Ross Haddix and family, west of Loup City on route 1, and 1/2 mile from the county line, had a narrow escape from death Tuesday, when their house and its contents was destroyed by fire. Mr. Haddix had built the fire in the kitchen stove and gone back to bed and in a short time the house was afire, and their escape was a miracle, as the roof was ready to fall when the fire was discovered. Mr. Haddix was burned in putting the family out safely, only saving a quilt to wrap the baby in, while the family stood out in the cold in their nightclothes till he hitched up a team, a cold job in his bare feet. Besides the contents of the house a lot of oats in a granary was also destroyed.
