 Who can pull the more—a horse or a number of men of the equal weight of the horse? This will be decided on Opening Day at Jenner's Park, Thursday, June 3d. We believe the men can. The horse if he wins gets an extra feed, the men a box of choice cigars.
 A large audience assembled at the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening on the occasion of the baccalaureate address to the class of '09 by Rev. J. O. Hawk of the M. E. church. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and warm praise is accorded Rev. Hawk's address to the class. Solos were rendered by Mrs. B. P. McKinnie and Miss Lizzie Leininger in their usual pleasing manner.
 Dr. S. A. Allen was one of the passengers on the motor Monday evening that got becalmed between here and Austin by reason of the washouts. He went to Lincoln last Wednesday to attend the state dental meeting, and from there went to Omaha, Council Bluffs and other points. While at the Bluffs an uncle suddenly passed away Saturday, and he remained over to attend the obsequies and visit with his good mother.
 Unfortunately, we were not able to attend the opening season of Boyd Burrows' merry players in their tent, last Saturday evening, but those who were more fortunate claim he had a record breaking crowd and that the show was a No. 1, just as was expected. Boyd did a very generous act in giving one-tenth of the proceeds of his first night to the piano fund of the high school of this city. And that was just what might be expected of Loup City's own first-class showman.
 Last Saturday afternoon, while Earl Daddow was running and jumping from one freight car to another in the U. P. yards, he missed the distance between two cars and falling managed to cling to the top of the car, but cut a gash in his right leg below the knee that required several stitches to close. He will be laid up for a number of days. The little fellow had been warned by his father against this dangerous sport, and the result was just what has happened so many times. It may prove a valuable lesson to others who engage in this dangerous pastime. It was extremely fortunate he did not meet more serious accident.

A TRIP OF A LIFE TIME
 The grand tour of the Pacific Coast is a journey of a life time; a tour of Europe is also a trip of a life time; but the difference is that the Coast trip is directly within your reach at a far less cost than any other extensive journey can possibly be made. May 6th to 13th, only $50.00 to California and back, and commencing May 20th, through the summer, only $50.00 to Seattle and back; for $15.00 more you can include California. One makes a tour of from 5,000 to 6,000 miles through a wonderland replete with modern interest linked with a romantic past.

Write me for "Alaska Expedition" leaflets, "California Personally Conducted Excursions, to the Great Northwest," "Yellowstone Park."

Let me help you plan your tour.
