A vast majority of cases can be cured by my system of home treatment, which is the most successful system ever devised. In Holt, Burt, Wayne and many other counties in our state the position of county superintendent is filled by a woman. It is said that the foreign voter does not take to a woman in county offices, but down in old Cuming county where the German people overwhelmingly dominate, they have had a woman county superintendent, Miss Miller, for years and will have no other. Indeed, this year the politicians could find no one to run against her. In every county where a lady has succeeded a gentleman as superintendent the record shows that the lady has given better satisfaction than the man.—Pierce Call.

Out in Platte county some fellow wrote in the name of a rock-ribbed democrat under the county clerk heading on the republican ballot. Not another vote was cast for that office by the republicans, and as a consequence the democrat is the republican nominee. This amounts to little, as it will of course be but a joke, but it shows one of the many defects in the present primary ballot. This could easily be corrected by requiring a candidate to receive a certain number—say ten per cent—of the party vote before entitling him to a place upon the fall ballot.—Plattsmouth Journal.

Here is A. J. Russell's recipe for staying young: "Don't be in a hurry to get old. Let the children jump on you and bounce a few times. Get down and roll over on the floor with them, and get your whiskers all tangled up with the baby's little go-cart. Set up the candy and get the joyful noise into your system. Don't be afraid of getting your enamel scratched. Teach them how to climb a tree and make a noise like a whoo-hoo. Let them bore a gimlet hole in your wooden leg and step on your foot for a ride when you walk. In this way you keep in their favor. It is a fine thing to be liked by children." Amen to that.

Bro. Beushausen in his Times complained last week that he had spilled printer's ink over him. Charley should have gotten out from under the fountain. His lame explanation of his attack upon Walt Weare, republican candidate for county clerk, shows a badly crippled state. The Northwestern called the Times to account, not only for its unwarranted and false statement ascribing socialist tendencies to Mr. Weare, but for Mr. Beushausen's personal assertion to us that Mr. Weare was a Socialist, and that he had proof in the shape of a letter from someone of some where to that effect, but carefully refrained from stating where or by whom. If Mr. Beushausen has proof that Mr. Weare is a socialist, why does he not produce his proof, instead of the cowardly innuendo and covert allusion, even avoiding naming the person attacked, and later refusing to fact to cover his defamatory tracks. Mr. Weare does not have to answer Mr. Beushausen's false insinuation through his (Mr. Beushausen's) paper, but does so through the proper channel, the Northwestern, the accredited mouthpiece of the republican party in this county, and common courtesy demands that Mr. Beushausen should through his own paper and by himself in his editorial columns give Mr. Weare the benefit of the denial of what the Times falsely ascribed to the republican candidate for county clerk. Will Mr. Beushausen do so, or will he with utter lack of common newspaper courtesy fail to do justice in the matter?

The State Teachers' Association meets in Lincoln on the 3rd, 4th and 5th of November 1909.

Last year's splendid attendance demonstrated the wisdom of fixing an earlier date than the winter holidays and a date when all teachers, school officers, and patrons are most interested in education. The Association is not a holiday celebration—it is a earnest men and women for mutual help and inspiration in the work of making Nebraska's public schools the most effective in the world.

The executive committee, the local committee and the Lincoln Commercial Club have given the most careful attention to every detail of program and local entertainment required for ten thousand school people.

A splendid program cannot benefit those schools whose officers and teachers are not in attendance.

Where school boards have not already granted their teachers the three days on regular pay, the superintendent of the town and city school and the teacher of the country school should place the matter before the board and give positive assurance that the time asked will be devoted to improving the work of the school. If necessary dismiss school and make up the time later.

You are engaged in a great work for a great state. Be patriotic.

For Executive Committee.

The Waitress was Game

The Hastings Tribune prints this incident in the life of one peddler: The dapper little traveling man glanced at the menu card and then looked up at the pretty waitress, "Nice day, little one," he began. "Yes it is," she replied. "And so was yesterday, and my name is Ella, and I know I'm a little peach and have pretty blue eyes and I've been here quite a while and I like the place and I don't think I'm too nice a girl to work in a hotel; if I did I'd quit my job, and my wages are satisfactory and I don't know if there is a dance or a show in town tonight, and if there is I shall not go with you, and I'm from the country and I'm a respectable girl and my brother is cook in this hotel and he weighs 200 pounds and last week he wiped up this dining room with a fresh fifty-dollar-a-month traveling man who tried to make a date with me. Now what'll you have?" The dapper little traveling man said he wasn't very hungry and a cup of coffee and some hot cakes would do.

An exact definition of a gentleman has been tried many times, never perhaps with entirely satisfactory results. Little Sadie had never heard of any of the various definitions, but she managed to throw a gleam of light on the subject, albeit one touched with unconscious cynicism. The word was in the spelling-lesson, and I said: "Sadie, what is a gentleman?" "Please, ma'am," she answered, "a gentleman's a man you don't know very well."—Woman's Home Companion for October.

Austin News

Services were held at Austin church last Sunday afternoon and evening by Rev. Montgomery of Loup City, and there will be services next Sabbath at 10 o'clock by Rev. Johnson of Kearney.

The farmers are all busy seeding winter wheat.

Charley Snyder of Wiggle Creek shipped three cars of fat cattle from Austin Monday. Austin is doing a thriving trade in live stock these days.

Mrs. Willis Fulliton has been quite sick the past few days, but is on the mend at present.

Everybody is complaining of colds since the frost of last Friday night.

Mrs. Effa Cady of Kinsman, Ohio, arrived last Saturday evening at the home of Willis Fulliton. She was late for the Loup City train out of Lincoln, so had to come by way of Ravenna where her cousin, Willis Fulliton of Austin, met her. Mrs. Cady expects to make Sherman county her future home.
