E. W. Bissell.

Follow the crowd to Draper Bros. large store, the place where you get your money's worth.

Among the new readers, we this week add the name of Mr. E. Walker, living a few miles south of town.

E. W. Bissell is enjoying a visit from his brother-in-law, M. Thompson, of Glewood, Mo., who arrived last week.

Chickens, Chickens, Chickens. We want lots of them: Best prices paid.
This is Siepmann & Oltmann talking.

Married, by the County Judge, Wednesday, Nov 15th, 1905, Andrew I.
Engelman and Roalee Powell, both of Litchfield.

The good John Mieski, formerly a county dad from Ashton, was in town last Saturday, and remembered THE NORTHWESTERN.

Draper Bros. have the best line of heating stoves, ranges and base-burners in the county. See them if you need anything in that line.

A number of people from Loup City attended the wedding of Mr. Walter Lukaszewski and Miss Anna Tapolski, at Schaupp Siding last Tuesday.

On yesterday afternoon the near-neighbors of Mrs. T. H. Elsner called in a body, with refreshments and spent a pleasant afternoon, welcoming her into her new home.

The Model Restaurant wants all patrons to know that it has fresh oysters to serve in any style. Lovers of that delicacy should remember this when in want of that toothsome delicacy.

Someone perpetrated a measly trick on a Methodist audience at Ord last Sunday night, by sprinkling red pepper around in the church, which caused such distress that the audience was dismissed without the formality of a benediction.

E. Walker, living some eight miles south of town, on last week took his good wife to the St. Francis hospital at Grand Island, there to undergo an operation for a serious trouble in her right side. We trust Mrs. Walker may speedily be relieved and return to her home in former good health.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Snyder on Tuesday evening entertained the Apron committee at tea, it being the last of their series of meetings for the present season. There were present Mesdames Converse, Hayes, Gibson, Adamson, Reed and Bechtold, of the committee, Geo. H. Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. J. W.
Burlingame, as guests of the estimable couple.

Miss Cora Leininger on last Thursday presented to this office a nice sample package of hickory nuts, received from her aunt, Mrs. W. E. Gilbons, of Celina, Ohio. It takes the editor back to the scenes of boyhood, when a pleasant pastime was going into the woods hickory-nutting. Were you ever in the same boat, dear reader?

The Sherman County Telephone company have placed the following phones since last report: C. S. Krehmke; A.
W. Wilson, farm; Martin Cook, farm; Charley Snyder, farm; J. H. Miner, residence; T. M. Reed, residence; W. T.
Owens, postoffice, and Mrs. B. M. Gasteyer has had a desk phone placed in her store in addition to her residence wall phone.

Mrs. M. O. Slayter returned last week from an extended visit to eastern points, visiting at Chicago on the way, and from there to Lighter's Ford, Ind., where she buried her aged mother, who had passed her 90th year, and thence to various other places for visits among old friends. Other than the sad duty above mentioned, Mrs. Slayter had a most pleasant visit. She was absent some ten weeks.

B. W. Hampton of Rockford, Ills., preached for our Methodist friends last Sunday evening, and his audience was so highly pleased with the talented lecturer that they prevailed upon him to deliver a lecture at the church last evening, the church being crowded with enthusiastic hearers. They did not get enough of a good thing, and so they have prevailed upon him to deliver another lecture this evening at the same place. We have not been fortunate enough to hear him so far, but judging by the enthusiasm of those who have, we should say that he is the best that has ever appeared before a Loup City audience. Evidently you will miss a literary treat, if you fail to hear him tonight.

See C. E. Mellor about a new well.

S. S. Hover arrived from Arkansas Tuesday evening to close up some unfinished business.

If you want to buy or sell real estate, call on John W. Long.

Friends to the number of twenty-four gave Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Tracy a pleasant party at their home last Saturday evening and a jolly time was reported.

Ravenna.

Rev. H. S. Wold is rejoicing over a brand new daughter, who arrived Wednesday morning of this week, just at the prep' o' day. Mother and little one doing nicely.

Draper's still have some good values on their 10c counter with a new stock expected in a few days. Watch this if you want $1.00 to go as far as $2.00 elsewhere.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church will hold their annual fair and chicken-pie supper at Pilger's Opera house, Saturday, Dec. 2, 1905. We appreciate the patronage given us in the past and will have for you useful and fancy articles at prices to suit every one. You will find at the different tables: Quilts, Comforts, Cushions, Aprons, Handkerchiefs, Dolls, Homemade candies and other articles too numerous to mention. Don't forget the date. Sale of articles will commence at 2 p. m., supper at 5 p. m. adults 25c, children under 12 yrs. 15c.

A good 400-acre farm, well improved, for sale by John W. Long, $25 per acre.

One day last week, Lee Arthur, the popular B. & M. agent, sold a ticket to a point east to a man perhaps 35 years of age who had never up to that time rode on the cars, or been in a passenger coach before in his life. He came here overland from another county some twelve years ago, and has amassed considerable property, although not being the possessor of one dollar in money when he came to Sherman county.
We do not give the gentleman's name, as he does not wish for publicity, and we only make mention of the incident as one that does not happen once in a decade in this day and age.

YOUNG MEN—The Moler Barber College, Denver, Colo. certainly offer splendid chances to learn the barber trade, just now. Their scholarship can practically be earned before completing. It includes tools, board and positions. Write them.

Fifty Years Young.

It was a jolly lot of the old boys that accepted Mrs. J. O'Bryan's invitation to luncheon Tuesday evening, the occasion being Joe's fiftieth birthday. Bert Chase met Joe as he climbed from his engine and for an hour kept him up town while the crowd took possession of his home. At the termination of the luncheon, which did credit to Mrs.
O'Bryan and daughter, Miss Gladys, Judge Wall arose and after accusing Joe of every crime on the calendar, to which he pleaded guilty, the judge presented him with a handsome watch charm and a gold ring. Joe responded in a terse but feeling manner, and after an hour in recounting events that transpired during the early days in which Troy Hale described life as he enjoyed it on the range. Those present were:
Messrs. H. W. Pedler, J. S. Pedler, Dr.
Long, W. F. Mason, T. A. Taylor, A.
E. Chase, C. W. Conhiser, D. C. Grow, W. O. Brown, J. T. Hale, M. H. Mead, W. G. Odendahl, A. Wall, Lee Arthur and M. C. Mulick.

Who Was Mean Enough?
Last Saturday morning when J. S.
Pedler opened the front door of his residence, he found wrapped in an old copy of THE NORTHWESTERN and deposited on the doorstep, a picture of his two children taken in childhood, the package besmeared with either drops of blood or red ink, and on the back of the picture were posted words and letters cut from the Gasteyer advertisement, together with some penciled letters, the whole forming a sentence reflecting upon Mr. Pedler, and signed with the word "Dog." The whole thing was the work of a dastard or dastards, whoever may be the author or authors of the detestable work and was and is heartily condemned by all right-minded people. We dislike the idea that such so-called humans have existence in our midst.

To The Public.
I wish to say to the public in general that owing to my poor health in the past year, I have decided to put another dray on the street to do the heavier work. Romeo Conger will drive this dray and we will be found at the same old stand ready for business of all kinds early and late. Thanking you for past favors and asking for a share of your patronage in the future, I remain, yours for business,
JAS. W. CONGER.

FARMERS ATTENTION

Do not Fail to Witness the Famous
LIGHTNING FEED GRINDER EXHIBIT

THIS IS A GRINDER NOT A CRUSHER

And while you are here, we want to show you the merits of the best feed grinders ever invented. They have roller bearings, chilled steel burrs, friction plates to take up the wear, and nine lugs to force the grain into the burrs, which make three revolutions to one of the sweep, and the bearings run in oil.

THE FAMOUS LIGHTNING FEED GRINDER grinds faster, runs easier and lasts longer than any other mill made, and you never have to grind your grain a second time to get it fine enough.

You can grind
Wheat, Eye, Oats, Kaffir Corn and Corn, shelled or in the ear at the rate of twenty-five to fifty bushels an hour with one horse.

REMEMBER THE DATE
Friday and Saturday; November 17th and 18th.
