POOR OPINION OF TEXAS

Dr. J. H. Long Writes It is a Frost for "Land Suckers."

College View, Neb., April 22, 1909-- My Dear Burleigh: When I left Lincoln for Texas about the middle of February, I did not think such a length of time would elapse before I would be able to write you.

Let me say this--The man who has a good home on a Nebraska farm and by reading real estate advertisements or listening to the pictures drawn of a prospective home in Texas by real estate agents, and who deliberately undertakes to convince himself that he can better his condition by going to Texas, will be sadly fooled when he makes the change.

From Dennison to Huston, there is to be found the greatest belt of black soil in the world. This belt is tilled like a garden and devoted to the raising of cotton and corn.

I heard more complaint, saw more broken hearted men on the train and at Kansas City, who were returning from the Panhandle than I saw even in Corpus Christi.

You will readily guess that I am not writing this letter in the interest of any real estate man, but I am doing so, merely in the hope that I may save disgruntled or dissatisfied Nebraskans from being caught in the Texas land schemes that are flooding your homes and filling the papers.

From San Antonio to Corpus Christi and across country to Brownsville, the road traverses a tableland that here and there blossoms like an Eden where irrigated.

At Point Isabel, south of Brownsville, and which you reach by a ride on a wood-burning, old-time narrow gauge road which passes through a country that is indescribable on account of its ponds, cactus, mesquite and chapparrell bush.

On our return to Corpus Christi I was compelled to spend a month in the hospital on account of a visit from my old friend, the rheumatism.

on account of the prolonged drouth and frosts.

The chicken industry would seem to be a winning one on account of the high price of eggs, but chickens can not be raised in a house as they can in Nebraska.

It would be interesting to know just how much business the coast towns would do without the influx of "land suckers," as they call the northern land seekers.

A great deal is said about the orange crop and southern Texas is compared with California as an orange raising section.

Why bless you, no. The breezes from the gulf temper the winds that blow daily from the south and the climate is nice and cool.

I heard more complaint, saw more broken hearted men on the train and at Kansas City, who were returning from the Panhandle than I saw even in Corpus Christi.

Should anyone become afflicted with the feeling that a newspaper contains but little reading matter, says an exchange, just take a pencil and paper and copy from ten to fourteen columns of "home stuff."

to in this letter I have from the U. S. Meteorological station, and where I have referred to the diseases in any locality, I quote from the most prominent railroad physicians in that locality.

Along R. R. No. 2. Andy Widstrand had business in Loup City Friday.

The dance at John Fredrickson's Saturday night was well attended and everybody enjoyed a good time.

A. J. Lindgren finished sowing oats Monday. The Kuhl young folks attended the Fredrickson dance Saturday night.

John Olsen and family visited at Art Lindgren's Sunday. Joe Lindahl planted trees Monday.

Mrs. A. Widstrand is reported better. The Klirner brothers visited at John Olsen's Sunday evening.

Henry Goodwin planted potatoes Saturday. Farmers are ready this week getting the ground ready for corn; some are discing stalks and others are plowing.

Ernest Daddow has commenced the erection of a new barn. He will have a fine place when completed.

Mrs. W. H. Brodock is improving slowly. Henry Kuhl planted potatoes Monday.

Ernest Daddow brought home a big bill of lumber from Loup City Saturday. Ferdinand Kuhl received notice from Lincoln that he was entitled to bounty for killing coyotes four years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Burt traded in Loup City Saturday. Claus Olsen of St. Paul visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olsen, over last Sunday.

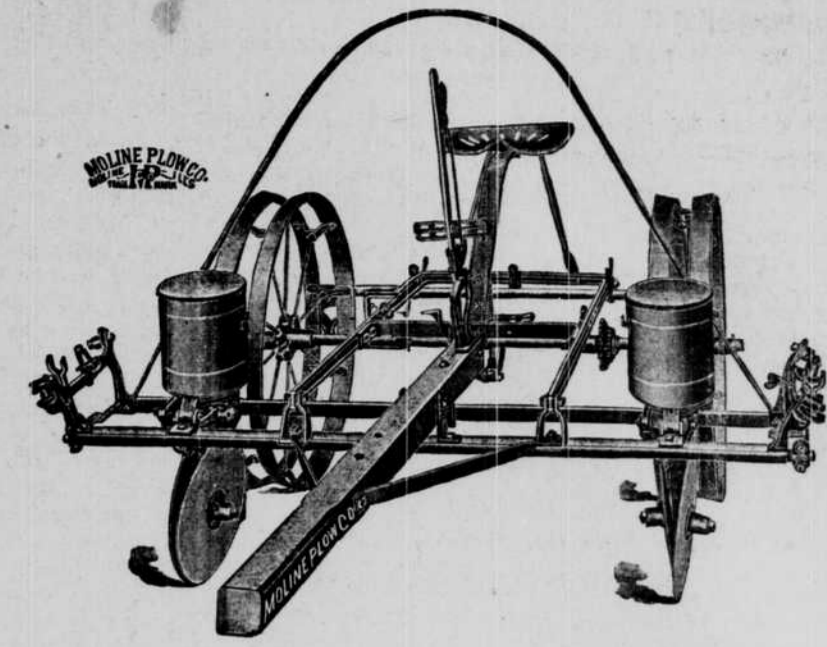

The carrier found a sack of grain at the Brodock mail box Monday.

CROSS EYES! are in 9 cases out of 10 the result of Eye-Strain, which if relieved by glasses in early life would never cause crossed eyes.

Preliminary symptoms of Eye troubles that cause crossed eyes are: Pain in back of eyes; pain in temples, sometimes running over ears; print jumps after reading for a time.

It will pay you to see me at the St. Elmo hotel. I do not go out of the hotel to work. Not a drop of medicine used.
