last week, aged 80 years.

A clock has been installed in the tower of the new city hall at Schuyler. It has a good elevation and four dials, so that it can be seen from every direction, and it strikes the hours and half hours. It cost about $900.

W. B. Roberts, living south of Ashland, last week sold fifty-three live chickens in the local market for $41, or an average of 77 cents a fowl.

John Clary, aged 20, and Mary Miller, aged 16, who eloped from Culbertson and went to Boulder, Colo., were arrested at Akron, Colo., as the train pulled into that town, on orders from the girl's father.

Claiming his divorce was obtained by fraud, and that it was on account of his cruel treatment of her that she was driven from home, Mrs. Mary King in the district court of Dodge county commenced suit against her former husband, Thomas King of Cuming county, asking the court for a division of his property, said to be worth $20,000.

THE CRACKING OF PAINT.

Property Owners Can Save Money by Learning the Cause.

Do you know what is wrong when paint peels, or cracks, or otherwise necessitates re-painting? Well, sometimes it hasn't been properly applied—the surface being damp or there being too much turpentine or too much drier.

But, nine times out of ten, the trouble is caused by adulterated white lead.

To avoid all such trouble, every houseowner should know in a general way, when a surface is in proper condition to receive paint, what kind of primer and finishing coats different surfaces require, and how to avoid adulteration in materials.

A complete painting guide, including a book of color schemes, specifications for all kinds of painting work and an instrument for detecting adulterations in painting materials, with directions for using it, can be had free by writing National Lead Company, 1902 Trinity Bldg., New York, and asking for Houseowner's Painting Outfit No. 49.

This company, the largest makers of pure white lead, invite tests, by means of the blowpipe (included in outfit), or in any other way, of the purity of the white lead sold under their famous "Dutch Boy Painter" trademark. That trademark on a keg of white lead is in itself an absolute guarantee of purity and quality.

NOT A WEIGHT LIFTER.

"Is the baby strong?" "Well, rather! You know what a tremendous voice he has?" "Yes." "Well, he lifts that five or six times an hour!"

CHILD ATE CUTICURA OINTMENT.

Spread Whole Box of It on Crackers—Not the Least Injury Resulted.

Cuticura Thus Proven Pure and Sweet.

A New York friend of Cuticura writes:

"My three year old son and heir, after being put to bed on a trip across the Atlantic, investigated the stateroom and located a box of Cuticura Ointment. When a search was made for the box, it was found empty and the kid admitted that he had eaten the contents of the entire box spread on the crackers. It cured him of a bad cold and I don't know what else."

No more conclusive evidence could be offered that every ingredient of Cuticura Ointment is absolutely pure, sweet and harmless. If it may be safely eaten by a young child, none but the most beneficial results can be expected to attend its application to even the tenderest skin or youngest infant.

Putter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Proprietors, Boston.

Tongue Twisters.

"Tongue twisters are the actor's bane," an actor said. "Lose your head on the stage, and you are bound to say 'Now Rababbus was a bobber' for 'Barabbus was a robber'."

"On a first night I heard a tragedian refer to the Deity as 'a shoving leopard,' when he meant 'a loving shepherd.'"

"You make me a buff and a sky-ward! I once shouted in a tank drama."

"My uncle, a divine, concluded an address on the suffrage before a women's club with the terrible words: 'But I bore you; I will cease; I do not wish to address a lot of beery wenches.' My poor uncle meant 'weary benches.'"

"I was a duke in a recent problem play, and when my servant asked me one night if I had any luggage, I replied: 'Only two rags and a bug.'"

His Day of Reckoning.

As the stout man whose appetite had excited the envy of the other boarders turned to leave the parlor, he looked down at his waistcoat. "I declare, I've lost two buttons off my vest," he said, ruefully.

He was a new boarder, but his landlady saw no reason for further delay in showing her banner: "Watchfulness and Economy for all." She gave him the benefit of the chill gaze so familiar to her older boarders.

SISTER'S TRICK

But It All Came Out Right.

How a sister played a trick that brought rosy health to a coffee fiend is an interesting tale:

"I was a coffee fiend—a trembling, nervous, physical wreck, yet clinging to the poison that stole away my strength. I mocked at Postum and would have none of it."

"One day my sister substituted a cup of Postum piping hot for my morning cup of coffee but did not tell me what it was. I noticed the richness of it and remarked that the coffee tasted fine but my sister did not tell me I was drinking Postum for fear I might not take any more."

"She kept the secret and kept giving me Postum instead of coffee until I grew stronger, more cheerful, got a better color in my sallow cheeks, and a clearness to my eyes, then she told me of the health-giving, nerve-strengthening life-saver she had given me in place of my morning coffee. From that time I became a disciple of Postum and no words can do justice in telling the good this cereal drink did me. I will not try to tell it, for only after having used it can one be convinced of its merits."

Ten days' trial shows Postum's power to rebuild what coffee has destroyed. "There's a Reason."

Look in pkgs. for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

VISITS WITH UNCLE BY

The Circean Cup. Progeny often go by contraries, the antithesis of forebears. Among my earliest recollections is that of Abner Fenton, tall, cadaverous, a shining example of sobriety and a fit disciple of Pythagoras.

He looked upon Bacchus as the arch fiend, the Devil of cloven hoof and attenuated appendage. Wherever he went, he preached the wisdom of abstinence. In his daily labors, behind the grocery stove at night, his theme was over that of the succulent grape as the way to Satorrallian orgies of despair and ruin.

His long, sinewy form, stooped from hard work, towered above his fellows as he argued the curse of strong drink, and his ascetic face was lighted with the torch of earnestness even as was the face of John the Baptist.

preaching in the wilderness for the reclaiming of the souls of men. Fenton had one son, a doughty lad, with a disposition to wobble like a wheelbarrow. This boy was encased in a diatribe of teetotalism orally administered by the watchful parent. He was sent to Sunday school and immersed in the piety of a home where self-restraint and forbearance were the watchwords!

He grew up in the atmosphere of the lily and came home one night smelling of the gutter. Old Man Fenton questioned his own reasoning powers that night. He told himself he must have gone insane. His boy drunk? It were as possible that the stars should be dug up in the coal mines, the moon be found wallowing in the Stygian way.

When the real truth swept aside his protest, his flesh became as a bitter herb, every drop of his blood was also, every beat of his pulse a shudder. Out into the highways and the byways he went, railing and crying against the demon rum. This is the way it affected Fenton—but it broke his wife's heart. The mother-love of the woman arose that night to meet the heavens, but her heart's blood flowed as a libation to grief and to despair.

This was years ago. Today as I trod the grasses of the quaint and beautiful old cemetery at C— to pay tribute to a loved one there, I came upon an aged couple standing beside a grave. Her hair was as white as her form frost on a December morning, his hair as bent and gnarled as a knotted woodbine striving to climb about the intervening trunk of some half-fallen monarch of the wood. Trembling with age and emotion, they knelt beside that mound.

"Oh," cried the man, letting his tears drop unrestrained upon the grasses, "he might have been such a fine man by now—if he had not yielded to the cursed power of drink!"

But the mother, bending low above the grave, pressed one hand against her heart and with the other placed a wreath upon her sacred ground! Speechless she arose, took the weeping husband gently by the arm and turned away, but as she walked her eyes were turned upward in a mother's supplication to One who is infinitely greater than Bacchus and the Circean cup!

Splinters of Thought.

There is a time for all things, but it wouldn't hurt to pray a little when you are down on your knees looking under the bed for your collar button!

Jud. Lewis, of the Houston Post, says the forest gets reheaded about a little frost. Wonder if those reheaded widows Jud. brags about have been frostbitten?

A country editor says you cannot win a girl by talking about the weather. Oh, I don't know. Suppose he said upon meeting her, "Beautiful morning, isn't it!" She would reply that it was beautiful! Then he would say, "Gee, look out; it's raining!" Wouldn't she reply, dodging under his coat, "Oh, this is so sudden?"

Dresden has a bathing establishment for dogs. No wonder Thomas W. Lawson kicks about the passing of the mother Hubbard.

Finding the Advertisement.

The following local is credited to an Irish advertiser in a weekly paper: Don't fail to read the ad. of Pat O'Brien in another column. If you have mislaid this paper you can find the ad. in last week's issue.

When Success Came.

"Was he a drinking man?" asked counsel of a woman who was testifying on the stand in regard to the habits of her husband. "Well," was the reply, "for the first six months after our marriage he didn't drink any to speak of, but after that he drank to great success."

Only Road to Happiness.

The only way you'll ever be happy in life is through unselfishness. Being self-centered never brought any lasting good to anybody.

PE-RU-NA

For Cramps in the Stomach of Six Years' Standing.

"I was troubled with cramps in the stomach for six years. I tried many kinds of medicine, also was treated by three doctors.

"They said that I had nervous dyspepsia. I took the medicine for two years, then I got sick again and gave up all hopes of getting cured.

"I saw a testimonial of a man whose case was similar to mine, being cured by Peruna, so thought I would give it a trial. I procured a bottle at once, and commenced taking it.

"I have taken nineteen bottles, and am entirely cured. I believe Peruna is all that is claimed for it."—Mrs. J. C. Jamison, 61 Marchant St., Watonsville, Cal.

ALL THE DIFFERENCE.

He—Before Jones got married he used to command a large salary. She—And now? He—Now he only earns it. His wife commands it!

More Than One. A young fellow, whose better-half had just presented him with a pair of bouncing twins, attended church one Sunday.

During the discourse the clergyman looked right out at our innocent friend and said with thrilling eloquence: "Young man, you have an important responsibility thrust upon you."

The newly fledged dad, supposing the preacher alluded to his peculiar home event, considerably startled the audience by exclaiming: "Yes, I have two of 'em."—Liverpool Mercury.

Laundry work at home would be much more satisfactory if the right Starch were used. In order to get the desired stiffness, it is usually necessary to use so much starch that the beauty and fineness of the fabric is hidden behind a paste of varying thickness, which not only destroys the appearance, but also affects the wearing quality of the goods. This trouble can be entirely overcome by using Defiance Starch, as it can be applied much more thinly because of its greater strength than other makes.

From Plutarch. Neither rich furniture nor abundance of gold, nor a descent from an illustrious family, nor greatness of authority, nor eloquence and all the charms of speaking, can produce so great a serenity of life as a mind free from guilt, kept untainted, not free from actions, but purposes that are wicked.—Plutarch.

Wise people use Hamlin's Wizard Oil to stop pain because they know it always makes good. Foolish people try experiments. Ask your druggists about it.

At the Butcher's. "Is this meat dear?" "No, ma'am, sheep!"

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS. PAIN OINTMENT is guaranteed to cure any case of itching, burning, bleeding or protruding piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c.

It's difficult to get a crooked man interested in the scenery along the straight and narrow path.

Lewis' Single Binder straight 5c cigar. Made of extra quality tobacco. Your dealer or Lewis' Factory, Peoria, Ill.

When a man gives more than a dollar to charity he usually manages to get caught in the act.

Dyspepsia and constipation are avoidable miseries—take Garfield Tea, Nature's Herb laxative.

Samson was the first actor on record to bring down the house.

Allen's Foot-Paste, a Powder for sore feet, corns, blisters, etc. The original powder for the feet. 50c at all druggists.

From the blackmailer's viewpoint, keeping secrets is a paying business.

WORTH MOUNTAINS OF GOLD

During Change of Life, says Mrs. Chas. Barclay

Graniteville, Vt. — "I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved worth mountains of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter."—MRS. CHAS. BARCLAY, B.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weaknesses, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration,