Queensland now supplies most of the wood for fishing rods. But the average country boy does not have to go nearly that far.

The Pennsylvania pastor who offers boxes of candy to girls who bring young men to church evidently believes in sweet persuasion as a moral force.

A New York man invents a hat that can be turned into an umbrella. People are trying of the sort that can be turned into clothes hampers.

Anyhow, Uncle Sam saw it first. Even Cook and Peary will agree to that.

THE STATE ELECTION

REPUBLICANS DRAWING AWAY FROM THEIR OPPONENTS.

REPUBLICAN GAINS INDICATED

G. O. P. Candidates Can Lose Three Votes to Precinct Absolutely in Remainder of State and Still Win.

Fifty-eight counties complete, six counties incomplete, and forty-nine scattered precincts from all parts of the state, give the following vote on judges: Dean 68,263, Good 68,936, Sullivan 69,612, Barnes 71,606, Fawcett 71,220, Sedgwick 71,126.

The democrats practically concede the defeat of Judge Dean, basing their only hope on the western vote, which is not helping Dean a great deal. If Judge Dean gets in he must defeat Judge Barnes, the high man on the republican ticket.

Sawyer, 782; surveyor, Joe M. Loomis, 820; superintendent, Wilfred Voss, 707. Democrats—treasurer, D. G. Evans, 674; clerk, John C. Hogan, 676; county judge, D. C. Heffernan, 692; clerk district court, George H. Pranger, 573; sheriff, William O'Dell, 532.

Kearney—Election day in Buffalo county passed off with no unusual excitement. The vote was lacking considerable of being as heavy as last fall. The following officers are conceded to be elected, although there is one township missing which will make no particular difference in the result: Treasurer, Gilbert Hasse; clerk, Jesse Dean; sheriff, Walter Simmons; judge, J. E. Hallowell; register of deeds, Victor B. Wheelock; superintendent, Hays; coroner, Dr. J. C. Norcross; surveyor W. E. Edwards.

Clay Center—Clay county complete, unofficial for county office: Republicans—treasurer, 1689; clerk, 1657;

Many of the counties still to be heard from are in the west. The first thirty counties gave Judge Barnes a lead over Judge Dean of 3,485. So the additional counties have not detracted from the lead of the Custer county jurist. The loss to the democrats has shown particularly in the vote for Sullivan.

The additional information obtained from twenty-seven complete counties and three incomplete counties over the returns on hand Thursday morning show a continued and decided gain for the republican candidates for judge and increase the chances that all three will be elected.

Returns from fifty-six complete counties and six incomplete counties give the following totals: Dean 65,324, Good 66,034, Sullivan 66,528, Barnes 68,483, Fawcett 68,098, Sedgwick 68,904. The vote two years ago was almost a parallel in volume with that last Tuesday.
