Mr. Victor Johnson from south of town left Saturday morning for a month's visit at Moline, Galesburg and various other points in Illinois.

It has been nine years since he had taken a trip back to that section. We trust the grand old man may have a most enjoyable time.

Charley Bennett arrived here from Hastings Monday evening and Tuesday morning began work at Chase's drug store as the new pharmacist. Charley has made good in the pharmacy business since his graduation from the Creighton School of Pharmacy and will be a valuable addition to the force of clerks at Chase's.

Lewis Rein returned home from Chicago last Saturday evening, where he underwent a surgical operation for the removal of stones in the bladder. Mr. Rein had one stone removed which measured 1 1/2 by 1 1/2 inches, and will have to return to Chicago this fall and have a still larger one removed from his left kidney. The operation passed through recently, which by the way is, we believe, the fourth operation he has been subjected to, was one of the most successful of the many cases at the hospital and he comes home in especially good health for one who has been through such experience. We had hoped this last operation would be a final as well as successful one, but the fates suffer it to be different, and he will be obliged to submit to the surgeon's knife at least once more.

Ruth Montgomery is reported improving nicely.

Miss Maud Hinman returned home to St. Edwards this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams of Ashton, Ills., cousins of E. G. Taylor, visited him over last Sunday. Also Father and Mother Taylor were up from St. Paul at the same time.

Word is received that Miss Hattie Froelich, who has been ill with typhoid fever and in a hospital at Sedalia, Mo., has so far recovered as to be discharged from the hospital.

E. G. Taylor went to Hastings on business Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Taylor went to Lincoln Wednesday morning, where Mr. Taylor will meet her today and they come home together.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Fross returned home from the Epworth Assembly at Lincoln last Saturday. While absent they made a short visit at Table Rock with a sister of Mrs. Fross. They report a splendid time.

Mr. Francis Goff of Denver, accompanied by his brother-in-law, Walt. Rollo of Stockham, walked in on the family of S. Foss of Webster township Monday evening. Mr. Goff is a brother of Mrs. Foss, whom she had not seen for 19 years.

Joseph James went to Grand Island last Saturday to meet his wife and son on their return from Golden, Colo., the party coming in on the evening train. Pastor James is looking much better than when he went away some weeks since, and we trust he may improve rapidly now at home.

Among our new and renewal subscribers since last report are the following, to whom we return thanks: J. C. Wall, Wm. Hancock, Dr. J. H. Long, Mrs. Mary Gardner for Lewis Bowers and Chester Hiser, Hans M. Johnson, T. H. Elsner, Fred Thode, J. F. Reynolds, Joe Siepmann, John J. Zink, Fred E. Shipley.

Several Loup City people went to Litchfield to Woodman picnic this morning.

O. E. Adams on Monday moved into the Odendahl cottage vacated by H. P. Ferdinandt.

M. R. Youngquest of Logan township has lost three calves by lightning the past week.

Rev. Max A. Jeffords came down from Rosevale, Monday, to visit his parents, and will return to his home tomorrow.

E. E. Tracy yesterday brought in the Logan township vote, with his blessing(?) resting upon the fool primary farce.

Elmer Babcock and wife were up from Clay township yesterday, interested in the outcome of the Bristol cemetery case.

Mrs. T. C. Bishop arrived from Gross, this state, Monday evening, called by the death of her father, Mr. Geo. Keeler.

The M. E. Sunday school classes of Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Depew had a most enjoyable picnic at Jenner's Park last evening.

The board of supervisors meet today as a board of equalization and tomorrow will continue the session for routine business.

Theo. Wilson was up from Ashton with the returns yesterday, and like all the rest of the people execrated the farcical primary law.

Miss Marie Cooper celebrated the 13th anniversary of her birthday last Monday evening with a party numbering some eight of her girl friends.

Mrs. Minnie Becker arrived from Omaha last Saturday evening, but a few hours in advance of the passing away of her father, Mr. Geo. Keeler.

Miss Pearl Keeler left for Stanton, Neb., Monday morning to make arrangements for the interment of the body of her deceased father at his old home city.

Herman Johansen lost two of his pure-bred Poland China hogs last Saturday, caused by the intense heat. One of them cost him $85 a few months since. Surely Herman is playing it hard luck.

As we noted last week, R. P. Starr has moved into the O'Bryan cottage vacated by Joe Thompson; Ben H. Pageler moved into the house vacated by Starr and S. A. Pratt takes the house vacated by Pageler.

Hereafter J. W. Conger will deliver no ice to any save those holding contracts, owing to shortage of the congealed aqua, save in cases of sickness, when Mr. Conger, as always in the past, will deliver gratis to all such.

C. W. Conhiser yesterday came into possession of a Filippino sword and dagger which are curiosities. The sword shows the incision in the blade for the poison the savages use in their murderous warfare. Ask Charley to see the diabolical instruments.

Born, Wednesday, Aug. 18, 1909, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morsch of Hinkley, Ills., a baby boy. Mrs. Morsch is a niece of S. F. Reynolds, and that accounts for the seraphic smile S. F. is wearing, he receiving a telegram to that effect last evening.

We see by the Grand Junction, (Colo.) Herald that E. C. Pielstick, son-in-law of W. H. Hughes of this city, and who moved to Grand Junction last year, has sold his fruit ranch to a man from Phillips, Neb., for $1,200 per acre, and contemplates coming back to Nebraska.

Oscar Swanson returns home this evening from the Creighton College of Pharmacy in Omaha, where he last Thursday received his diploma as pharmacist, and we learn passed the very highest grade in his studies for the term, being in class A in each one, and stands at the head of the large class of 25 which graduated with him. This will be most pleasing to the legion of friends of the young man who has made good in his studies and very good at that. He has proved an honor to his native town and all will be pleased to give him warm credit.

We received a pleasant call last Saturday afternoon from Mr. and Mrs. Hans M. Johnson, who some time since bought the J. H. Holyross place in Washington township. Mr. Johnson and his good wife were long time residents of Franklin county, this state, a few miles south of Minden, and moved from there to Denyer where Mr. Johnson engaged in market gardening, but his wife's health not being good in that high altitude, and he not liking the gardening business, came to Sherman county, where they are most pleased with their home.

Mr. Johnson has made the old Holyross place to blossom like the rose, and being an up-to-date farmer, has made a most attractive home and farm out of the old place. He is the kind of man Sherman county can most cordially extend the welcoming hand to.

The Cemetery Case.

On the 23rd day of July, 1909, a complaint was filed in County Court charging the Zeller boys and Walter Treon with defacing a number of monuments in the Hayestown cemetery, a warrant issued and the boys were brought into court where the matter was continued to the 18th day of August, when the matter came up for trial and after selecting a jury and some preliminary skirmishes the county attorney dismissed without prejudice as to the Zeller boys, while Mr. Treon plead guilty on behalf of his boy and the judge imposed a fine of $25 and costs which was promptly paid and the boy discharged. This is a most unfortunate case, and while we have no inside information, we agree with what Judge Pedler said in summing up, that a boy ten years of age had no conception of the magnitude of the offense or what was meant by criminal intent; that he had known Mr. Treon for a great many years and had never known anything but good of him; that the boy looked good to him and if one poor little fellow had a monopoly on these things there had been a material change since he was a boy. The judge said further that he understood Mr. Treon, although not liable under the law, had made arrangements with the Paine Marble Co. of Grand Island to place all parties in statu quo, as near as possible, which he considered very commendable and for that reason felt justified in using clemency in the exercise of his discretion in the matter.

Presbyterian Bulletin

Please do not forget your Bibles and note-books next Sunday morning. Every pupil in the Sunday school will want to be present next Sunday to learn about the coming picnic. The pastor will speak at the close of the open-air service next Sunday evening. Miss Esther Musser will lead the C. E. meeting, the topic being, "Two Prayer Lessons." Do not forget that the open-air service is at 7 o'clock.

M. E. Church Notes.

Next Sunday morning the pastor will preach a sermon for the children subject, "King's Gardens." All are invited. In the evening at 7 o'clock Mr. Edward Thrasher will lead the Epworth League. At the evening service, Miss Mary Baschko, a deaconess from Kansas City Training School will speak. Do not fail to hear her. J. O. Hawk will preach at the Ballie school house for his last time, Sunday, August 22, at 3 p. m.

Henning Claussen was down from Washington township yesterday, having some business at the court house.

Last week the Ord Quiz had a fullsome article for the Ord base ball team over its victory here over the home team. It was a wonderful exposition of how Ord did it. Yesterday the Loup City kids went to Ord in a return contest and slew the Ord fancy article by a score of 5 to 4. This week undoubtedly the Quiz sporting editor will shed barrels of the briny over the Loup City "Amateurs" mopping up the earth with the Ord aggregation. Poor Quiz(zer).
