JOHNSON & LORENTZ

To Messrs. Gibson & Mathew:

Will you explain to the citizens of Washington township why it is that the valuation of J. P. Parker, Chas. Larson and Alex Baillie's farms in total amounts to $1584.00, when the three Oak Creek Valley farms at the southeast corner of Ashton only are valued at a total of $1570.00? Is it not a fact that the three Ashton township farms are worth a total sum of $9000.00 more than the three Washington township farms? Then please enlighten the Washington township people why Ashton township was entitled to the 15 per cent reduction that you secured for them?

new Smith-Premier typewriter, and his printer believes that after he has had sufficient practice with the new affair, she may be able to get legible copy for the paper.

A rumor to the effect that Lum Fletcher had sold his banking business in this city to A. L. Zimmerman gained currency on our streets this week, but upon authority of Mr.
Fletcher it is pronounced utterly without foundation in fact.

Dr. Rae of St. Paul preached for the

A fine baby boy was born to Chas.
Harnes on the 10th of last month, a fact our statistics reporter failed to glean at the time, but we now welcome the youngster among us, with the most pleasing knowledge that being very handsome, he has been named after our jolly merchant, C. C. Cooper. Hello, Godfather Cooper.

dies. ODENDAHL BROS.

Over in an adjoining county to Sherman, of course, a farmer wanted to fatten a young beef for a local butcher, but the said butcher demurred, saying:
"We do not buy that kind of beef, we buy only cows and would not know how to make purchase of any other kind." If that should happen in Sherman county, one could be excused for thinking his teeth were getting bad on various occasions.
