M. P. Ford Dead.

Mrs. D. L. Adamson last Friday received the sad news that her only brother, M. P. Ford, had passed away at 5 o'clock that morning after a long and intense suffering with blood poisoning and dropsy, and left for Cheyenne Saturday morning to attend the obsequies. "Morg" Ford was formerly a resident of Loup City, being among its first settlers, some nine years ago moving to Cheyenne, Wyo., where he has since resided. About three years ago he met with an accidental fall from a scaffold, resulting in the amputation of one leg, from the effects of which he never fully recovered. Deceased was 49 years of age, and leaves a loving wife and three daughters, besides his aged mother and sister, both of this city, to mourn his death. The host of friends in this community extend their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

Judge Hunter wants several cars of baled hay for shipment. See him about it.

Miss Nettie Fowler went to Aurora last Saturday morning to visit for a few days.

A baby boy arrived last Thursday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taylor.

H. B. Musser and family left Wednesday morning for their future home in Lincoln.

Fred P. King, who is now living at Eastabrook, Wyo., remits for another year of Northwestern visits. Thanks.

Judge Moon came home last Friday noon from his claim in the Scotts Bluff country to spend the holiday season.

Rev. John Zimmerman of Orchard, arrived last Wednesday on a visit to his brother, A. L. Zimmerman, and family.

Mrs. Victor Johnson arrived Monday evening from Aurora, where she spent Xmas, to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McLaughlin.

Miss Johanna Oltmann came home for Christmas, and Brother Billy, the Northwestern's efficient circular editor, was made happy as a lark.

Mrs. Nellie Platz and baby girl of Fremont, arrived last Thursday evening for a visit during the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Williams.

H. B. Musser and family, Misses Flora and Frieda Ohlsen, and Herman and Will Ohlsen were entertained at dinner last Sunday at the home of John Lofholm.

Will Zimmerman, who now has his headquarters at Omaha, arrived here last Saturday evening for a visit with his many friends and relatives, returning Tuesday morning.

Will Engle last week disposed of a half interest in his barber shop to Claude McCall, who has been holding down a chair in those tonsorial parlors. They will make a good team.

Joseph Amsler, a flour and feed man of St. Paul, and an old resident of that city, succumbed by the gun route last week Tuesday noon. No known reason given for the act. He leaves a widow.

Miss Maude Reynolds came up from Eustis, last Saturday, where she is teaching, to visit a few days at home, and was to return to her school duties yesterday morning. She reports as enjoying very much her educational work there.

A reception was given last Tuesday evening at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Main by the Unity Club to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Musser, the husbands of the club members also being invited. A very enjoyable time is reported.

It was reported before Christmas that several nuptial stunts were to be pulled off prior to that day, but as they failed to ripen, perhaps all have been postponed till the New Year, so as to start their auspicious lives in the hymeneal harness in 1910.

A. E. Houser and wife were up from Aurora from Friday to Monday visiting Mrs. Houser's mother, Mrs. H. Leininger, and other relatives. While here Mr. Houser suffered from a severe attack of his old enemy, asthma, and their return home was hastened thereby.

Martin Enevoldsen and family went to Dannebrog last Saturday morning for Christmas dinner with his parents and where Mrs. Enevoldsen and children were to remain for a few days' visit, while Martin took a trip up to Northport, to take a look at the layout of the country. They will not return till after New Year's Day.

The great and good Daddow families, with their sons and daughters, sons-in-laws, daughters-in-law and grandchildren, to the number of 71, celebrated Christmas day with a reunion and dinner at the Daddow opera house, and a glorious event it was. We are informed there were some 25 more of the illustrious family tree living elsewhere who could not be present.

A letter received from our friend, T. D. Wilson, dated at Sawieffe, Cal., Dec. 23d, shows he and Mrs. Wilson are on their way home. He writes: "Please change the address of my paper to Ashton, Neb., as we expect to start east soon. This is a delightful country and we dread to leave it. The weather is fine here, with a nice rain occasionally, and children go barefooted every day. We had new potatoes, turnips and lettuce fresh from the garden the 21st. It looks and feels a good deal like Nebraska May mornings. We are well as usual and hope all our Nebraska friends are in good health. Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year," etc.

We learn that Barteno, the strong man, has leased the Daddow opera house for the coming year, paying a stipulated amount per month. Mr. Barteno, in conversing with a Northwestern reporter in regard to the proposed deal a few days' since, said if he should secure the lease he would take the house off the circuit, which has been providing some mighty poor plays of late, and get onto the "Big Wheel," which means a circuit which gives the finest of plays. He would also give roller skating events for certain evenings, first class dances and give to the people of Loup City the class of events they are entitled to, as he thinks our people are all silk and yards in width, and should receive the best ever.

A Day Late.

Don't mention it. We feel as bad about it as you do. You can't keep a good thing down, so here we are, wishing you a Happy New Year.

Thos. Bagsley is a new reader of this great and only paper. Thanks.

Miss Jennie Anderson of Hamburg, Iowa, is visiting her many friends in this city.

Most of our college students will depart Monday morning next for their school duties.

We received a pleasant call last Thursday from Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Bowzer of the west end of the county, who will hereafter be readers of the Northwestern. This insures them happiness for the New Year.

Dr. Grothan of Kearney was here Wednesday and assisted by Dr. Main, performed an operation on Mr. Ed. Kilpatrick of Webster township for internal hemorrhoids, and the patient is reported getting along nicely.

From Carl McKinnie we earn that his aunt, Mrs. Terrell of Columbus, who visited him about a month since, died last night after a short illness. Mr. McKinnie will go to Columbus tomorrow morning to attend the obsequies.

Ainslie Davis, the energetic foreman of the Greeley Independent, accompanied by his wife, spent Christmas with Mrs. Davis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Reed, in this city. Mrs. Reed returned home with them Monday for a few days' visit.

Rev. Earl Pray came home from his charge at Amherst last week and has since been quite ill with an attack of inflammation of the bowels at the home of his father, J. Q. Pray, in Logan township, and confined to bed. Last week Thursday his temperature reached 104 and the following two or three days 102. Latest reports received this morning are to the effect that Earl is getting along poorly, with every indication that he will have to pass through a siege of typhoid fever. We sincerely trust he will escape that and be speedily restored to health.

It seems everybody and then some others are putting up ice nowadays, numbers of farmers being daily at Conger's pond hauling the clear-cut congealed aqua home for their own use.

Last week we spoke of Mrs. Barteno going home with her mother to Michigan for treatment. We now learn that the lady got as far as St. Paul, when her illness precluded her attempting the journey further and she returned home, where she is now quite ill and under the doctor's care. Mr. Barteno and his young wife are surely in deep trouble, and our people will sympathize with them.

Presbyterian Bulletin

Our mid-week service tonight will be held in the church and will be in preparation for our Communion service of next Sunday morning. The subject for the Communion meditation will be, "I Press." The subject for the evening's discourse will be, "Building for Eternity."

As next week is the "Week of Prayer" we shall probably observe it by holding cottage meetings in different parts of town.
