Elder and Mrs. Hall in China.

The many friends of Elder and Mrs. O. A. Hall will be interested and much surprised to learn that this worthy couple, are now in China, having gone there as missionaries in the Adventist faith. Elder Hall will be remembered as coming here from Alliance in April, 1908, and taking charge of the Adventist church in this city, where he and wife have many warm friends, of whom the Northwestern editor is proud to be one. After staying here six months, Elder Hall was transferred to Hastings, where he had charge of the Sabbath school work for the whole state of Nebraska. While here, we became quite well acquainted with the gentleman and found him to be a man worth knowing, a conscientious Christian and energetic worker. Beow we copy from the Nebraska Reporter a letter from Mr. and Mrs. Hall, in their far away home in China, which will be found of interest:

"It would be impossible for us to write personal letters to all to whom we might desire, so through the Reporter we are sending thesr few lines to all. It is needless to say that during the past year we had greatly enjoyed our work among you, visit-ing many of your homes where we came in personal touch with you. It requires no small struggle to break way from the pleasant things of this life and this work, to take up the hardships of a foreign field.
