FOR SHERIFF
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for re-election to the office of Sheriff of Sherman county, Nebraska, subject to the will of the electors at the primaries. O. F. PERKINS.

FOR COUNTY CLERK
I wish to announce that I will be a candidate for the nomination of County Clerk on the People's Independent and Democratic tickets; subject to the approval of the electors at the general primaries. EDGAR DRAPER.

SUP. OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION
I hereby announce that I am a candidate for the office of County Superintendent of Public Instruction in and for Sherman county, Nebraska, subject to the will of the voters at the general election on November 7, 1909. MARY A. K. HENDRICKSON.

The democrats and populists met in this city last Saturday and effected fusion. That is, a few representatives of the two parties met in this city and did the act. The democrats met first in the public square and selected Louis Rein as their choice for treasurer and then took a recess for the purpose of allowing the populists to select all the other candidates, the democrats being willing to give the right-of-way on all the balance of the ticket, if they were allowed to name the candidate for treasurer. The pops then met in the court house and endorsed the democratic choice for treasurer and proceeded to name Dan Carpenter for sheriff, W. C. Dietrich for county clerk, Dr. Dickinson for coroner and E. B. Corning for surveyor. They then took a recess to give the democrats a chance to meet again and endorse their recommendations, which the dems did with speed and fusion was effected. In the foregoing, as one delegate or more out of the two bunches said, Otto Petersen and Edgar Draper got it where the chicken got the axe. The Northwestern representative was present at the double-headed affair and counted some nine to eleven democratic delegates and about a dozen pop delegates who were present to make the political tie-up. Just what the candidates who got left, so far as it was possible for the double-headed convention to do, will do in the matter, we are unable at this writing to state, but hardly believe they will go way back and sit down, but will go before the primaries of their respective parties and fight it out there. It is the general opinion that there will be a merry go-as-you-please fight on at the primaries and that the endorsement will amount to less than the number of votes represented at the so-called conventions.

Will the Times-Independent tell its readers how it arrives at the conclusion that Governor Sheldon spent $35.25 per month for traveling expenses? Is it not because in the 24 months during which he was governor, the total amount of claims audited for such expense amounted to $846.00 while the audited expense for this one item of railroad transportation purchased by Gov. Shallenberger during the five months mentioned by the Times-Independent is $600.00. That looks and sounds very much like the usual trend of Democratic argument and economy. Charlie says "You are all aware of the fact, or at least you ought to be, that the amount left over by an official does not become available to his successor." Such a display of ignorance in an editor of a Loup City paper who is trying to be a credit to the community is positively painful, so, for his enlightenment we will give him this information: Appropriations for state officials are not made to the person, but to the official, and is legally drawn upon by that official, be it Gov. Sheldon or Gov. Shallenberger, or any other legally elected official, if within the time between April 1st at the close of the legislature and the April 1st of the second year thereafter, commonly known as the biennium. If Gov. Shallenberger had permitted this specific $600.00 to remain in the people's treasury, without a contract for its expenditure against it prior to April 1st, then this sum would have lapsed back to the people and the taxpayers would have been $600.00 ahead. This expenditure does not in the least affect the $1,000.00 additional appropriated for the governor's expenses by the last legislature, which appropriation Gov. Shallenberger can draw against throughout the balance of his term. Correct information is a good thing to give your readers, Charlie.

Among the political announcements at the head of our editorial columns this week appears the card of Mrs. Mary A. K. Hendrickson, asking the nomination at the hands of the voters of all parties. Mrs. Hendrickson by principle and environments has always been a republican, but above all has the interests of education at heart and asks the votes of all friends of school interests. She filed her petition with the county clerk yesterday morning.

Among the casualties of the National celebration Monday was caused by a young fellow in Iowa lighting a cannon cracker with his cigar and throwing away his smoker placed the cracker between his lips, where it exploded, knocking out two or three of his teeth and nearly putting out an eye. It was a case of pure carelessness, not intentional.

Scientists say we couldn't live without microbes. Wish, however, they couldn't live within us.

Finishing Corn Cultivation

Just a closing word on laying by the corn. Most of the fields are now being cultivated for the last time, and Nebraska corn is indeed promising. The question which concerns a good farmer is "How can I improve the yield of my corn field?" When we carefully figure up the time we have already spent in bringing the soil to a proper tilth and the corn to its present conditions will it pay us to add just a little more labor if we can further increase the yield? We think it will, and therefore wish to urge that the field be gone over with a single horse, five-tooth cultivator, which will destroy the young weeds, level the ground and conserve the moisture for the corn itself. This should be done twice at least, the first time commencing about July 15th and the second time during the first week in August. Should a heavy rain occur near the times stated, follow with cultivation as quickly as you can get on the ground. Doubtless you will say this is too much work when we are busy in grain and hay fields, but it will easily pay an expenditure of $3.00 per day. This is not theory but is gathered from actual experience, for it was the plan followed by the boy at Gretna who raised 102 bushels on a single acre last year while his father's field adjoining, cultivated in the usual old-fashioned manner, went only 35 bushels to the acre. Two years ago in competition for the prize offered in the acre corn contest by the State Board of Agriculture, Harry Oldero, of Gretna, raised 118 bushels and 30 pounds from a single acre and finished up his cultivation in this manner. With such facts confronting you, can you afford to miss your opportunity?—Nebraska State Board of Agriculture.

M. E. Church Notes.
Rev. Earl P. Pray will preach at 10:30 next Sunday. For the evening service the Epworth League will occupy the hour, following Leslie Sweetland will give an address on Y. M. C. During the pastor's absence all services of the church will be held as usual.

The Wayne Democrat tells of a Madison man, who in looking through a lot of papers, ran across the following list of distressing accidents: While Miss Pearl Kinsmore of East Wind, Ind., was coming down stairs Tuesday, she slipped and bruised herself on the landing. Amos Wittley of Woolpost, Kas., while harnessing a fractious horse, was kicked just south of the corn crib. He is able to be about again. While Harold Green of Beulah, Miss., was escorting Miss Violet Goof home from church Sunday night a savage dogset upon them and bit Mr. Green four times in the public square. Joseph Tutt of Grimmelburg, Ia., climbed on the roof of his home last week to find a leak and slipped and fell, striking upon his back porch, and caused serious injuries. Isaiah Timmer of Danbury, Neb., was playing with a cat Friday, when the animal scratched him on the veranda.

Iron cloth is made from steel, and has the appearance of horsehair cloth. It is largely used by tailors as a material for stiffening the shoulders and collars of coats.

Non-Partisan Candidates

An amendments to the primary law has made candidates for the office of chief justice of the supreme court, judge of the supreme court, judge of the district court, county judge, regent of the state university, state and county superintendents of public instruction non-partisan.

These candidates cannot be nominated otherwise than by petition and have no political party distinction whatever. With the county judge and county superintendent, a petition must be circulated and signed by not less than 200 electors. All other candidates are nominated by party primary or by petition.

A special ballot will be provided for the non-partisan candidates at each election, which will be termed "Official Non-Partisan Ballot." By this change of the law the candidates for the office of county judge and county superintendent will now be strictly the choice of the people.
