HARD FIGHT FOR BALLINGER

Richard Achilles Ballinger, secretary of the interior, has prepared to put up the greatest fight such was the case. There is not a of his career. When Gifford Pinchot threw down district of a fair amount of settlethe gauntlet and forced President Taft to oust him ment in any of the three Provinces of as forester he did not make things easier for Mr. Ballinger. With Pinchot in office Ballinger felt but has its school, and the railways that he could do less harm than if he was free to have stations every seven or eight express his opinions openly as he is now out of the government's employ.

Consequently Mr. Ballinger recognized at once that his fight with Pinchot became all the harder | Schools are largely maintained by pubwhen Pinchot wrote the letter to Senator Dolliver lic funds and the expense of tuition is that brought about his discharge. Pinchot is now placed in the position of prosecuting witness against Ballinger, and when he goes on the stand before the congressional investigating committee he will not be merely a government witness.

Then the insurgents in the house took the bit in their teeth and ran away with "Uncle Joe" Cannon's vehicle that might have been convenient in case lars, as compared with 120 million last there was any desire to haul a load of whitewash into the affair. The power of appointing the house committee was taken out of Speaker Cannon's power, and Mr. Ballinger recognized at once that there was grave danger that men friendly to his interests would not be members of the committee.

Therefore Mr. Ballinger prepared to fight. If he is a friend of the "interests," as has been charged by Glavis and others, Mr. Ballinger is sure to have the support of the Guggenheims and the people with whom they associate in business. Likewise, judging from the report of Attorney General Wickersham on the Glavis charges, Mr. Ballinger can expect aid from the Arrayed against him are what may be termed the Roosevelt forces. There is no gainsaying the fact that Pinchot's great strength lies in the fact that he is a friend and protege of Col. Roosevelt. It is not because Pinchot was a good forester and did the work well because of his love for it and a desire to conserve the natural resources of the nation for the people that he is danger ous to Ballinger. The fickle public has a way of torgetting a man's great services to his nation, but once let the people learn to love and trust a man as they do Roosevelt and they will support him and his followers to the limit. It is for this reason that all of the Roosevelt followers in the country will do everything they can to help Pinchot in his fight against Mr. Ballinger.

Mr. Ballinger is a native of Iowa and is 52 years old. He is a great lawyer and the author of several legal works He was mayor of Seattle, and was appointed commissioner of the general land office in 1907.

"MATCH KING" IN POLITICS

Ohio Columbus Barber, head of the "match | upward of two million dollars. When a committee from St. Paul's Episcopal church came to him for a possible $3,000 donation for their new church in 1906, he surprised them completely by giving them a $400,000 subscription with which "the best church in America" was built.

Mr. Barber, in his travels in Paris, has admired the church of the Madeline. He promised to duplicate it for Akron, the town in which he had risen from poverty to many millions, and he did.

Senator Dick in his speeches against Barber has raised the issue that the "match king" is not a citizen. "Who's Who in America," says Mr. Barber was born in Middlebury, O., April 20, 1841, and when 15 years old began work in his father's match factory at Akron, O. He worked up rapidly and became a partner in 1861. It was in 1881 that he arranged a combination of match manufacturers, and formed the Diamond Match Company, of which he became vice-president. Seven years later he was made president, and since then has been known as the "match king."

The final returns of the grain production for Central Canada for 1909 is now in, and the figures show that the value of the crops to the farmers of that country is about 195 million dolyear. American farmers or those who have gone from the United States, will participate largely in these splendid returns, and these comprise those who have gone from nearly every State in

One of the many proofs that might be put forward showing the immense wealth that comes to the farmers of Central Canada is seen in the sum that has been spent during the past two or three months by the farmers who have for the time being ceased worrying over the reaper and the thresher, and are taking to enjoying themselves for two or three months. It is said that fifty thousand people of these Western Provinces spent the holiday season visiting their old Most of these passengers paid forty and some forty-five dollars for the round trip.
